Paragraphs of State News

Dr. R. E. Lee Steiner, superintendent of the Oregon state hospital, has left for Manila, P. I., accompanied by three Filipino patients who had been ordered deported to their former homes. Mrs. Steiner accompanied her husband to the Philippine islands, where she will visit her daughter Dr. and Mrs. Steiner will return to Salem shortly after the first of the year.

Portland will figure in the trial of Charles R. Forbes, former director of the national veterans' bureau, in the federal court in Chicago. United States Marshal Clarence R. Hotchkiss received an order from Federal Judge George A. Carpenter of the northern Illinois district court to have P. J. Dwyer, auditor of the Hotel Portland, produce all day books, cash books, journals and like papers showing sums paid by Forbes and members of his party when they stayed there from July 1 to July 31, 1922.

The proposed mass meeting of the Harding Memorial association which when formed will be a non-profitable body, functioning to build and maintain a Harding memorial park at the top of Blue mountains near Meacham, to have been held at Milton, December 20, has been indefinitely postponed, according to Bruce Dennis, temporary secretary. The meeting, which would have resulted in permanent organization of the association, was postponed because it was discovered that special state and federal legislation were necessary first.

The bridge between Hood River and White Salmon will be completed and opened to travel December 15th. The approach on the Washington side is almost completed and the grades on both ends of the bridge are now being graded. The toll will be 70 cents for an automobile and driver and 10 cents each for extra passengers. Ten cents will also be charged for pedestrians. Trucks will be charged from 75 cents to $5 each, according to capacity.

Mrs. Virginia Ramey, widow of William Ramey, died Wednesday, November 12th, at the family home at Rufus after an illness of six weeks. Mrs. Ramey was 87 years of age and was a pioneer of Sherman county. She came to Oregon more than 35 years ago from California and settled with her husband on a farm in Sherman county where she made her home until a few years ago. Mrs. Ramey is survived by two daughters, Mrs. W. F. Bartholomew of Rufus, and Mrs. Ben Andrews of Wasco; and one son, George Ramey of Rufus. Funeral services were held Friday morning at the grave in the Wasco cemetery, under the direction of the Crandall Undertaking company.

A. F. Bales, junior agronomist at the Sherman county experiment station, has completed the planting of the first wheat nursery in Gilliam county, at the farm of Perry Johnston, near Condon. Forty varieties of wheat in rod-rows were planted, the plots being planted in triplicate to secure a better check-up on the results. Bales also planted 75 pure line sections of fortyfold wheat to develop the best strain of that variety, fortyfold being a favorite variety in spite of efforts to introduce a heavier variety. More planting will be made next spring.

Nine ministers of the Methodist churches in Portland and three other persons have given blood transfusions during the past week in an effort to save the life of Rev. Alfred Bates, a fellow Methodist minister. One of the nine ministers was Rev. U. C. Smothers, formerly pastor of the Methodist church at Moro. About fifty persons offered to submit to transfusions, of this number only thirteen were found to have blood of the type corresponding to that of Rev. Bates. There are four distinct blood types in the human family which, doctors claim, would be injurious to a patient if intermixed.

CHURCH NEWS

Notes of Interest to All Local Denominations

Revival meetings are still in progress at the Methodist church in Grass Valley being conducted by Rev. and Mrs. Feenstra.

At the Methodist church next Sunday morning Mrs. R. A. Feenstra will give the fourth message of the series of the "Sermon on the Mount."

The union Thanksgiving service this year will be held at the Methodist church with the sermon preached by Rev. R. A. Feenstra. Everybody should keep this evening open and assemble for public thanksgiving at this time. This is in harmony with the proclamations of our president and our governor, and a custom since the early days of the settlement of the country, and also in harmony with our better selves, and well pleasing in the sight of God.

Christian Science Thanksgiving services will be held on Thursday, November 28th, at eleven o'clock a.m. Subject "Thanksgiving." At this service the proclamations of the President of the United States and the Governor of the State of Oregon will be read and following will be testimonials of thanksgiving by the members of the congregation. No offering is taken at this service.

Christian Science church services are held every Sunday morning at eleven o'clock and on Wednesday evening at eight o'clock. The subject of the lesson-sermon for Sunday morning is "Soul and Body" Sunday school convenes at 10:15 on Sunday morning. Pupils up to the age of twenty years are admitted to these classes. This church maintains a free circulating library which is open daily in the rear of the church building, where the Bible and all authorized Christian Science literature may be read, borrowed or purchased. The public is cordially invited to attend the church services and to make use of the reading room.

