

Men's Work Clothes

FOR clothes that will stand the hardest wear—the common sense kind that are good honest quality all through—give us a trial.

Our line of overalls and work shirts is giving exceptionally good satisfaction this season and our prices are very reasonable.

We Can Supply All Your Needs

To accommodate our many good customers, we are now carrying an unusually large and varied stock comprising practically everything you are likely to want. Before going elsewhere, see us first and get our prices.

SAVE MONEY AND TIME BY BUYING HERE

Every Day is Bargain Day at Our Store

Moro Trading Company

Phone Main 31

Moro, Oregon

Deschutes Motor Co.

GARAGE

J. L. Matthes -:- Manager.
Moro, Oregon

Open all hours of the day and night. Cars taken care of at any time. Night man sleeps in the building.

Auto Accessories Genuine Ford Parts
Kelly Springfield Tires
Goodrich Tires and Tubes
Silvertown Cords

The two most vital problems in life are:

- 1st. "How to Make Money?"
- 2d. "How to Save it?"

The People's and City Markets

The Dalles, Oregon

Helps you to a great extent to solve them. We handle all kinds of fresh and cured meats and invite the public to try us for best meats and lowest prices.

The People's Market gives prompt attention to mail orders and all credit accounts. Right prices paid for fat cattle, hogs, veal, chickens and eggs.

The City Market is cash and no delivery and offers attractive prices on choice cuts.

The prudent housewife who wishes to make both ends meet, will find the biggest variety and lowest prices at our People's and City Markets.

Fred Kolt, Proprietor

Studebaker Cars

GOODYEAR TIRES AND TUBES

Complete Line of Accessories

AUTO REPAIRING - STORAGE

Blacksmith and Machine Shop

FOSS & CO., Inc.

Phone 303

MORO, OREGON

Special Rates

NEW HOTEL PERKINS

Fifth and Washington Sts.
PORTLAND, ORE.

Room with privilege of bath, single, $1.00 up; double $1.50 up.
Room with private bath, single $1.50 up; double $2.50 up.
Auto Meet Trains. Street cars from Union Depot pass our doors.
Transfer at 5th and Glisan streets from North Bank Depot.

The Observer

Official Paper for Sherman County.
FRIDAY May 12, 1922

Eureka Lodge No. 121.
A. F. A. M. MORO, ORE.
Meets the first and third Thursday evenings of each month. Visiting members cordially invited to ride with us. By order of W. M. W. F. HULST, Sec'y.

Bethlehem Chapter No. 78 O. E. S.
Regular communication each 2d and 4th Thursday evenings monthly.
NELLIE MUIR, Worthy Matron
NANA BARBER, Secretary.

Moro Lodge No. 113 I. O. O. F.
Meets every Monday evening in their hall. Transient and Visiting Brothers cordially invited to meet with us.
W. H. WILLIAMS, N. G.
C. F. HILL, Secretary.

CHRIS SCHULTZ POST NO. 71 AMERICAN LEGION
Meets at Odd Fellows Hall on second and fourth Wednesdays of each month.
Roy F. Dean, Commander
J. C. Harper, Adjutant and Finance Officer.

Local Church Announcements
Methodist Church announcements
Sunday School 10 a.m.
Preaching at 11 a.m. every Sunday.
First, third and fifth Sundays by the pastor; the second and fourth Sundays by Rev. W. L. Dillinger.
Union young people's meeting at 6:45 p.m.
Union church service, 7:30 p.m.
Union midweek service Wednesday, 7:30 p.m.
The union services alternate between the two churches.
Preaching at Spalding second and fourth Sundays at 12 noon.
The public is cordially invited.
U. C. Smothers, pastor.

First Presbyterian Church of Moro
Sunday School 10:00 a.m.
Morning Worship 11:00 a.m.
Union young people's meeting 6:45
Union Evening Service 7:30 p.m.
Union mid-week service Wednesday, 7:30 p.m.
The union services alternate between the two churches.
Dorcas Society Wednesday, 2 p.m.
Henry G. Hanson, minister.

