The total registration in the Portland public schools will reach the highest peak in the history of the system in this school year, in the opinion of C. A. Rice, acting city superintendent of schools. On the basis of present attendance records, Mr. Rice believes 48,000 students will be enrolled in the schools of the city as compared with 46,139 last year.

Timber sold on the national forests of Oregon and Washington for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1925, amounted to 704,386,000 board feet, valued at $1,449,898.48, according to the report of the forest service relating to the national forests of Oregon and Washington. The national forests of the two states contain 217,745,196,000 board feet of standing timber, according to service estimates.

Edward Stack, secretary of the Oregon State Federation of Labor, and other officials of the organization appeared before the state board of control and requested an adjustment of salaries affecting firemen and assistant engineers, employed at the state institutions. It was requested the salaries of firemen be increased from $67 to $130 a month and that the wages of the assistant engineers be advanced from approximately $100 to $160 a month.

All options on the proposed site of the Southern Pacific terminal and car shops west of Eugene were taken up when cash for the Eugene terminal bond issue was received from Portland and deeds to the property were immediately turned over to the Southern Pacific company. The Southern Pacific company, in return, transferred deeds for approximately 250 acres of its Springfield property to the city of Eugene. The terminal site west of Eugene comprises about 209 acres.

Judge Percy Kelley of the Marion county circuit court has been assigned by Chief Justice McBride of the state supreme court to go to Klamath county and preside at the trials of E. L. Elliott, district attorney and William Levens, state prohibition commissioner. Mr. Elliott is accused by an indictment returned against him in Klamath county of malfeasance in office in connection with the disposal of some sugar confiscated in a liquor raid. Mr. Levens is charged with the theft of a revolver from a Mexican resident of Klamath Falls.

SUMMONS: In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Sherman County. Theodore H. Williams, Plaintiff, vs. Gertrude L. Williams, Defendant, To Gertrude L. Williams, the above named defendant:

In the name of the State of Oregon; You are hereby required and summoned to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit and court within six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, to-wit: on or before the 18th day of September, 1925; and you will take notice that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint or otherwise lead thereto within said time, the court, for want thereof, will apply to the above entitled court for the relief prayed for in his said complaint, to-wit: For a decree of said court forever dissolving the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between the plaintiff and defendant, and absolutely divorcing the plaintiff from the defendant; for such decree disposing of the custody and care of the minor children of the plaintiff and defendant as to the court may seem proper and for such other relief as to the court may seem equitable.

This summons is published pursuant to an order of Honorable D. R. Parker, Circuit Judge of the Eleventh Judicial District of the State of Oregon, duly made and entered on the 14th day of August, 1925. The first publication of this summons will be made on Friday, the 7th day of August, 1925, and the last publication thereof will be made on Friday, the 18th day of September, 1925, and it will be published six consecutive weeks in the Sherman County Observer.

Frank Way, wealthy central Oregon sheep owner, was found guilty of manslaughter by a jury at Klamath Falls following his trial on an indictment charging him with the murder of Timothy Murphy, Klamath sheepman.

Whether the so-called loopvent plumbing system permitted by the Portland plumbing code is of sufficiently high standard to comply with the state plumbing code is to be determined by a committee of three competent plumbers.

Evidence of what is thought to have been a murder, perhaps committed within the past year, was unearthed by road laborers on the McKenzie pass highway near Lost lake, when the skull of a man and a pair of overalls were dug up by the workers.

Business of mills of the West Coast Lumbermen's association was not so active in the week ending September 5 as for the preceding week, 107 mills reporting sales amounting to 100,491,914 feet, manufacture of 103,134,746 feet and shipment of 97,659,036 feet.

A total of 3605 persons visited the battleship Oregon in Portland harbor in July, according to a report filed with the state treasurer. Accompanying the report was a remittance of $901.25, which has been credited to the battleship Oregon commission. Under the law money received from persons who visit the battleship is applied toward maintenance of the craft.

SUMMONS: In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Sherman County. William M. Huck and Bessie E. Huck, his wife, and Louisa M. Huck, a single woman, Plaintiffs, vs. Herman H. Huck and Nancy Huck, his wife; Mary Alvin Warren and Charles Warren, her husband; Anna Christina Calbreath and Ira D. Calbreath, her husband; Bertha Matilda Sparling and Charles Sparling, her husband; Hazel Cora Terry and L. G. Terry, her husband; Charles W. Huck and Helen Huck, his wife; Devereaux Mortgage Company, a corporation, and Bank of Wasco, a Corporation, Defendants.

To Mary Alvin Warren, Charles Warren, Anna Christina Calbreath, Ira D. Calbreath, Bertha Matilda Sparling, Charles Sparling, Hazel Cora Terry, L. G. Terry, Charles W. Huck, and Helen Huck.

In the Name of the State of Oregon: You, and each of you, are hereby required and commanded to appear and answer the complaint of the plaintiffs in the above entitled suit on or before the 18th day of September, 1925, or for want thereof, the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief prayed for in the complaint, which is for Decree and Judgment for a division and partition of the following described premises, situate in Sherman County, Oregon, to-wit:

The southwest quarter of section twenty-seven (27); the west half of the west half of the east half of section thirty-four (34), and the northeast quarter of section thirty-three (33), all in township two (2) north, range seventeen (17), east of the Willamette meridian, containing 800 acres, more or less, according to the Government survey thereof.

According to the respective rights of the parties hereto, or, if a partition can not be had without material injury to these rights, then for a sale of said premises and a division of the proceeds thereof between the parties according to their rights, after the payment of the costs of this proceeding, including a reasonable sum for attorneys fees, and such other further and general relief as to the Court may seem meet and equitable in the premises.

This summons is served upon you by publication thereof by order of the Honorable D. R. Parker, Judge of the above entitled Court, in the Sherman County Observer, a newspaper of general circulation published and issued weekly in the town of Moro, Sherman County, Oregon, for a period of six consecutive weeks, seven issues, commencing with the issue of August 7th, 1925, the date of the first publication hereof, and ending on the 18th day of September, 1925, the date of the last publication hereof, which said Order was made, rendered and entered on the 31st day of July, 1925.
