NEWS LETTER FROM KENT

A party was given at the Mottern home Thursday evening in honor of Art's birthday. All report a good time.

The Kent high school boys played against Grass Valley basketball team Friday evening. Grass Valley won the game. Don't lose your courage, boys.

Mrs. J. R. Dellinger left for The Dalles Sunday for a visit with her father.

Mrs. Grant Smith of Portland is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Max Pleumke, and brother, Henry Moers at the Hotel Kent.

Some of our Kent people were at the basketball game at Grass Valley Friday night. They say it was worth going out in the cold, just to see the side show after the game.

Mr. DeMarco and Lyle Hogue spent last Sunday at the O. W. Hogue home near Grass Valley.

H. A. Munding has returned home after his long Christmas vacation. We all welcome you home, Jack.

The school children are enjoying the skating weather.

The W. C. T. U. met at the home of Mrs. Fred Haynes last Thursday.

A. A. Dunlap is enjoying a very bad cold. We are afraid he will lose his nose. Better look out.

The Kent basketball team played against Wasco, and Wasco won. Eat more peanuts, boys, and count the baskets you make.

W. E. Bayers was in town last week showing that new daughter. Walt has sure got the smile that won't wear off.

There were quite a number of Kent people down to see Dr. Morgan at Moro last week.

Mrs. Grover Young was a week-end visitor at Wasco last week.

Mrs. W. C. Guyton received a telegram from Arvada, Colorado, stating that her mother Mrs. J. D. Bell, had died. Mrs. Guyton went by auto to Rufus where she took the train for Colorado. Mr. and Mrs. Bell formerly lived at Kent.

It was reported that I. E. Wilson had bought the pool hall but he says it is news to him. The pool hall has been reported sold several times this winter, but we notice that Jess Barry still has the keys.

Dr. Thatcher was called to the Fred Blaylock home last week to see the little girl, who had fallen from a wagon and was pretty badly hurt.

A. W. McLeod is an Arlington visitor with his sister, Mrs. J. K. Irby, this week. Mrs. C. B. Andrews is visiting with Mrs. McLeod at Kent.

There was a fresh snow Tuesday and it snowed and blowed all day.

The smoker was postponed. We think they felt the big snow coming.

Nearly everybody in and around Kent are sick with colds.

Der Goat has writer's cramp. There weren't any news last week.

Marjory Blaylock is doing nicely after her fall last week.

Everybody thinks of Munding these days.

Everybody's doing it. Doing what? Staying home and trying to keep warm.

K. L. Houser had a car of hay shipped in for his sheep this week.

He Played the Game

Verily, this is the winter of the blue snow and Paul Bunyon has heard no weirder tales than those we will tell to future generations of this period. Last night a man of prominence and parts sat down with a thump on the sidewalk in front of the post office. There was no outburst of profanity. Instead he surveyed the situation, scrambled to his feet and hiked away.

"That fall did me good," he explained, afterwards. "I was getting too cocksure. I'll be more careful about my step in the future." This is the philosophy that has come over us all. But the ice is here, and we must make the most of it.

DEVELOPING A MARKET FOR OUR PRODUCTS

Business expansion is by no means haphazard. It entails study and research. That our country may win in the race for world trade the Department of Commerce keeps its agents abroad to search business opportunities. The details of their work are brought out in the seventh of a series of folders on Our Government which we are distributing each month. The complete series gives a highly interesting and instructive account of Our Government and its advantages to you.

Send your name and address and we shall mail you the stories issued previously and each pamphlet published in the future—one every month.

The coal man grins a fiendish smile As Jack Frost grows still bolder. The chimney plugs up all the while And cold days grow still colder. The snow comes drizzling to the ground And frigid winds keep blowing. The warming sun is seldom found; His heat waves have ceased flowing. So we'll curl up behind the stove Until these days are over; And, hibernating, never move From our protecting cover. —by G. A.

A new assortment of popular novels at 90 cents. Moro Pharmacy.

H. B. Pinkerton and family left Wednesday for a brief visit at Portland.

J. A. Hardin was a business visitor in Moro from The Dalles the first of the week.
