FINNEY OF THE FORCE

Truck Sales Increased

That's the Woman of It

That's the Woman of It

The one-ton truck with panel body manufactured by the Chevrolet Motor company has attained a production of between 600 and 700 monthly. This output has been established as an average and will be stepped up as demand requires. The chassis is the one announced by the factory last fall.

Of particular significance is the information that proportionately sales of these trucks are increasing faster in the smaller cities and towns and in rural communities than in the larger centers of population. Farmers, orchardists, stock breeders and poultrymen are reported to have awakened in every quarter to the advantages offered by this type of light truck in the conduct of their several businesses because of the dependability and economy of operation.

Throughout the entire Pacific coast, sales of the 1 1/2-ton trucks have increased so largely in recent months that an assembly line solely for trucks has been installed at the Chevrolet factory in Oakland, California.