Christian Science Society:
Services in the Church building, Main street, at 11 a.m. Subject: "Mortals and Immortals."
Testimonial services each Wednesday evening, 8 o'clock.
Sunday School, rear church entrance, 10:15 a.m. Pupils up to the age of 20 are welcome.
The public is cordially invited to attend the church services and visit the reading room, rear entrance, open daily, except Sunday, with an attendant in charge from 2 until 4 p.m.

FOR SALE
1 Rumley Oil Pull tractor 12-20.
1 60-horse Case steam engine.
1 Baby Holt combine, 14 foot.
1 22x44 Rumley thresher, with full equipment.
All are second hand and in good condition. Write Box 381, The Dalles, Oregon.

COMING!
TO THE DALLES
Dr. Mellenthin
Specialist
IN INTERNAL MEDICINE FOR THE PAST ELEVEN YEARS
Does Not Operate
Will be at
THE DALLES HOTEL
Wednesday, May 31st
Office Hours: 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.
ONE DAY ONLY
NO CHARGE FOR CONSULTATION

Dr. Mellenthin is a regular graduate in medicine and surgery and is licensed by the state of Oregon. He visits professionally the more important towns and cities and offers to all who call on this trip free consultation, except the expense of treatment when desired.

According to his method of treatment he does not operate for chronic appendicitis, gall stones, ulcers of stomach, tonsils or adenoids.

He has to his credit wonderful results in diseases of the stomach, liver, bowels, blood, skin, nerves, heart, kidney, bladder, bed wetting, catarrh, weak lungs, rheumatism, sciatica, leg ulcers and rectal ailments.

If you have been ailing for any length of time and do not get any better, do not fail to call, as improper measures rather than disease are very often the cause of your long standing trouble.

Remember the above date, that consultation on this trip will be free and that his treatment is different.

Married women must be accompanied by their husbands.
Address: 336 Boston Block, Minneapolis, Minn.

Good wheat hay for sale. C. P. Walker, six miles south of Moro, phone 23F13.

Abstracts promptly made by the Sherman County Abstract Co., Moro, Oregon.

The Ellsworth Hotel is again open for transients. Meals 50 cents. Mrs. C. H. Ellsworth.

Remember, we can save you money on your cup grease. Bring your can, 10c per pound bulk. Foss & Co.

We pay parcel post one way on all shoe repairing. Good quality leather and work. Joe Amore, The Dalles, Oregon.

For Sale: Thirty head of good work horses from four to ten years old. Also a few good mules. H. P. Belashee, Moro, Oregon.

Owing to the staging of the senior play on Wednesday evening, the prayer meeting next week will be held on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the Presbyterian church.

Rev. Henry G. Hanson went to Hood River Thursday morning to attend a meeting of the home mission committee of Pendleton Presbytery. He returned Friday afternoon.

There was a good increase in attendance last Sunday night when the Father and Son service took place at the Presbyterian church. Lads and dads were much more conspicuous by their presence than usual in the evening service.

The Presbyterian church people will give a reception to Mrs. John Muir next Thursday evening, May 18th, at 8 o'clock, in appreciation of her five years' service as superintendent of the Sunday School. The public is cordially invited.

Last Friday afternoon Mrs. T. C. Lee gave an "at home" for the babies on the cradle roll of the Presbyterian church together with their mothers. Those present report an excellent time. There are 41 babies on the roll at the present time.

Last Tuesday afternoon, while calling around town, Rev. Henry G. Hanson lost a watch chain, engraved with the letters C. E. in script. He is anxious to recover same, not so much for monetary value, as for sentimental reasons; it was a present from friends.

The evening service at the Methodist church will be the annual baccalaureate sermon for the high school graduating class. It will be a union meeting as usual, the sermon being preached by Rev. Henry G. Hanson on the subject, "The Survival of the Fittest, or the Revival of the Unit."