In the local Presbyterian church, next week will be observed as follows:

Sunday, November 23, and likewise November 30, appropriate sermons dealing with some of the phases of our national task.

Monday, November 24, young people's night; a social time and an instructive evening on the church's work; 8:00 o'clock in the church auditorium.

Wednesday, November 26th, 2:30 p.m., the women's missionary society will meet with Mrs. W. F. Jackson, where the special work of the women of the church will be noted. The subjects for this meeting will be "The Southern Highlanders" by Mrs. Robert Pinkerton, and "Siam" by Mrs. R. C. Byers. Mrs. J. C. McKean is the directress of the meeting.

Friday, November 28th, an indoor picnic and instructive exercises at the church for the boys and girls of the Sunday school.

"National missions week, November 23-30, 1924." This is the slogan and the talk and the interest of all loyal Presbyterians throughout the

NOTICE OF SHERIFF'S SALE OF REAL PROPERTY

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of an execution, decree and order of sale duly issued out of and under the seal of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Sherman County, to me directed and dated the 19th day of April, 1922, upon a decree of foreclosure of a certain mortgage rendered and entered in said Court on the 12th day of April, 1918, in a cause therein pending, wherein Ben W. Olcott, Governor, Sam A. Koser, Secretary of State and O. P. Hoff, State Treasurer, comprising the State Land Board of the State of Oregon, were plaintiffs and Maud E. Watson and J. F. Watson, wife and husband, and Bankers Mortgage Corporation, a corporation, were defendants, and wherein judgment was rendered in favor of the plaintiffs and against the defendants, for the sum of $4000.00 with interest thereon from the 18th day of October, 1920, at the rate of six per cent per annum until paid, for the further sum of $400.00 attorney's fees, and for plaintiffs costs and disbursements taxed in the sum of $15.00 and commanding me to make sale of the real property described in said decree of foreclosure;

I will on Saturday, the 20th day of December, 1924, at the hour of ten o'clock a. m., at the front door of the Courthouse in Moro, in Sherman County, Oregon, sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in hand, all the right, title and interest which the defendants or either or any of them had on the 12th day of April, 1918, or which any or either of them have acquired since said date or now have in and to the following described real property, to-wit:

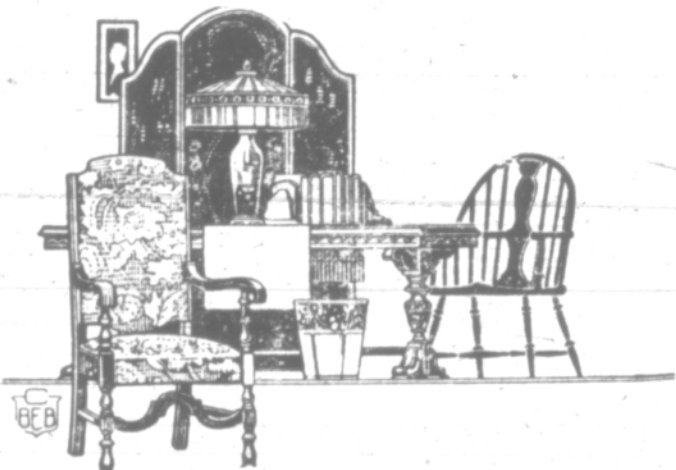

The south half (s/2) and the south half of the northwest quarter (s/4nw/4) section twenty (20) and the north half of the northwest quarter (n/4nw/4) section twenty-nine (29) all in township three (3) south of range fifteen (15) east of the Willamette meridian, containing 480 acres, in Sherman County, Oregon.

Or so much of said property as shall be sufficient to satisfy said judgment and decree with the costs and accruing costs. Said property will be sold subject to confirmation and redemption as by law provided.

Dated this 19th day of November, 1924.

HUGH CHRISMAN
Sheriff of Sherman County, Oregon.

United States at its present time. During this week the various interests, possibilities and needs of this board will be considered in the majority of the ten thousand churches of the denomination. This board is in reality the union of some seven boards and agencies under the new plan of consolidation. This does not mean less work but more work, not less money to be used, but more money, and this used more efficiently, not fewer men, but more men at work and these men doing a larger work. Some of the departments represented are:

(a) Aiding weak churches in the employment of pastors; (b) aiding financially in building churches and manse; (c) sending out some 140 Sunday school missionaries to do work in the unchurched regions of the country; (d) caring for the work among our immigrant peoples, such as the work among the Jews in the east, the Mexicans and Spaniards in the southwest, and the Chinese and Japanese on the coast; (e) work among the American Indians on a number of reservations throughout the land; (f) campaigns of evangelism in the various Presbyteries, and work among the colored people in the southern states.
