SHERMAN COUNTY OBSERVER

Moro, Oregon

Entered as second class matter at the post office at Moro, Oregon, July 25, 1891

Official Newspaper for Sherman County

FRIDAY.....September 5, 1924

An airplane passenger carrier will be at the county fair to take any one from off the earth who desires the sensation. Jenkins brothers from Walla Walla, now at Seaside, are the owners. The plane is equipped with a new motor, recently installed.

Free band concerts daily each morning, afternoon and evening during the county fair by the Sherman County Band, composed of players from Wasco, Grass Valley and Moro.
The band uses twenty instruments.

Exhibits at Annual County Fair

Next Week Covers Large Field

It is planned by the County Fair Board that all who are planning to make an exhibit at the Annual County Fair, to be held at Moro September 11, 12 and 13—next week—bring their exhibits to the fair grounds early on Wednesday and take plenty of time to arrange them in place. All exhibits must be entered and placed on Wednesday, September 10th. Judging will begin early on the morning of September 11th. Any entry not in place Wednesday cannot be considered for that reason.

A fine lot of grain samples has been promised to be placed on exhibit, says Secretary C. C. Richmond, but many more are wanted. If at all possible bring sheafs of grain, but if not able to do this, bring an exhibit of threshed grain of any kind and of any variety.

A comprehensive exhibit of cattle from the herds owned by Jack Morrison, G. G. Thorp, C. M. Cunningham and several others have been secured. These include both dairy and beef grades. Included will be a surprising number of Holsteins, and Jerseys, as well as a fine exhibit of Herefords.

The exhibits of pure bred hogs will range from all over the county, including Berkshires from north of Wasco to Polan-China stock from south of Grass Valley. From between these two distant points will come a surprising number of entries, much more than is thought to be owned in the county. It will pay the owners of good stock to show their animals, thus realizing better sales later on.

The entries in the horse division will include entries of Shire horses from the Thompson farm, a group of Belgian horses from the Landry farm, an exhibit of Belgian horses from the Wm. Roos farm, and many others.

It may as well be said, in referring to the exhibits promised to date, that the poultry, sheep and goats will form a large and interesting part of the live stock exhibit. In past years many owners of pure bred poultry and sheep made many future sales at the county fair and it will be done again this year. Both those who want to buy and improve their stock and those who want to sell good stock profit because of the interest taken in these exhibits.

An exhibit out of the ordinary, for Sherman county, will be the agricultural exhibit to be made by Clyde Crites. He has promised a sample of red Mexican beans from off his eight acre field. The vines of these beans have an average of 30 to 32 pods each, and each pod six to eight beans. He grows the beans on summer fallow land which he seeds in the fall to wheat.

Another exhibit to be placed by Mr. Crites will be from his sunflower field. He has sun flower stalks nipe feet tall with heads of unusual size. The seeds he feeds his poultry and the stalks and roots is burned in the heater in the winter time. It is surprising what a hot and steady fire sun flower stalks and roots make on a cold day.

The school educational features of the county fair is in charge of A. M.
Zevly. The exhibits will occupy the west side of the pavillion. Educational exhibits from the schools, community exhibits by both rural and town schools, and cooking demonstrations by pupils will be featured.
Members of the county school club projects will also have exhibits. This year the educational exhibits will be a big feature of the fair.
