County Commissioner J. M. Wilson and two sons were in Moro Saturday from Kent, the boys having necessary dental work done for them by Dr. J. R. Morgan.

F. W. Boyer, the Moro Plumber, has been busy the past week finishing the installation of sanitary toilet, bath, lavatory and hot water tank in the C. C. Calkins residence.

G. E. Mathews and wife were Portland visitors the first of the week. The trip was made for the purpose of having some repairs made to the Moro Theater moving picture machine.

W. A. Woods was a Moro visitor this week from his home at North Powder, Oregon, the place credited to have been the coldest place in the United States winter before last.

T. H. Fraser has bought the property advertised for sale by the W. Lord Estate. The land in question lies south and east of Wilcox station, in the south part of Sherman county.

For Sale—6 h.p. gas or kerosene International engine; run only two months; cost new $272.50, can be had for $195. For details see Ginn, Coleman & Co., or George Ellsworth. ml

W. F. Jackson returned Friday from his annual visit spent at Long Beach, California. Mrs. Jackson stopped at Portland for a visit with her brother Robert Kaseberg and family before returning to Moro.

Word was received in Moro Tuesday evening that Aden Axtell had submitted to an operation that morning at a Portland hospital, for a goiter in his neck that had been affecting his eyes for several months.

Mrs. R. A. Whitmore, from Hillsboro, who has been visiting with her sister, Mrs. S. P. Briabin, for the past five weeks left Sunday for her home, accompanied by Mrs. B. for a weeks return visit.

H. M. Benson and W. A. Raymond have the new concrete walk on Main street in front of the Ellsworth Hotel and continuing west, about ready for use. When finished it will be a fine improvement of the street.

In our garden seed line we have bulk peas grown in Sherman county that have been carefully selected from many varieties and have proven the best adapted to this soil and climate. Early, medium and late varieties. Moro Trading Co.

It was a pity that the magnificent trees in front of the Ellsworth Hotel had to be sacrificed to civic improvement. Moro has a local reputation for its fine shade trees, both in private yards and on the streets, but we have none too many.

Rev. McVicker will occupy his own pulpit next Sunday, when he will preach the last sermon at 11 a.m. on "The Holy Spirit, the Interpreter of the Scriptures." In the evening he will render the illustrated sermon on "The Parables of Christ." Come out and enjoy the services.

C. M. Zell and wife, from The Dalles, were visiting relatives in Moro Sunday last. Mr. Zell is building a residence and chapel undertaking parlor in The Dalles at the corner of Kelly avenue and Clay street, which, when completed, some time in the near future, will incorporate ideas in undertaking service that will be very much above the usual.

Saturday, April 30th, a Local Teachers' Institute will be held at Grass Valley. J. V. B. Butler, from the Oregon Normal School, and H. C. Seymour, State Club Leader, will be present for the day. Former Oregon Normal students living in the county have received special invitations to attend and all other school patrons will be welcome. Luncheon will be served by the Grass Valley Industrial Club Girls.

Owing to the fact that the call for wheat to aid the starving Chinese and people in the Near East came at a time when farmers were exceedingly busy, it has been thought best that the time for receiving this wheat be extended to May 10th. Bring your offering to the Independent Warehouse at Wasco; Farmers Elevator at Moro; W. W. M. warehouse at Grass Valley; Kent Elevator at Kent. Cash contributions should be made to J. E. Coleman, Moro.

Decision Day will be observed in the Methodist Sunday School next Sunday. The scholars throughout the school will be given an opportunity to decide for Christ and unite with the church. The subject of the morning sermon is "Moulding Character." Subject for evening "Monumental Testimonies of Disobedience." The evening hour is changed from 7:30 to 8 o'clock. Come and worship with us.

The display of Ladies Ready-to-Wear garments, see announcement on first page, that will be on display this Saturday at Hotel Moro by the J. C. Penny Company of The Dalles, will be in charge of competent representatives of the company and the same careful service will be accorded visitors as would be given in their store at The Dalles. The display consists of Ladies' Coats, Suits, Dresses, Skirts, and Blouses. All interested are invited to call. Open in the evening.

J. C. Hartley, superintendent of the Kent Sunday School, asks the Observer to announce that there will be an all-day service in the Christian church at Kent on Sunday, May 1st, beginning with Sunday School at 10 a.m., followed by preaching service at 11 a.m., and basket dinner at noon. Preaching again at 3 p.m. DeMoss Sunday School will unite with the Kent Sunday School on that day and members of that school will furnish some very good musical numbers. Every body welcome.

You Can Write a Book

When someone asked Mark Twain which was his favorite of all the books he had written it took him just about half a second to answer, "My Bank Book."

Everyone can write a book—not like Huck Finn, perhaps—but on the style of Mark Twain's favorite, the true story of one who keeps his money matters in good order and does not forget Tomorrow in the excitement of Today.

Your bank book tells your story. Perhaps our officers can help you make it good reading.
