Local business men, cooperating with the local American Legion have committees at work arranging for three interesting affairs to be put on in Moro this season. One is a race meet, the second a rousing 4th of July celebration, and the third a well arranged base ball schedule.

The special meetings conducted the past three weeks by the Presbyterian and Methodist churches closed Sunday evening at the Methodist church. The meetings have awakened a spirit of go-to-church among the citizens of the community that speaks well for the future. Each of the Sunday services were particularly well attended by the public, with those of the week averaging close to 80 each evening. The men's special meeting Sunday afternoon was attended by an attentive audience of about 50 men.

There appeared in the December 23 number of the Sherman County Observer the following want ad: "Wanted by unidentified party, words and tune to song containing these words: 'We will welcome you, Jack, if you'll only come back; you're as welcome as the flowers in May, and we'll love you in the same old way.'" In answer to this must say that this song is not used much in public and is usually sung to the tune of "There's just one girl. There are others I know, but they're not my pearl," and the time should be "When the lights are low." Yours respectfully, Willie Montgomery, Teacher of Music, Chicago.

By the divine wisdom that governs the world, all things move with ebb and flow. There is high tide and low tide in all our human affairs. We are rich today; we may be poor tomorrow. We are sad today, but we know that we will not be sad always. Next week we shall be proportionately happy.

DEVELOPING A MARKET FOR OUR PRODUCTS

Business expansion is by no means haphazard. It entails study and research. That our country may win in the race for world trade the Department of Commerce keeps its agents abroad to search business opportunities. The details of their work are brought out in the seventh of a series of folders on Our Government which we are distributing each month. The complete series gives a highly interesting and instructive account of Our Government and its advantages to you.

Send your name and address and we shall mail you the stories issued previously and each pamphlet published in the future—one every month.