Rev. U. C. Smothers will preach at the Boardman schoolhouse Sunday morning, instead of at Spalding. The Spalding congregation will join in with the people of Boardman in observing Mothers' Day appropriately. Rev. W. L. Dillinger will preach in town. He announces a very special sermon to which the public is invited.

Next Sunday morning Mothers' Day will be observed at the Presbyterian church with a sermon on the theme, "Mothers Known and Unknown." It is urged that people make a special effort to attend worship, and pay this added respect to her to whom we owe more than to any other human being for the best things in life. Remember mother with flowers, or with a letter home or by an unselfish deed that she will especially cherish.

Responding to an insistent and urgent demand by practically all of Sherman county that he again be a candidate for representative from this district for the state legislature, A. M. Wright has consented to accept the office if nominated at the primary election. All his friends—the friends of Sherman county—are urging that his name be written in on the ballot and when doing so do not forget that an X must be placed before the name to make this effective.

Commencement exercises for Moro high school are given as follows:
Sunday, May 14th, 8 p.m. baccalaureate services in the Methodist church.
Monday, May 15th, 8 p.m., class day exercises in the high school building.

Wednesday, May 17th, 8 p.m., the senior play in the opera house.
Friday, May 19th, 8 p.m., commencement exercises.

The public is cordially invited to attend these exercises.

Moro will put on a race meet on June 2nd and 3d under the auspices of the American Legion. The following committee has been appointed to promote the affair: Roy Kunsman, chairman, W. M. Walker and Roy Powell. It is the intention of the Legion to also celebrate the Fourth, the following committee having been appointed to handle proceedings: N. W. Thompson, chairman, W. H. Ragdale, A. M. Wright, J. C. Harper, L. W. Ross, L. R. Conlee, W. C. Bryant and J. F. Foss. The publicity committee for both affairs is W. H. Williams and Guy Mathews.

Last Sunday morning a very happy exchange took place between the two churches of the city. Instead of the customary change of pastors, which is in vogue in many places, this was an exchange of audiences. Mr. Smothers at the Methodist church preached an illustrated sermon to the Sunday School increased by five classes of prim'ries, intermediates, and juniors from the Presbyterian Sunday School. This meant a full house. Later the adult audience of the Methodist church walked over to the Presbyterian church, where Mr. Hanson preached his sermon to a good house. The exchange was helpful all around, and it may be worth trying again.

The Sherman county annual field meet will be held this year in Moro on May 20th.

Prufo Top Dressing restores the finish and stops the leaks. We have it at Foss & Co.

Pasture for horses; running water, good fences. J. Thomsen, Route 1, Moro, Oregon.

Wanted: Horses to pasture. Fine grass, good fences, plenty of water. Otto Herrling, Criterion, near Shaniko.

Sunday School will be held as usual at Gorman next Sunday. On May 21 Rev. H. G. Hanson will be present to deliver the sermon.

For Sale: The Methodist parsonage and barn at Spalding. Sealed bids will be received until May 15th. Send bids to Rev. U. C. Smothers.

Until further notice Model Laundry basket will leave Hotel Moro barber shop at 2 p.m. each Monday and return each Friday at 1 p.m.

Wait for Dr. Freeze, if you need eye service. Trips each month to Moro and other towns.

Waverly oil, 100 cent Pennsylvania, 35c per quart. Zerolene no. 7, 25c per quart and Zerolene no. 3 medium, 20c per quart. Foss & Co.

TO THE VOTERS OF SHERMAN COUNTY

This is to announce that I will again be a candidate for the Republican nomination for County Commissioner at the primary nominating election May 19th. You have my record; pick it to pieces; not overlooking the mistakes; and, should you decide to again nominate and elect me to this office, I will no doubt make other mistakes. However, I assure you that it shall continue to be my purpose to make them just as few and far between as it is possible. J. M. Wilson, Kent.

FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the republican nomination for County Commissioner of Sherman county, at the Primary Nomination to be held May 19, 1922. If nominated and elected I will give the taxpayers of Sherman county my careful attention for a businesslike administration. J. L. Wiley.

EXECUTRIX NOTICE

All persons having claims against the estate of Mary McLachlan, deceased, are hereby notified to present the same with the proper vouchers therefor to the undersigned, executrix, at her residence four and one half miles east of Moro, Sherman County, Oregon, within six months after the date of this notice.
Dated this 28th day of April, 1922.
Elizabeth Axtell, Executrix.

IN THE COUNTY COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON FOR SHERMAN COUNTY

In the Matter of the Estate of Anders Gustave Anderson, Deceased. Notice

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned administratrix of the estate of Anders Gustave Anderson, deceased, has filed in the County Court of Sherman County, State of Oregon, her final account as such administratrix of said estate and that Monday, the 29th day of May, 1922, at the hour of 10 o'clock a.m. has been fixed by said Court as the time for hearing of objections to said final account and the settlement thereof.

Lucretia E. Anderson, Administratrix of the Estate of Anders Gustave Anderson, Deceased.
W. C. Bryant & C. L. Pepper, Attorneys for Estate. 514-28

IN THE COUNTY COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON FOR SHERMAN COUNTY

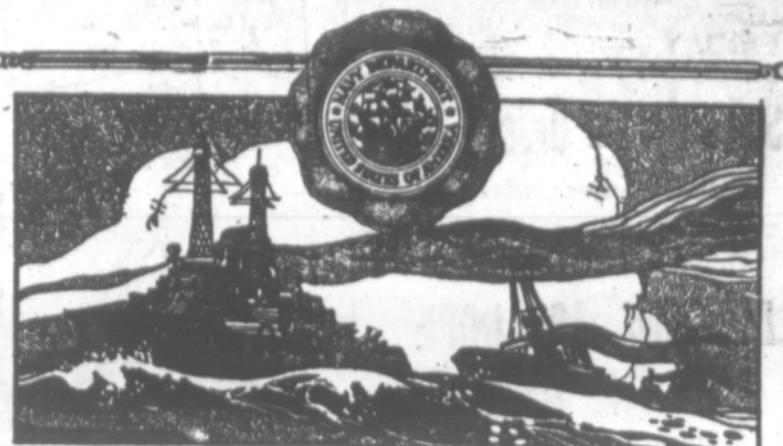

In the Matter of the Estate of John D. McDermid, Deceased. Notice

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned executor of the estate of John D. McDermid, deceased, has filed in the County Court of Sherman County, State of Oregon, his final account as such executor of such estate and that Monday the 5th day of June, 1922, at the hour of 10 o'clock a.m. has been fixed by said Court as the time for hearing of objections to said report and the settlement thereof.

Geo. B. Bourhill, Executor of the Estate of John D. McDermid, Deceased.
W. C. Bryant & W. A. Carter, Attorneys for Executor. 514-28

Grocers Recommend Albers Quality
Albers Flapjacks
the hotcakes of the West

THE LONG ARM OF THE NATION

The strength of every nation is measured by its sea power. In war the navy is the deciding factor. In peace it is the most powerful insurance against future war. Little-known facts of intense interest concerning our navy are told in one of the series of stories about Our Government—which we are sending out each month.

To receive with our compliments this story and all those issued before, merely send us your name and address.

BANK OF MORO

MORO, OREGON

Hon. Will H. Hays

EX-CHAIRMAN, REPUBLICAN NATIONAL COMMITTEE

TELEGRAPHS

Ralph E. Williams

Wester Union Telegram

RALPH E. WILLIAMS
Vice-Chairman
Republican National Committee

Vote X 13

WILL H. HAYS.

