

Oregon News in Brief

Farmers around Condon are rejoicing over the rains which practically will insure more than an average crop.

The Methodist old people's home at Salem, recently completed at a cost of approximately $70,000, was dedicated Friday.

Two more weeks of warm weather are needed before the McKenzie pass will be open to travel, Deschutes national forest officials declare.

Wolves are killing deer in great numbers in the north Umpqua river district, is a report made to the Portland office of the state game commission.

Several changes in the opening and closing of the hunting seasons for the coming year have been made by the state game commission. The deer hunting season, instead of opening August 20 as heretofore, next fall will not start until September 10 and will close October 31. A slight change also was made in the bobwhite quail and Chinese pheasant season. It will open October 14 and close October 28. These are the only important game changes.

No bounties will be paid in the future on predatory animals killed in Crook county, but instead the county court has appropriated a fund of more than $600 to meet a like appropriation from the state which will be administered by the federal government in eradication of predatory animals in the district.

Friends of the Teel Irrigation project near Echo, in the west end of Umatilla county, have requested Governor Pierce to use his influence with other members of the state commission to appoint a disinterested engineer to inspect the half-finished project and check over plans with a view to starting the work for completion.

Only 46 homestead applications have been received at the Roseburg land office for lands in the Coos bay wagon road and Oregon-California grant lands, which were opened to entry June 11. Of this number about 20 of the applications are made by squatters or by lessees who are given a preference right under the act declaring the land open.

Captain Frank L. Cullen, 31st Infantry, stationed in the Philippines, has been ordered to Oregon as assistant professor of military science at the University of Oregon.

Members of the Oregon public service commission have set July 30 as the date for resuming the hearing of the rate case involving the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company.

Six or seven inches of new snow-fall on the mountain-peaks west of Haines has caused a chill to come over the Powder river valley which has checked the progress of growing crops.

A campaign for the colonization of 8000 acres of land reclaimed through the completion of an addition to the water supply of the Tumalo project has been decided on by the district directors.

Nick Gavins, a Portuguese laborer of Salt Lake city, shot and seriously wounded two men on the Oregon-Washington section gang near Pleasant Valley in Baker county. Gavins then made his escape to the hills. He is thought by authorities to be insane.

The Oswego Lake Water, Light & Power company has filed application with the public service commission for permission to install meters for irrigation service. Increase in irrigation rates from 75 cents to $1.50 a month is also sought by the water company.

At the request of George F. Anderson of the Portland Livestock Exchange, a conference ordered by the public service commission for June 26 to consider the operation of an additional livestock train between Huntington and Portland, has been postponed.

The North Pacific Library association held its 14th annual convention at Corvallis. The conference was considered highly successful and was well attended, 105 delegates being present from Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Utah, Montana, British Columbia and California.

Officers of Umatilla county are searching for a man who was alleged to have set fire to two warehouses belonging to H. W. Collins, Pendleton grainman, one of which was destroyed with the grain in it at a loss of $4000. The burned warehouse was located at Sparks station.

A financial report, submitted at a meeting of the general relief committee at Astoria showed that the total cash contributions to the relief fund amounted to $121,498.49, while receipts from the sale of supplies were $5305.16, making a grand total of $126,803.65 received by the committee. Expenditures have amounted to $42,014.29, leaving $84,789.36 still on hand.

The second annual experiment in cherry pollination has been completed in Wasco county by the Oregon Agricultural college. In all 72,000 blossoms were emasculated, artificially impregnated with pollen from practically every known fertile variety and covered with paper sacks until partly matured, by Professor C. E. Schuster, under whose direction the experiments were conducted.

There were four fatalities in Oregon due to industrial accidents during the week ending June 14, according to a report prepared by the state industrial accident commission. The victims included George C. Fowler, hook tender, Tillamook; Chris J. Lauth, drag Sawyer, Portland; Robert G. England, millwright, Cottage Grove; and Clyde Kelley, laborer, Turber. A total of 736 accidents were reported for the week.

