Were His Antagonist Out.

Roosters have different tactics when fighting and often display considerable brainwork. Recently, in a Cuban rooster fight, where a little rooster was pitted against a big fellow, the little bird looked at his antagonist and started to run around and around, with the big rooster after him. Then, when the big bird was out of breath, the little one turned on him and whipped him in short order.

CONVENTION UPHOLDS DIRECT PRIMARY LAW

Washington Republicans Favor Poll Tax Repeal and Indorse Administrative Code.

Chesham, Wash.—Although the debates over proposal to repeal the poll tax and direct primary laws were rather lively, the Republican state convention held here Saturday was generally harmonious.

The platform committee recommended that the poll tax be continued as a good law, but that it be left in the hands of the people because of the referendum now against it.

On a minority report calling for its repeal, the vote was 574 for repeal and 233 for the majority report.

The majority report on the direct primary plank in the platform indorsed the law and urged support of the referendum act on the amendments made by the last legislature.

Tom Fluke of Coville county and others urged a substitute asking for the repeal of the law and Jay Thomas proposed, as a substitute to both, that the whole matter be referred direct to the people this fall. Both substitutes were voted down by a vote of 627 to 166.

Planks in the platform included strong indorsement of the national and state administration, including the administrative code of this state.

Following the election of Greenwood of Kitsap as temporary chairman, he gave a ringing keynote speech extolling the party and predicting success this fall. Major Jeffries of Benton county was made permanent chairman, and Victor Zednick of Seattle secretary.

WASHINGTON LOGGED AREA 4,603,450 ACRES

Olympia, Wash.—The total area of logged off land in this state approximates 4,603,450 acres, of which 3,974,250 acres are in western Washington, the completed survey started by Harry Thompson, agricultural engineer, shows.

Grays Harbor county has the greatest acreage of logged off land, nearly one-half of which could be utilized as agricultural land when cleared, according to the report. The percentage of the total area of the western Washington counties which is logged off land varies from 30 per cent in Pacific county to 82 per cent in Island county. The percentage of cultivated lands in these counties is said to be small, running from 2 per cent in Pacific county to 19 per cent in Clark county.

"The most of the valley lands have been improved and any future development must be on the bench and hill lands," the report stated.

WORLD'S WHEAT SHORT

Lower Stocks Expected to Be on Hand July 1 Than for Years.

Washington, D. C. — World wheat stocks by July 1 will be lower than for several years, according to an analysis of the situation issued by the commerce department.

Both Argentine and Australia, the department explained, have considerably less wheat than last year, the United States carry-over will be light, and only Canada has considerable stocks on hand. A larger demand than last year, it was declared, was indicated by the upward trend of European consumption, while the prospects are for a smaller crop.

"Until next February," the department said, "the international trade will be largely dependent for supplies on the surplus of North America and a limited quantity from India. With Russia entirely out of the export trade, North American wheat is in a relatively strong position."

Washington Wheat Crop Million Less. Spokane, Wash.—With a predicted production of 27,253,000 bushels, the Washington winter wheat crop this year will be 1,000,000 bushels less than was anticipated on May 1, according to the Washington crop report issued through the Spokane office of the bureau of crop estimates.