Editorial from the Morning Oregonian

Mr. Williams for Committeeman

but it carries many responsibilities, and calls for work. Its rewards are, of course, recognition of leadership, and the prestige and influence that go with it. Mr. Williams has been the committeeman for Oregon for four years, and is a candidate for re-election. There is no good reason why he should not be re-elected; there are good reasons why he should be, the most obvious and unanswerable of which is that he has a high place with the committee, is on terms of intimacy and confidence with the national leaders of the republican party, is in entire confidence with the national committee, which, not many months ago, by unanimous vote of service which no new man, whatever his qualities, can possibly perform. The Oregonian is reluctant to intervene in the contest for national committeeman; but the advantages to the republican party in Oregon of Mr. Williams election are so plain that it party job. It pays nothing in salary but it carries many responsibilities, and calls for work. Its rewards are, of course, recognition of leadership, and the prestige and influence that go with it. Mr. Williams has been the committeeman for Oregon for four years, and is a candidate for re-election. There is no good reason why he should not be re-elected; there are good reasons why he should be, the most obvious and unanswerable of which is that he has a high place with the committee, is on terms of intimacy and confidence with the national leaders of the republican party, is in entire confidence with the national committee, which, not many months ago, by unanimous vote of service which no new man, whatever his qualities, can possibly perform. The Oregonian is reluctant to intervene in the contest for national committeeman; but the advantages to the republican party in Oregon of Mr. Williams election are so plain that it party job. It pays nothing in salary but it carries many responsibilities, and calls for work. Its rewards are, of course, recognition of leadership, and the prestige and influence that go with it. Mr. Williams has been the committeeman for Oregon for four years, and is a candidate for re-election. There is no good reason why he should not be re-elected; there are good reasons why he should be, the most obvious and unanswerable of which is that he has a high place with the committee, is on terms of intimacy and confidence with the national leaders of the republican party, is in entire confidence with the national committee, which, not many months ago, by unanimous vote of service which no new man, whatever his qualities, can possibly perform. The Oregonian is reluctant to intervene in the contest for national committeeman; but the advantages to the republican party in Oregon of Mr. Williams election are so plain that it party job. It pays nothing in salary but it carries many responsibilities, and calls for work. Its rewards are, of course, recognition of leadership, and the prestige and influence that go with it. Mr. Williams has been the committeeman for Oregon for four years, and is a candidate for re-election. There is no good reason why he should not be re-elected; there are good reasons why he should be, the most obvious and unanswerable of which is that he has a high place with the committee, is on terms of intimacy and confidence with the national leaders of the republican party, is in entire confidence with the national committee, which, not many months ago, by unanimous vote of service which no new man, whatever his qualities, can possibly perform. The Oregonian is reluctant to intervene in the contest for national committeeman; but the advantages to the republican party in Oregon of Mr. Williams election are so plain that it party job. It pays nothing in salary but it carries many responsibilities, and calls for work. Its rewards are, of course, recognition of leadership, and the prestige and influence that go with it. Mr. Williams has been the committeeman for Oregon for four years, and is a candidate for re-election. There is no good reason why he should not be re-elected; there are good reasons why he should be, the most obvious and unanswerable of which is that he has a high place with the committee, is on terms of intimacy and confidence with the national leaders of the republican party, is in entire confidence with the national committee, which, not many months ago, by unanimous vote of service which no new man, whatever his qualities, can possibly perform. The Oregonian is reluctant to intervene in the contest for national committeeman; but the advantages to the republican party in Oregon of Mr. Williams election are so plain that it party job. It pays nothing in salary but it carries many responsibilities, and calls for work. Its rewards are, of course, recognition of leadership, and the prestige and influence that go with it. Mr. Williams has been the committeeman for Oregon for four years, and is a candidate for re-election. There is no good reason why he should not be re-elected; there are good reasons why he should be, the most obvious and unanswerable of which is that he has a high place with the committee, is on terms of intimacy and confidence