You Can Write a Book

When someone asked Mark Twain which was his favorite of all the books he had written it took him just about half a second to answer, "My Bank Book."

Everyone can write a book—not like Huck Finn, perhaps—but on the style of Mark Twain's favorite, the true story of one who keeps his money matters in good order and does not forget Tomorrow in the excitement of Today.

Your bank book tells your story. Perhaps our officers can help you make it good reading.

IN MEMORIAM

Margaret Hunter Kessinger was born December 18th, 1891, in Juliette, North Dakota, and died May 7th, 1921, after an illness of several weeks, at her home in Hay Canyon. Mrs. Kessinger came with her parents to Forest Grove, Oregon, where they resided for some time, later moving to Sherman county where she has since made her home. June 18th, 1911, she was united in marriage to A. R. Kessinger and to this union six children were born, three dying in infancy. She was a loving mother and companion, a kind and worthy friend and neighbor. She leaves to mourn her loss her father, a brother, a sister, her husband, two daughters, and a son. Funeral services were conducted from the Moro Methodist church Monday morning by Rev. Harold H. Miles and the body laid to rest in the L.O.O.F. cemetery.

J. R. Morrison, an early pioneer farmer of Sherman county, died Sunday night at his home at Hestie, B.C. Mr. Morrison formerly lived in the Monkland section, farming what is now part of the McLachlan holdings. He was a brother to Wm. Morrison of this city and a brother-in-law of R. J. Ginn.
