Picture Show News For The Current Week

"Head Winds," the Universal feature co-starring House Peters with Patsy Ruth Miller, is a thrilling story of the sea, its people and its romance.

The keynote of "Head Winds" is novelty, for it deals with an unusual situation in an unusual way. In the story House Peters is cast in the role of a millionaire sportsman who in order to win the love and respect of the girl he loves finds it necessary to kidnap her and spirit her away to sea.

Patsy Ruth Miller, who plays the leading feminine role opposite Peters, plays the part of Patricia Van Pelt, the headstrong, impetuous shrew, with whom Peters is in love. Miss Miller, who will be remembered for her work in "The Hunchback of Notre Dame," where she played Esmeralda opposite Lon Chaney, does some of the best work in her career in "Head Winds."

"As Man Desires," First National's stirring romance of the South Sea Islands was adapted from Gene Wright's novel, "Pandora La Croix." Milton Sills, of "Sea Hawk" fame, appears in the role of a woman-hating captain of a pearl fishing schooner, with Viola Dana acting the part of a dusky dancing maiden of Tahiti. Irving Cummings directed the picture under the supervision of Earl Hudson, First National's supervisor of productions. Ruth Clifford, Rosemary Theby, Tom Kennedy, Anna May Walthall, Hector Sarno and others are in the cast.

Motion pictures for the most part are made for entertainment purposes. Once in a while a picture is made for scientific reasons but rarely is a feature made which combines both entertainment and scientific education.

An exception to the rule is "The Lost World," First National production in which love, romance, adventure as well as education are embodied in the amazing film. Professors of Columbia and the University of California who saw the picture in the making declare that the greatest thing that has ever occurred to bring about a popular interest in archaeology was the production of this remarkable film.

The cast of "The Lost World" is in keeping with the magnitude of the production, including such film luminaries as Beanie Love, Lloyd Hughes, Lewis Stone, Wallace Beery, Alma Bennett, Virginia Brown Faire, Arthur Hoyt, Bull Montana, Margaret McWade, Finch Smiles and Jules Cowles.

The parade of uniformed Klansmen held at The Dalles Tuesday evening was more than six blocks long and brought a large crowd upon the streets to witness the spectacle. The line of paraders was headed by The Dalles high school boy band and included two floats. Following the parade a large class was reported to have been initiated into the clan at a meeting held at a park west of the auto camp grounds and joining the Columbia highway.

George Ellsworth and wife left last week for the Willamette valley where they expect to make their future home. Mr. Ellsworth has a position with a large lumber mill at Columbia City, near St. Helens, and Mrs. Ellsworth has a position with a film picture exchange in Portland.