with the national leaders of the republican party, is in entire confidence with the national committee, which, not many months ago, by unanimous vote of service which no new man, whatever his qualities, can possibly perform. The Oregonian is reluctant to intervene in the contest for national committeeman; but the advantages to the republican party in Oregon of Mr. Williams election are so plain that it party job. It pays nothing in salary but it carries many responsibilities, and calls for work. Its rewards are, of course, recognition of leadership, and the prestige and influence that go with it. Mr. Williams has been the committeeman for Oregon for four years, and is a candidate for re-election. There is no good reason why he should not be re-elected; there are good reasons why he should be, the most obvious and unanswerable of which is that he has a high place with the committee, is on terms of intimacy and confidence with the national leaders of the republican party, is in entire confidence with the national committee, which, not many months ago, by unanimous vote of service which no new man, whatever his qualities, can possibly perform. The Oregonian is reluctant to intervene in the contest for national committeeman; but the advantages to the republican party in Oregon of Mr. Williams election are so plain that it party job. It pays nothing in salary but it carries many responsibilities, and calls for work. Its rewards are, of course, recognition of leadership, and the prestige and influence that go with it. Mr. Williams has been the committeeman for Oregon for four years, and is a candidate for re-election. There is no good reason why he should not be re-elected; there are good reasons why he should be, the most obvious and unanswerable of which is that he has a high place with the committee, is on terms of intimacy and confidence with the national leaders of the republican party, is in entire confidence with the national committee, which, not many months ago, by unanimous vote of service which no new man, whatever his qualities, can possibly perform. The Oregonian is reluctant to intervene in the contest for national committeeman; but the advantages to the republican party in Oregon of Mr. Williams election are so plain that it party job. It pays nothing in salary but it carries many responsibilities, and calls for work. Its rewards are, of course, recognition of leadership, and the prestige and influence that go with it. Mr. Williams has been the committeeman for Oregon for four years, and is a candidate for re-election. There is no good reason why he should not be re-elected; there are good reasons why he should be, the most obvious and unanswerable of which is that he has a high place with the committee, is on terms of intimacy and confidence with the national leaders of the republican party, is in entire confidence with the national committee, which, not many months ago, by unanimous vote of service which no new man, whatever his qualities, can possibly perform. The Oregonian is reluctant to intervene in the contest for national committeeman; but the advantages to the republican party in Oregon of Mr. Williams election are so plain that it party job. It pays nothing in salary but it carries many responsibilities, and calls for work. Its rewards are, of course, recognition of leadership, and the prestige and influence that go with it. Mr. Williams has been the committeeman for Oregon for four years, and is a candidate for re-election. There is no good reason why he should not be re-elected; there are good reasons why he should be, the most obvious and unanswerable of which is that he has a high place with the committee, is on terms of intimacy and confidence with the national leaders of the republican party, is in entire confidence with the national committee, which, not many months ago, by unanimous vote of service which no new man, whatever his qualities, can possibly perform. The Oregonian is reluctant to intervene in the contest for national committeeman; but the advantages to the republican party in Oregon of Mr. Williams election are so plain that it party job. It pays nothing in salary but it carries many responsibilities, and calls for work. Its rewards are, of course, recognition of leadership, and the prestige and influence that go with it. Mr. Williams has been the committeeman for Oregon for four years, and is a candidate for re-election. There is no good reason why he should not be re-elected; there are good reasons why he should be, the most obvious and unanswerable of which is that he has a high place with the committee, is on terms of intimacy and confidence with the national leaders of the republican party, is in entire confidence with the national committee, which, not many months ago, by unanimous vote of service which no new man, whatever his qualities, can possibly perform. The Oregonian is reluctant to intervene in the contest for national committeeman; but the advantages to the republican party in Oregon of Mr. Williams election are so plain that it party job. It pays nothing in salary but it carries many responsibilities, and calls for work. Its rewards are, of course, recognition of leadership, and