Carload of Autos Unloaded Here

A carload of Ford touring, roadster, coupe, and truck automobiles was unloaded at Moro this week by Williams Motor Co. Included in the shipment were four touring cars, two roadster type cars, one coupe and one truck.
All the cars in the shipment with one exception, were sold before arrival.
W. H. Williams, manager of the motor company bearing his name, states that the demand for cars is so great that he considers himself fortunate in being able to get this shipment handled by the Ford company in as prompt manner as it was. As the season advances, car scarcity will increase and anyone intending securing an automobile should get his order booked before delays in filling orders occur.

F. L. Burnett and wife and T. W.
Alley and wife left last Tuesday for a visit with Mr. Burnett's brother, living near Walla Walla. The party returned Friday by way of Yakima and Bickleton, Washington. They report the roads as being in the best of condition, enabling them to make the run to Walla Walla, by way of Pendleton, in less than six hours from Moro.
