George Kaseberg was a business visitor in Moro Monday from Wasco.
He said that he got caught in deep ruts and snow drifts numerous times on the way up and that when this happened he had to back up and try again.

Mrs. Helen Copper, better known to Sherman county folks as Miss Davidson, was visiting the first of the week with Mrs. Muir. Mrs. Copper was formerly in charge of the Domestic Science work of the Wasco, Moro and Grass Valley schools.

Here is the best buy in Sherman county: 720 acres, 690 tillable; 350 seeded to turkey red; good buildings; plenty of good water. I will sell this place for half what others are asking for the same quality of land.
Come and let me show you this place.
Alex Hunter, Moro. Temporary address, 1075 Sandy Blvd, Portland.

Miss Mary Kunsman entertained lectures on Missions. All will be made welcome.

F. E. Fortner returned Tuesday from Portland where he has been the last two weeks having special dental surgical work, caused by interlocking wisdom teeth. One operation consumed four hours with only local nerve blocking for an anesthetic.

J. M. Eddy is again on the job as mail carrier on the local rural route.
He reports that on Monday, succeeding the 18-hour snow fall of the previous day, his car bucked drifts that were an average of one to four feet deep and about as endless as was the 30 mile long route.

The boxing and wrestling tournament scheduled to be put on at the Moro opera house this Thursday by members of Moro Athletic Club, because of the bad roads, has been postponed until Thursday, March 3d.
Good lively events are on the cards and it is hoped that a good crowd will attend this first attempt of the club.

A total rainfall of 1.70 for the month of February, figured to Monday morning, is the report of D. E. Stephens, superintendent of the State and Federal Experiment Station. The snowfall of Sunday averaged better than a foot on the level and is figured into the total rainfall as above. The total rainfall for the month of January was 1.74.

R. C. Byers, superintendent of the DeMoss Sunday School, informs us that for all it was a bad day last Sunday their Sunday School was very well attended and the special song given by three young men was well rendered. Those who were not present sure missed a grand treat. Next Sunday's special will be instrumental music. Every one should come and hear this, it will be worth your while.

R. S. Goff, formerly manager of DesChutes Motor Co., leaves for Portland this week to accept a position with Wm. L. Hugboon Co., one of the largest automobile firms on the Pacific Coast. Mr. Goff will cover the state of Oregon and small portions of Washington and Idaho in the interest of this company and says he is not bidding Sherman county good bye by any means and will be in our midst often.
Mr. Goff states he will appreciate either business or social calls from Sherman county people when they are in Portland.

B. F. Gill, from Pilot Rock, Oregon, and Edgar L. Ludwick, from Spokane, are registered at the Hotel Moro. They are canvassing the farmers of Sherman county for the purpose of signing the Wheat Growers Cooperative Marketing Agreement. They said on Wednesday that a total of 14,250,000 bushels was now signed in the three states of Washington, Idaho and Oregon. Under the terms of the contract as signed, if 15,000,000 bushel is under contract by March 1st the contract immediately and automatically becomes effective. Including Montana, which will work with the association in the three states, there is more than 18,000,000 bushels of wheat now under the wheat marketing contract.

The Food Sale of the Ladies Aid last Saturday was a popular event quickly over with as the supply did not by any means equal the demand. As to the amount realized by the Aid we were not informed.

The owner of a stray sorrel horse about five years old, weight about 1150, indistinct brand on left stifle, that came to my place about Christmas is requested to come for same and pay charges or it will be advertised for sale.
Clarence Sparling, Moro.

Word came to town Tuesday that a stranger herding sheep in the Des Chutes river breaks above the old Harris place had disappeared and it was not known whether he had unceremoniously left his job or fell over the bluff. About five in the afternoon Tom Douma left to trace down the rumor. Late Thursday morning Tom returned with the news that the man's trail lead to the railroad.
