county school superintendent, was seen on our streets last Saturday.

Mrs. C. E. Wilson, who was taken to a Portland hospital last week, is reported to be doing fine since her operation.

We have been having cold weather again, sufficient to freeze ice at night, but so far doing no harm to the grain.

The ladies aid of this city held a very successful bazaar in the lobby of the telephone office last Saturday.
It was a busy, happy crowd from 10 a. m. until 8 p. m., serving lunch and selling the many useful articles and fancy work. The total realized from the bazaar was $94.60. The ladies aid was organized November 20th, 1923, by Mrs. Lemon and has now more than two hundred dollars in the treasury.

The program was in charge of Miss McCarthy and Mrs. Lee. The food sale was conducted by Mrs. Shepard and Mrs. Fortner, assisted by the domestic science girls.

CHURCH NEWS

Notes of Interest to All Local Denominations

An Easter musical cantata of high class that promises to be more than ordinary will be rendered at the Methodist church next Sunday evening at eight o'clock. Prof. L. E. Webb is directing a chorus of twenty-three voices for the occasion. The following is the line up:

Sopranoes:—Mesdames Armstrong, Conlee, Ramsey, Belabe, Hickson, Hutchcroft and Walker.
Altoes:—Burnett, Searcy, Bourhill, Belabe, Pinkerton and Barzee.
Tenor:—Messrs Barzee, Richmond, Powell, Hanson and Zevely.
Bass:—Fraser, Byers, Webb, and Hutchcroft.

This Easter cantata is entitled "The Resurrection Hope" and consists of the following musical numbers:

1. Prelude for piano.
2. "Sing with All the Songs of Glory," choir.
3. "All Around the Clouds are Breaking," baritone solo and chorus.
4. "A Vision of Angels," soprano and tenor duet.
5. "Angels, Roll the Rock Away," women's chorus, choir, baritone, and mezzo soprano solo.
6. "The Day of Resurrection," quartet.
7. "Awake, Glad Soul, Awake!" baritone solo.
8. "But I Know," soprano solo, tenor solo and chorus.
9. "Christ the Lord is Risen," choir and quartet.
10. "The Shade and Gloom of Life are Fled," tenor solo.
11. "My Flesh shall Rest in Hope," chorus.
12. "The Name of Jesus," contralto solo.
13. "I am the Resurrection and the Life," Final chorus.

Preceding the Easter program an opportunity will be given for membership and the baptism of infants.

The Endeavor society is planning an Easter breakfast to be given in the Presbyterian church at 7:30 Easter morning. The breakfast is in charge of the social committee of which Miss Zella Burnett is chairman. The devotional part will be in charge of Mrs. W. C. Bryant.

At 11:00 at the Presbyterian church two choirs will render special music.
The adult choir will sing an anthem,
"O Be Joyful." The junior choir will appear for the first time at the morning service in vestment. About eighteen voices will sing a special entitled "Hosanna." The pastor will preach on the theme: "The Morning of the Resurrection."

The subject of the lesson-sermon at the Christian Science church next Sunday morning at eleven o'clock will be "Doctrine of Atonement." The Wednesday evening meeting at eight o'clock. Sunday school at 10:15.
Pupils up to the age of twenty years are admitted into these classes.
Reading room open daily. All are welcome to these services.

The Easter Spirit will be the center of all activities at the Presbyterian church next Sunday, April 20th.
A special program will be given in the Sunday school at 10:00. "The Risen Christ in Mexico" is a playlet which will be rendered by a number of children. Recitations, songs, etc., will give variety to the hour. A special offering for missionary work among the Mexicans will be taken up.

Sunday school at the Methodist church next Sunday will convene at the usual hour 10 a. m. followed by the Easter program by the Sunday school. A very interesting program is being prepared. Those who know the reputation of Mrs. Ramsey and her department, as well as other members of the committee, will not fail to be present. In addition there will be a two-part chorus by the G. A. N. class, also a very interesting pantomime is being prepared to be given by a group of boys, as well as other very interesting exercises and music by departments of the Sunday school.

repairs had been completed, because of office work that had to be taken care of on Thursday.

M. R. Schadewitz has bought the Hulery Bros. interests in the Moro Garage, opening the garage under his management on Wednesday of this week. One item of news in connection with his ownership is that he has filled his tanks with Union gasoline, claimed by many to be much more satisfactory for power and speed than other brands of gasoline.
