a18tf Grass Valley, Oregon.

George Tomlin sprained his ankle in the 6th inning of the baseball game at Wasco last Sunday, while playing on the Moro team. He was so interested in the game that he never knew until the game was finished that he should have been on the bench for the last half.

Contractor O. A. Ramsey began construction work Monday on the new residence to be built on the E. E. Barnum farm to replace the one lost last summer by fire. The new building will use the old foundation, with some changes, and be a 13-room story and a half house of the bungalow type, 34x54 feet in size with a full basement. The Tumalum Lumber Company is furnishing all the material for the building from their Grass Valley yard.

Rev. B. F. Harper will preach at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning and evening. No doubt all will be glad to hear him, as he is well known to Sherman county people, so bear it in mind that you are invited.

Rev. E. E. McVicker left Monday morning via the highway for a visit of ten days with his daughter, Mrs.
Kyle at Florence, where Mrs. McVicker had preceded him. It was the intention to leave the auto at Eugene, pick it up on the return from the coast, and visit at a few Willamette Valley points on the way home.

It is worth more than a 40-pound salmon to attend the Sunday School at the Methodist church. Try it out and see. The children are forming the habit of staying to church. A large number enjoyed the party last Friday, given to those who had stayed to church for six consecutive Sundays.
Join the crowd and make it fifty by June. Preaching at Spaulding Chapel next Sunday noon, Moro church at 7:30 p.m.

Saturday, April 30th, a Local Teachers' Institute will be held at Grass Valley. J. V. B. Butler, from the Oregon Normal School, and H. C. Seymour, State Club Leader, will be present for the day. Former Oregon Normal students living in the county have received special invitations to attend and all other school patrons will be welcome. Luncheon will be served by the Grass Valley Industrial Club Girls.

Mayor N. W. Thompson had the best fish story and the best proof of the facts last Monday of all the local fishermen who tried their luck the previous day. In company with many others he had gone to Shearers Bridge and like the others found the Des-Chutes too riley for successful fishing. Then he tried Buckhollow, hooking 18 for home consumption and getting a number of smaller ones that went back into the water.

S. P. Brisbin brought into the Observer office this week a double yolk egg, laid by one of his flock of chickens, that measured a scant eight inches in circumference one way by six inches the other. Sam says that this one was just an average size for a "double" and that his chickens have been in the habit of presenting him with one or more each week for some time. A mighty good habit to have them inoculated with during the high price period.

The 102d anniversary of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows will be appropriately observed at Grass Valley on April 24th under the auspices of Grass Valley Lodge No. 131. All Odd Fellows, Rebekahs, and their families, are expected to be present.
A suitable program has been arranged, the exercises will begin at 10:30, followed by dinner. All who attend are expected to bring a basket and something good to eat, as an old-fashioned basket dinner will be spread.
Let us see how many Odd Fellows and Rebekahs there are in Sherman county next Sunday.

Weston, were visiting in Moro this week at the home of his parents, Jas.
Woods and wife.

The Dalles last Saturday by Frank R.
Knox of Moro and Velma Elizabeth Byers of The Dalles.

ports four-tenths of an inch of rain at the Experiment Farm, following the storms of Sunday and Monday.

scheduled is a return game with Dufur.

S. B. Holmes was a visitor in Moro this week from south of Grass Valley.
He has been but recently returned from a three months visit spent in California.

Wasco took the local baseball team down the line last Sunday at Wasco.
The score was 8-5 at the finish, but that does not say in its entirety the good game the Moro team put up.

T. S. Reese when in town Monday from his Upper Hay Canyon farm reported that last Sunday night a good inch of rain fell at and near his place as the result of the storm of that evening.

At Moro Sunday night a good rain was experienced about 9 p. m. Since then several showers have kept the ground muddy. All of which is good for the growing crops as well as other farm work.

Carroll Sayrs is reported to have said that the hail storm of Monday last left the ground where he was working, about two miles west of town, covered to a depth of an inch and half with the hail stones.

Attention is called to the program of the High School Girls' Glee Club on page four. The members of the club have worked hard to make the evening an enjoyable one and a large audience should reward their efforts.

Word has been received by Moro friends of the arrival of little Miss Bernice Irene at the home of Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Steelhammer on Friday, April 16th, 1921. Mrs. Steelhammer will be kindly remembered as Miss Blanche DeArmond, one of the popular teachers in Moro schools a few years since.

Mrs. N. P. Hansen, from Portland, and Anson Woods, from Walls Walla, were in Moro this week at the home of their parents, Jas. Woods and wife. While they were here a second operation was performed upon "Uncle" Jas. that is at this time reported to be most probably all that could be desired and from which Mr. Woods is recovering nicely.

Your attention is called to the dance at Moro Opera House the evening of Friday, April 29th. McK.
Ellsworth and John Ruh are giving the affair and that is sure notice of a good time. The music is by an orchestra that will most certainly make all lovers of good dancing have a fine evening. Don't forget the date, supper served at Moro Hotel.

You Can Write a Book

When someone asked Mark Twain which was his favorite of all the books he had written it took him just about half a second to answer, "My Bank Book."

Everyone can write a book—not like Huck Finn, perhaps—but on the style of Mark Twain's favorite, the true story of one who keeps his money matters in good order and does not forget Tomorrow in the excitement of Today.

Your bank book tells your story. Perhaps our officers can help you make it good reading.
