MORO CHURCH NEWS

Notes of Interest to All Denominations

The Presbyterian church will hold its various Christmas programs for adults and children next Sunday, December 20th. The Sunday school program will take place at 10:00 sharp, with the various departments of the Sunday school contributing to make this interesting. Competent committees have been appointed to look after the various phases of the Christmas tree program. M. G. Melzer, superintendent, will be in charge. The title of the program is given as "Gifts for the Christ." The customary Christmas offering for foreign missions will be taken.

The morning worship at 11:00 o'clock at the Presbyterian church will be largely in the hands of the choir which has been at work for weeks to present an adequate Christmas program. An appropriate message by the pastor will conclude the program. The tentative musical program preceding the sermon is as follows:

"The Song the Angels sang," mixed quartet with violin obligato.

"Christmas Morn," mixed quartet with bass obligato.

"Oh Holy Night," duet by Misses Lillemann and Perkins.

"Calm on the Listening Ears of Night," chorus and male quartet.

Vocal solo by Tom Fraser, selected.

"Behold I Bring you Good Tidings," chorus.

Mrs. Roy Kunsman will preside at the organ during the program.

The possibility of a watchnight service on Thursday evening, December 31st, at the Presbyterian church is under consideration. Announcements will be made next Sunday in connection with the Christmas exercises.

Revival meetings of the Methodist church under leadership of Rev. W. E. Cox will come to a close next Sunday. There will be services both morning and evening, Rev. Cox preaching. The meetings have been well attended and a big day is expected on Sunday. Make sure and be there. There is special music at every service and Sunday night both Tom Fraser and I. M. Woods will sing a special selection. The Christmas program of the Methodist Sunday school will be given at the church next Wednesday evening. A splendid program is being prepared and the public is invited to attend.

The evangelist Rev. W. E. Cox, will preach a Christmas sermon Sunday morning his theme being "Two Great Gifts."
