Unusual interest is taken in the course in religious education, which is now in progress on Wednesday evenings. Two topics have already been considered. The third topic, "Christian Youth and Nurture," will be considered next Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Presbyterian church, with Mrs. W. C. Bryant as leader.

A. B. Montgomery and brother J. E. Montgomery were visitors in Moro this week. The two are brothers to Robt. W. Montgomery, formerly a resident of Kent and Moro now living at Twin Falls, Idaho, where J. E. also resides. A. B. Montgomery is appraiser of land for the Pacific Coast Land Bank Co. of Portland, having his headquarters at Walla Walla.

Rev. Henry G. Hanson left last Monday morning for Redmond, where as moderator of Pendleton Presbytery he presided at the installation of Rev. D. E. Schnable as pastor of the church at that place. On Tuesday evening at Bend Mr. Hanson presided at a similar function, when Rev. Jackson L. Webster of San Anselmo Seminary was installed pastor. Following the installation the Fall meeting of Presbytery took place in the Presbyterian church at Bend. Mr. Hanson expected to take part in the state Sunday School convention at Portland before his return on Saturday to fill the pulpit on Sunday as usual.

As a special inducement to buy a range during the demonstration of the Great Majestic Range at the store of Ginn, Coleman & Co., commencing on October 9th and continuing until October 21st, every purchaser of a Majestic Range will have his or her choice of two fine cooking sets free. We have a presentation that there will be many fine new Great Majestic Ranges in kitchens of our neighbors and friends before the demonstration sale is concluded. Temptation to own a Majestic Range is irresistible when one learns the facts about the Great Majestic in its relation to economy in the home; many will find themselves saying "it's no use to put up with an old stove or range any longer."

Abstracts promptly made by the Sherman County Abstract Co., Moro, Oregon.

We pay parcel post one way on all shoe repairing. Good quality leather and work. Joe Amore, The Dalles, Oregon.

AN AUTHORITY THAT NO ONE EVER DISPUTES

There is at Washington one division of the government that is ever free from criticism as to its motives, even when its decisions are unpopular.

The head of the judicial branch of government—the Supreme Court—has had from its organization the reputation of being absolutely fair and unbiased in its findings, and its members enjoy the entire confidence and respect of the people of the country.

The interesting story of the Supreme Court is told in one of the series on Our Government being mailed monthly to the people of this community. It is an interesting, brief history of the court and its relation to the other branches of the government.
