The Sherman Electric Company loaded and dispatched three large truck loads of camp and commissary supplies on Monday to their camp three miles west of Dufur where active operations have been resumed.
A number of poles are to be set in that vicinity and then wire will begin to be placed for the high power line into Sherman county. Manager Roy Dean estimates that within two months all points will be supplied with light and power from the company lines.

Charles Gray, nephew of Manager Walker of the Moro Hotel, narrowly escaped serious injury Saturday when his shirt, soaked with spilled kerosene, caught fire. Charles went down stairs Saturday morning to build up a fire in the water heater. He decided to use a little oil to start the blaze in the smoldering coals and carried the can to the stove. When he opened the door the coal gas collected in the top of the heater was ignited by the sudden draft and flames shot out.
Charles stumbled backwards and spilled the oil on his shirt which then began to blaze. With a remarkable steadiness, the boy tore off the garment and stamped out the fire with but little damage resulting from his experience.

for Portland where she will visit with her two sons, Jack and Robert and their families.

F. L. Burnett and family returned this week from an auto trip to Walla Walla, Wash., where they were guests of his brother.

L. W. Ross and wife left this week bound on an auto trip to Southern Oregon and the southern coast counties.
They will return about July 15th.

Reward is offered by B. F. Tomlin for the return of a pig, red with black spots, weight about 50 pounds, strayed away last Saturday afternoon.

Commencing July 6th, Dr. C. H.
Johns, Chiropractor, will be at the Sherman Hotel, Wasco, Monday, Wednesday and Friday of each week. Consultation free.

J. O. Elliot was hauling building material this week from the Tumalum Lumber Co. with which to build on his farm a combination wood shed, wash house, and bunk house.

DeMoss Springs Chautauqua dates this year are July 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7. Six big days. Free camping privilege with free wood and spring water and a play ground for the kiddies.

Fire at Rufus last Thursday night destroyed the Hill & Ramey garage, two cars in the building, and the Rufus postoffice. Both of the cars were Maxwells, one new and the other an older car.

The Tumalum Lumber Co. is building a series of bins along the railroad track, in their Moro yard. When finished four will be used for coal storage and one a combination lime, plaster and cement bin.

The theme for the Sunday morning worship at Methodist church will be a study in foreign missions, "China." For the evening, a study for immortality, "Man's Own Place." We are looking for you.

With approximately 4500 yards of rock yet to crush and spread, the road gang seems to have a fairly long time yet to work. Up to Saturday morning 1100 yards had been spread out of the 6000 contracted for Moro work.

Any of my Sherman county friends, when in Portland, will find me in the Stock Exchange building, with Walter & Clark, real estate, 313, corner Third and Yamhill street. Any one wanting to sell or trade their farm can write me there. Alex Hunter.

A slight fire was discovered in the Moro Hotel basement Monday morning in a waste paper basket full of used paper towels in the wash room. When discovered the basket and contents was consumed with no further damage.
It is supposed that the fire started from a discarded cigarette or cigar tossed away by a careless smoker.

W. A. Ruggles and family returned Sunday from an auto trip to Portland, taken for the purpose of consulting a specialist regarding the children's eyes. They were only an hour behind the car that went over the 300-foot bluff at Bridle Veil Falls last Thursday, resulting in the death of the two occupants.

Sherman county's slacker list, as posted in the Moro post office, contains only two names, that of Frank Craft and Oscar Selin, both registered at Grass Valley. It is reported that the two were camping on the John Day river when called and neither are residents of the county. The government offers $50 expense money to any civilian or officer of the law who apprehends a draft evader.

Strayed: I light bay mare, 4 years old, with a light colored nose and small white spotted forehead, branded on left shoulder. When last seen she was in Bill Ross' pasture on the John Day River, and was with an old dark gray bay mare, branded A. L. on left shoulder. I will pay $10 reward to any one giving me information that will lead to this mare's recovery.
F. Willis Knox, Box 836, The Dalles, Oregon.

There will be no Bible studies on Wednesday evenings at the Presbyterian church from now until the fall.
The subject of the sermon to be delivered at 11 a.m. will be "Faith is Essential to Christian Living." The theme of the evening sermon is the conclusion of the Devil and Demons, closing with the special thought of "Why God does not Kill the Devil." All will be made welcome at these services.

P. J. Pentacost and wife, from Walla Walla, are visiting this week at the Heckman farm, Mr. Pentacost being an uncle to Mrs. Heckman.
The visitors have been enjoying an auto tour of the Northwest section of Washington, going over the Snoqualmie pass when the snow yet covered the road and was banked six feet high on each side by the snow plows used to clear the mountain pass. They returned by way of the Columbia highway.

THE OLD DOLLAR IS COMING BACK

Reports from various parts of the country indicate that the dollar is staging a comeback, with a promise of gradual return to its old-time purchasing power.

This is welcome news for all of us who have been wrestling with the cost-of-living problem.

It is welcome news also for the many people in this community who are saving wisely against the time when the dollar will buy a full dollar's worth again.

"Keep on saving," is our advice. The old dollar is coming back.
