Home Talent Show Coming April 6th

The comedy-drama "Deacon Dubbs" will be presented by a home talent company from Grass Valley at Moro Opera House next Friday evening, April 6th, under the auspices of the Eastern Star lodge of Grass Valley.
Fourteen well known and popular people of Grass Valley are in the cast.
A number of specialty pieces will be put on between acts. Curtain rises prompt at eight o'clock.

The action of the comedy is reported to be lively all the time, more particularly during the scene of the country auction and the husking bee.
Those taking the several parts are well adapted to depict the characters in the play, which moves rapidly to its climax in the third act when the Deacon takes a wife.

A news item that means little to you may be of paramount interest to a score of Observer readers.

Church Secures New Song Books

The new song books recently ordered by the church board of the Christian church at Wasco arrived last Saturday. The new books, 150 in number are titled "Wonder Songs of Faith" and are reported to be the latest edition of church hymns. The new book has 288 pages and is a fine collection of songs for Bible school, Christian Endeavor, and Church use. Included among the selections are many fine old hymns, 160 standard old songs, sixteen entirely new songs, twenty-one invitation songs, and 30 children's songs. They also contain responsive readers on a variety of Bible subjects.

Pioneer Brothers Visit Relatives

William and Charles Masiker, uncles to Mrs. L. L. Peetz, A. H., E. E., and LaDru Barzum, were visiting with old time friends in Moro this week. The two brothers are both fully entitled to be called pioneers of Sherman county. They knew what is now Sherman county when probably not more than a half dozen houses were occupied in the seventy miles between what is now Wasco and Antelope.

A prime factor in the upbuilding of a community is the community newspaper.