the prestige and influence that go with it. Mr. Williams has been the committeeman for Oregon for four years, and is a candidate for re-election. There is no good reason why he should not be re-elected; there are good reasons why he should be, the most obvious and unanswerable of which is that he has a high place with the committee, is on terms of intimacy and confidence with the national leaders of the republican party, is in entire confidence with the national committee, which, not many months ago, by unanimous vote of service which no new man, whatever his qualities, can possibly perform. The Oregonian is reluctant to intervene in the contest for national committeeman; but the advantages to the republican party in Oregon of Mr. Williams election are so plain that it party job. It pays nothing in salary but it carries many responsibilities, and calls for work. Its rewards are, of course, recognition of leadership, and the prestige and influence that go with it. Mr. Williams has been the committeeman for Oregon for four years, and is a candidate for re-election. There is no good reason why he should not be re-elected; there are good reasons why he should be, the most obvious and unanswerable of which is that he has a high place with the committee, is on terms of intimacy and confidence with the national leaders of the republican party, is in entire confidence with the national committee, which, not many months ago, by unanimous vote of service which no new man, whatever his qualities, can possibly perform. The Oregonian is reluctant to intervene in the contest for national committeeman; but the advantages to the republican party in Oregon of Mr. Williams election are so plain that it party job. It pays nothing in salary but it carries many responsibilities, and calls for work. Its rewards are, of course, recognition of leadership, and the prestige and influence that go with it. Mr. Williams has been the committeeman for Oregon for four years, and is a candidate for re-election. There is no good reason why he should not be re-elected; there are good reasons why he should be, the most obvious and unanswerable of which is that he has a high place with the committee, is on terms of intimacy and confidence with the national leaders of the republican party, is in entire confidence with the national committee, which, not many months ago, by unanimous vote of service which no new man, whatever his qualities, can possibly perform. The Oregonian is reluctant to intervene in the contest for national committeeman; but the advantages to the republican party in Oregon of Mr. Williams election are so plain that it party job. It pays nothing in salary but it carries many responsibilities, and calls for work. Its rewards are, of course, recognition of leadership, and the prestige and influence that go with it. Mr. Williams has been the committeeman for Oregon for four years, and is a candidate for re-election. There is no good reason why he should not be re-elected; there are good reasons why he should be, the most obvious and unanswerable of which is that he has a high place with the committee, is on terms of intimacy and confidence with the national leaders of the republican party, is in entire confidence with the national committee, which, not many months ago, by unanimous vote of service which no new man, whatever his qualities, can possibly perform. The Oregonian is reluctant to intervene in the contest for national committeeman; but the advantages to the republican party in Oregon of Mr. Williams election are so plain that it party job. It pays nothing in salary but it carries many responsibilities, and calls for work. Its rewards are, of course, recognition of leadership, and the prestige and influence that go with it. Mr. Williams has been the committeeman for Oregon for four years, and is a candidate for re-election. There is no good reason why he should not be re-elected; there are good reasons why he should be, the most obvious and unanswerable of which is that he has a high place with the committee, is on terms of intimacy and confidence with the national leaders of the republican party, is in entire confidence with the national committee, which, not many months ago, by unanimous vote of service which no new man, whatever his qualities, can possibly perform. The Oregonian is reluctant to intervene in the contest for national committeeman; but the advantages to the republican party in Oregon of Mr. Williams election are so plain that it party job. It pays nothing in salary but it carries many responsibilities, and calls for work. Its rewards are, of course, recognition of leadership, and the prestige and influence that go with it. Mr. Williams has been the committeeman for Oregon for four years, and is a candidate for re-election. There is no good reason why he should not be re-elected; there are good reasons why he should be, the most obvious and unanswerable of which is that he has a high place with the committee, is on terms of intimacy and confidence with the national leaders of the republican party, is in entire confidence with the national committee, which, not many months ago, by unanimous vote of service which no new man, whatever