The local American Legion post and business men of Moro are back of the race meet to be held at Moro next Friday and Saturday, June 23 and 24. 'Nuff said.

Memorial Day will be observed at Moro by the American Legion posts, decorating of graves to follow the morning service at the Presbyterian church.

Cards have been received by friends of Mr. and Mrs. John M. DeMoss announcing the safe arrival of Master Delbert Carlyle, weight 12 1/2 pounds, on Sunday, May 21, 1922.

Plans for the race meet to be held at Moro next Friday and Saturday, June 23 and 24, are about complete. The committee has signed up for some exceptionally good track events.

The ball game between Moro and Condon at Condon last Sunday was lost by Moro, score of 7 to 1. Until the seventh Moro had all the scores after that, the Moro team went to pieces.

Dr. R. A. Crawford, licensed chiropractor, will begin practice at Moro about Monday, May 29th. Inquiries mailed to Moro will be answered promptly. Will be at Moro Hotel.

Moro is lacking something in her own class when the O.W.R. & N. All Stars of Portland and the local nine cross bats on the home diamond next Sunday. No one is prophesying what the outcome will be.

Moro city council has accepted the new well drilled by A. S. Johnson, after a test pumping of about 50 gallons per minute for eleven hours. The new well is 222 feet deep and indications point to a new vein.

Every one is invited to attend a meeting to be held Monday night at 8 o'clock in the Ginn, Coleman & Co. store for the purpose of organizing a community club. It is hoped by the promoters that a large number will attend.

Fred Krusow, W. S. Powell and V. H. Smith were elected delegates May 19th, from Sherman county, to attend a convention of the Oregon Grain Growers Cooperative association in Portland to elect directors of the association for the coming year.

On Sunday evening at 8 o'clock at the Methodist church Rev. Henry G. Hanson will give a sermon-lecture on the "Book of Genesis." The Bible is a very much misunderstood book, and the purpose of this lecture is to present some phases that are usually not cleared up in sermons.

Kent was awarded the silver loving cup at the annual field meet held in Moro last Saturday. Every other school participating in the meet was disqualified because of entering men who were ineligible under the rules, and notwithstanding the fact that Kent won a point, the cup, in all fairness, went to her.

All Sherman county will join at Wasco American Legion hall at 11 o'clock on Memorial Day in observance of the day. The program is being prepared by American Legion posts in Sherman county, a special personal invitation being extended to all Civil war, Spanish-American war and Ex-service men to attend.

The winners in the declamatory contest at the opera house last Saturday night are given herewith: C. Division, first, Althea Powell of Erskine, second, Bernard Morrow of Rutledge; B. Division, first, Bernice McCarty of Moro, second, Franklin Sias of Kent and Delores Baker of Grass Valley tied; A. Division, first, Kenneth Martin of Grass Valley, second, Blythe Kirby of Wasco.

Next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at the Presbyterian church a union memorial service will be held. Rev. U. C. Smothers preaching the sermon on the topic, "Lest We Forget." The American Legion is cooperating and will march to the church and sit in a body. Soldiers of other wars, and members of auxiliaries are especially invited. Special appropriate music for the occasion is arranged.

Swift & Co. with Oregon headquarters in North Portland, has filed with the public service commission complaint against a number of northwestern railroads, protesting what is known as the Fairbanks' Perishable Protective Tariff No. 1. This tariff relates to refrigerator service of packing house products and charges assessed therefor.

A tentative agreement between the Lane county court and state highway commission regarding the payment of a $60,000 bill which the commission has against the county for grading certain portions of the Pacific highway has been reached. All road contracts and a bridge contract in which the state and county are to co-operate have been held up pending a settlement.

A canvass among the prune growers of Yamhill county to ascertain the condition of the crop has been made and practically all agree that the crop is not hurt by the late cold rains and frost. Walnut trees are showing up good and there should be a full crop of nuts. Cherries are in good condition, but some of the earlier strawberries were injured and the crop is fully three weeks late.

Deputies from the state fire marshal's office, following an investigation of conditions at the Old Soldiers' home at Roseburg, will recommend to the state board of control at its next meeting the purchase of a chemical engine, installation of fire hydrants, establishment of a pumping plant, and addition of several feet of hose, to better protect the inmates of the institution against fire.

THE LONG ARM OF THE NATION

The strength of every nation is measured by its sea power. In war the navy is the deciding factor. In peace it is the most powerful insurance against future war. Little-known facts of intense interest concerning our navy are told in one of the series of stories about Our Government which we are sending out each month.

To receive with our compliments this story and all those issued before, merely send us your name and address.
