

LET'ER BUCK at the ROUND-UP

PENDLETON, OREGON
SEPTEMBER 21, 22, 23, 1922

In the whole World there is no contest so intensely exciting, and with more thrilling and spectacular climaxes, than the riding of "outlaw" bronchos by cowboys and cowgirls.

These contests, also the wild horse races, wild steer roping and bulldozing, Indian dances and pow wows are all that remain of the young, wild, vigorous, yet lovable West.

A COLUMN OF BRIEF NEWS

Paragraphs on Community, County and State's Leading Events

About thirty ladies attended the Dorcas social at the home of Mrs. J. S. Hastings Wednesday afternoon. Refreshments consisting of ice cream, wafers and coffee were served.

Virgil Cushman has sold his farming interests near Wasco and has moved to Moro for the winter. He has retained his farm interests west of Moro and will resume active work in the spring.

Residents of Kent are complaining bitterly of the rock surface road in and thru that town in the south part of the county. The road in question is not up to the standard of roads in other parts of the county.

James Woods and wife returned Monday from a visit with friends and relatives at Portland and Salem. Uncle Jim said he was in the penitentiary while in Salem and, to his surprise, the authorities let him out after they had him locked up.

Mrs. V. B. Eakin, residing in the Rutledge section, was called to Portland Tuesday by word that her daughter-in-law was seriously ill. Mr. Eakin took Mrs. Eakin by auto as far as The Dalles because of better train connections.

A wooden culvert about a mile south of Bourbon on the main road to Kent is highly recommended to the powers that be for elimination of a bad grade. A similar condition is evident at a second culvert a short distance further south. Both are conducive of buying auto springs.

Secretary of State Sam Kozar, accompanied by Mrs. Kozar and Dr. R. E. Lee Steiner, the latter in charge of the state hospitals at Salem and Pendleton, was registered at Hotel Moro Tuesday. The party were homeward bound from Silver Lake, where they attended the Round-Up held at that city. Mr. Kozar, as a member of the state board of control, made the trip more for the purpose of inspecting the possibilities of the Warner Valley irrigation project.

The Moro Community Club in its meeting Monday evening, September 3d, adopted a constitution and by-laws. Any citizen of Moro and the community, including both men and women, are eligible for membership. The annual membership dues are fifty cents per member. The second Tuesday of each month was decided upon as the regular meeting time. The next meeting will be held Tuesday evening, September 12th, at the city council chamber.

CHURCH NEWS

Notes of Interest to All Local Denominations

The Union evening meeting next Sunday will be held in the Presbyterian church. Rev. H. G. Hanson will at this time give his third sermon lecture on the Bible. The Book of Esther will be reviewed. This is one of the most dramatic books ever written, and the daring stand of the Beauty of the Country is worthy of special consideration. Atlantic City is not the first to hold a beauty contest. The Bible speaks of one just as entrancing.

Rev. U. C. Smothers left Wednesday morning to attend the seventieth annual Oregon conference of the Methodist church, held at Salem. This district was recently transferred from the Columbia River conference to the Oregon conference. Reverend Smothers will be away over Sunday, and is therefore unable to fill his regular appointment at Spalding Sunday morning.

At the eleven o'clock service next Sunday at the Presbyterian church Mrs. J. C. Harper will sing a solo. Rev. Hanson will preach as usual.

On Sunday, September 10th, the regular Christian Science church service will be held. The subject is given as "Substance."

Potted and house plants, a large variety, for sale by Mrs. S. P. Brubine, Moro, Oregon.

Watch papers for date. Dr. Freeze' next visit to Sherman county towns.

We pay parcel post one way on all shoe repairing. Good quality leather and work. Joe Amore, The Dalles, Oregon.

For Sale: Modern seven-room home overlooking town and river. Full basement, bath and sleeping porch. Three city lots. Chicken lot and thirty bearing fruit trees. P. O. Box 495, The Dalles, Oregon.

PEOPLE who use the ad columns of the Observer invariably say that they get the very best of results.

THE LITTLE BROTHERS OF THE NATION

There is no phase of the achievements of our government more creditable to us than that dealing with the acquirement and handling of our outlying possessions.

A foreigner speaking of the United States colonization work says: "There never was a colonizing power which set out so fast to teach and educate the native races with which it came in contact. One great fact in development which citizens of the United States understand is that money spent on essentials is bound to pay itself back."

An interesting account of our insular and other outlying possessions is given in the latest booklet of the series on Our Government being issued monthly by this Institution. Are you receiving them?