his qualities, can possibly perform. The Oregonian is reluctant to intervene in the contest for national committeeman; but the advantages to the republican party in Oregon of Mr. Williams election are so plain that it party job. It pays nothing in salary but it carries many responsibilities, and calls for work. Its rewards are, of course, recognition of leadership, and the prestige and influence that go with it. Mr. Williams has been the committeeman for Oregon for four years, and is a candidate for re-election. There is no good reason why he should not be re-elected; there are good reasons why he should be, the most obvious and unanswerable of which is that he has a high place with the committee, is on terms of intimacy and confidence with the national leaders of the republican party, is in entire confidence with the national committee, which, not many months ago, by unanimous vote of service which no new man, whatever his qualities, can possibly perform. The Oregonian is reluctant to intervene in the contest for national committeeman; but the advantages to the republican party in Oregon of Mr. Williams election are so plain that it party job. It pays nothing in salary but it carries many responsibilities, and calls for work. Its rewards are, of course, recognition of leadership, and the prestige and influence that go with it. Mr. Williams has been the committeeman for Oregon for four years, and is a candidate for re-election. There is no good reason why he should not be re-elected; there are good reasons why he should be, the most obvious and unanswerable of which is that he has a high place with the committee, is on terms of intimacy and confidence with the national leaders of the republican party, is in entire confidence with the national committee, which, not many months ago, by unanimous vote of service which no new man, whatever his qualities, can possibly perform. The Oregonian is reluctant to intervene in the contest for national committeeman; but the advantages to the republican party in Oregon of Mr. Williams election are so plain that it party job. It pays nothing in salary but it carries many responsibilities, and calls for work. Its rewards are, of course, recognition of leadership, and the prestige and influence that go with it. Mr. Williams has been the committeeman for Oregon for four years, and is a candidate for re-election. There is no good reason why he should not be re-elected; there are good reasons why he should be, the most obvious and unanswerable of which is that he has a high place with the committee, is on terms of intimacy and confidence with the national leaders of the republican party, is in entire confidence with the national committee, which, not many months ago, by unanimous vote of service which no new man, whatever his qualities, can possibly perform. The Oregonian is reluctant to intervene in the contest for national committeeman; but the advantages to the republican party in Oregon of Mr. Williams election are so plain that it party job. It pays nothing in salary but it carries many responsibilities, and calls for work. Its rewards are, of course, recognition of leadership, and the prestige and influence that go with it. Mr. Williams has been the committeeman for Oregon for four years, and is a candidate for re-election. There is no good reason why he should not be re-elected; there are good reasons why he should be, the most obvious and unanswerable of which is that he has a high place with the committee, is on terms of intimacy and confidence with the national leaders of the republican party, is in entire confidence with the national committee, which, not many months ago, by unanimous vote of service which no new man, whatever his qualities, can possibly perform. The Oregonian is reluctant to intervene in the contest for national committeeman; but the advantages to the republican party in Oregon of Mr. Williams election are so plain that it party job. It pays nothing in salary but it carries many responsibilities, and calls for work. Its rewards are, of course, recognition of leadership, and the prestige and influence that go with it. Mr. Williams has been the committeeman for Oregon for four years, and is a candidate for re-election. There is no good reason why he should not be re-elected; there are good reasons why he should be, the most obvious and unanswerable of which is that he has a high place with the committee, is on terms of intimacy and confidence with the national leaders of the republican party, is in entire confidence with the national committee, which, not many months ago, by unanimous vote of service which no new man, whatever his qualities, can possibly perform. The Oregonian is reluctant to intervene in the contest for national committeeman; but the advantages to the republican party in Oregon of Mr. Williams election are so plain that it party job. It pays nothing in salary but it carries many responsibilities, and calls for work. Its rewards are, of course, recognition of leadership, and the prestige and influence that go with it. Mr. Williams has been the committeeman for Oregon for four years, and is a candidate for re-election. There is no good reason why he should not