Dr. C. L. Foley has traded his Studebaker for another car of the same make.

Regular services at the Presbyterian church next Sunday, to which you are invited.

A 14 x 20 foot garage is being built by Campbell and Johnson for Robert Hoskinson.

For Sale—Good 7 room house, with washroom, bath, etc., large size lot. Inquire Observer office.

House and two lots, in Moro, for sale by Sherman County Abstract Co. Price and terms reasonable.

Mrs. J. C. Harper was a guest of R. C. Atwood and wife on a week-end fishing trip to Mecca Saturday.

John M. DeMoss is nursing a boil on the top of his left instep. While painful it does not stop him from working in the harvest.

The Observer can now state with authority that the highway between The Dalles and DesChutes river will be open for travel next Saturday, the 20th.

Women wanted—Work on pears to start about Aug. 15th for a long run. Have your name registered early. Libby, McNeill & Libby, The Dalles, Oregon.

R. C. Byers and family and grandson from Dufur, who accompanied them, arrived back Sunday evening from a two weeks vacation trip to the beaches of Tillamook county.

Dr. J. C. Ghormley is enjoying an enforced vacation in Alaska waters as a naval reserve officer in Uncle Sam's fleet now cruising in northern waters. He expects to be home this week.

G. G. DeMoss and family returned this week from Portland where they have been on business connected with the patenting of a sack sewing device invented by George. They made the trip via auto.

A seven pound daughter was born Tuesday, August 9th, to Mr. and Mrs. James Brady at their farm home north east of Wasco. Dr. Foley, who was called to attend, reports all progressing nicely.

Miss Norma Medler returned to her Wasco home last week after a two weeks vacation spent at Seaview, Wash. While at the ocean she had a narrow escape from drowning when caught in an undertow while bathing in the surf.

Mt. Hood decided to have a rumpus Monday afternoon the 9th, when two mountain guides discovered hot sands and boiling water issuing from under Crater Rock and which had melted the ice for a distance of a mile down the mountainside.

The pole line for the Sherman Electric Co. has been finished and the crew are now making some necessary moving of poles in Wasco, Moro and Grass Valley while waiting for the wire which in all probability will arrive this week.

The headquarters office of the Northwest Grain Growers has been moved from Seattle to Portland. The Oregon headquarters had previously been moved from The Dalles to Portland. This combines the three states into one office headquarters.

A pleasant letter received from S. D. Montgomery informs us that he has sold his Montavilla home and bought another in the Arleta section of Portland. As he is in the real estate business in Portland, there is reason to believe both were satisfactory deals.

C. E. Johnson was entertaining a movie photo artist part of last week. The operator came prepared to "take" views of all kinds of harvest scenes, but lack of time made him shorten his program. Just what was intended to be done with the pictures was not told Mr. Johnson.

J. A. Cothran's wheat field, better known as the Moffet place, was set afire Sunday morning by parties unknown who drove their auto into the field with the result that 140 acres going close to 13 sacks was burned over before the fire was under control. Mr. Cothran and family at the time were away after fruit.

Mrs. W. F. Jackson is entertaining two cousins from St. Louis, Missouri, who have been touring the coast states. The two visitors, Mrs. W. Dean and Mrs. Augusta Fleming, sisters and cousins to Mrs. Jackson and R. W. Kaseberg, were given a trip over the Columbia Highway from Portland to Moro on Tuesday by Mr. Kaseberg where they were met by the Jacksons and taken to Camp Sherman for a weeks visit before leaving for their eastern home.

Chiropractic is based upon the automatic fact that forty three pairs of nerves pass from brain and spinal cord, through the opening in the skull and vertebral column, into the different organs of the body, and that the subdivisions continue through the sympathetic ganglions, and thus reach all parts of the human body. Dr. C. H. Johns chiropractic physician, Hotel Sherman, Wasco, Mondays, Wednesdays, Fridays and the balance of the week at Moro.

Between the hours of 9:30 p.m. Monday and the following morning, the private garage of Dr. J. C. Ghormley at Wasco was broken into and the spare tire and rim and the front tire and rim were stolen from their car along with all the best assortment of tools owned by the Doctor. Sheriff Chrisman has notified garage men east and west of Sherman county of the theft and furnished the tire numbers to men who make a specialty of hunting such thieves. Chances of recovery are considered good.

Preaching services at Spaulding Chapel next Sunday at noon, subject: "Sacrifice, the Law of Life." Services in the Moro Methodist church in the evening, subject: "Relative Responsibilities." Now that harvest is pretty well out of the way we hope you will plan to be with us in these services.

Publication of Summons

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Sherman County

J. Thomsen, plaintiff,
George J. Thomassen, defendant.

To George J. Thomassen, defendant above named:

In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint of the plaintiff in the above entitled action on or before the expiration of six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons as hereinafter stated, and if you fail to so appear and answer said complaint or otherwise appear or plead in said action, for want thereof, the plaintiff will take judgment against you for the sum of $2,165.65 with interest thereon from the 1st day of July, 1921, at the rate of six per cent per annum, for plaintiff's costs and disbursements, and for an order of sale of the property attached in said action.

This summons is served upon you by publication thereof in pursuance of an order of the Honorable E. D. McKee, judge of the county court of the state of Oregon for Sherman County, dated July 30th, 1921, which said order requires that this summons be published in the Sherman County Observer once each week for six consecutive weeks and that you shall appear and answer said complaint on or before the expiration of six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, which said date is August 5th, 1921.

W. C. Bryant and Orville L. Pepper
Attorneys for plaintiff,
Address Moro and The Dalles, Oregon.