MOUNT ETNA IS IN VIOLENT ERUPTION

Waves of Lava Lay Waste to Country and Engulf Towns; Inhabitants Flee.

Rome.—Mount Etna, in violent eruption, is laying waste the surrounding countryside, according to dispatches from Sicily.

Great rivers of molten rock, pouring down the steep sides of the mountain from numerous fissures have overwhelmed all before them and the inhabitants of the surrounding settlements fled in despair while crops and homes were disappearing under the blazing flood.

The wave of lava is advancing steadily on Linguaglossa and has reached a point only a few hundred yards from the town. Castiglione also is menaced. Three little towns—Pizzolo, Palfame-lata and Ferro—have been completely wiped out. No loss of life has been reported.

The main crater of Etna, after the fitful displays of the last week, suddenly opened up at midnight Sunday. There were subterranean rumblings, flames shot to the sky and the populations of the little towns about the base of the cone fled to the plains.

Five great cracks opened in the northeastern side of the mountain and from these mouths, several kilometers from the old crater, came streams of lava. Thousands of tons of rocks and ashes were hurled to a height of 30 to 60 feet from both the old and new craters and the lava streams, advancing on a frontage estimated at 500 yards, laid waste the vineyards and forests in their paths and progressed at a speed of a mile and a quarter an hour.

The appealed case of A. J. Weston, who is serving a life term in the state penitentiary for the murder of Robert Krug at Sisters, Deschutes county, a number of years ago, will be argued before the supreme court June 28.

A statement of the arrests and convictions for game violations issued by the state game commission shows a total of 351 arrests and convictions since December 1, which exceeds last year's number by 44 for the same period.

Deschutes county's road budget, unofficially determined by the Road and Redmond commercial club roads committees, will be boosted $15,000 to allow for grading the central Oregon highway to its junction with the Bend-Burns road.

Notice of Application for Franchise

Before the Public Service Commission of Oregon

In the matter of the application of The Chee Lumber Company, an Oregon corporation, for a franchise on the John Day river and its tributaries, for the purpose of driving, catching, booming, sorting, rafting and holding logs, lumber and other timber products.

Notice is hereby given that The Chee Lumber Company, an Oregon corporation, has applied to the Public Service Commission of Oregon, for a franchise, for the purpose of driving, catching, booming, sorting, rafting and holding logs, lumber and other timber products, on that part of the John Day river extending from the junction of the north and south forks thereof, in township 9 South, range 26 East, Willamette Meridian, to the mouth of that river, and also on the north and middle forks of that river, from the source thereof to the above mentioned point of junction, and that a hearing will be held upon such application before the Public Service Commission, at its office in the court house in the city of Portland, and state of Oregon, on Friday, the 20th day of July, 1923, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, at which hearing all persons interested may be heard either in person or by attorney.

MAN MYSTERIOUSLY SHOT

The Dalles Authorities Suspect Murder of Oriley Resident.

The Dalles, Or.—That Peter J. Agidius, 53, a wealthy farmer of Oriley, who was shot and killed late Saturday afternoon, was murdered at his home by an unidentified assassin after a running gun fight in the road half a mile from his ranch home, seven miles west of The Dalles, is the theory upon which District Attorney F. Gallo-way and Coroner C. N. Burget are conducting an investigation.

His son, Adolph, and E. L. Rutt, a hired farm hand, saw him fall near the house. They thought he had committed suicide, but the nature of the wounds led officers to believe this impossible.

One bullet penetrated the muscles between his neck and shoulder and the other entered just above his heart, leaving a gaping wound in the back where it left the body.

Caterpillars by the millions, the same variety that gressed the rails of the Yakima branch of the Southern Pacific railway and caused delay in train service, have appeared in the northern part of Lane county, north-east of Coburg, according to farmers of that section.

A friendly suit will be brought to test the validity of the act passed by the state legislature to remit Astoria's portion of the state tax, the money to be used in the reconstruction of public utilities in the burned area. The suit will be taken to the supreme court at the earliest possible date.
