with a ball and socket joint to prevent "buckling" when turning corners. He has also recently purchased a 36-foot Cheney Rod weeder from the Moro Implement Co., to use with his tractor outfit.

Joel Stoddard and wife of Baker visited here last week on their way by auto to Portland, where they met their daughter who has been attending college. They were accompanied on the trip to and from Portland by Mrs. D. E. Stephens, sister of Mrs.
Stoddard. The party arrived here last Saturday night on their way home and left the next day for Baker.

Roy Powell and family left here early Wednesday morning for Lebanon, where they will attend the annual Powell family reunion held annually at Providence church near Lebanon. The reunion is held in honor of Jacob Powell, great-grandfather of Roy Powell, an early pioneer and missionary of the Oregon country. Last year more than 2000 members of the family attended the reunion.

The four grange organizations of the county will sponsor four Harvest Balls this year, one each to be held at Wasco, Moro, Grass Valley and Kent. A committee representative of the four granges will handle all four affairs and each grange will share equally in the total finances.
Heads of committees of the four granges were announced as follows: Wolford Belshe, Harland View grange, Moro; George Wilcox, Shearer grange for Grass Valley; Grover Young, Kent grange for Kent; C. C.
Medler, Klondike grange for Wasco.
Funeral services for Elmer Gosson who died at the family home at Wasco June 9, were held last Saturday under direction of Grandall of The Dalles. Following the church services, interment was at the Odd Fellows' cemetery at The Dalles, where the mother of the deceased is buried.

MORO CHURCH NEWS

Notes of Interest to All Denominations

Moro Methodist Church
The Sunday school will meet at the usual 10 o'clock hour. Let us rally for a fine attendance and thus cheer our beloved superintendent, as she will be with us again Sunday morning. We have a thoroughly graded school and invite everybody to share in the profitable hour of Bible study under competent teachers.

There will be no preaching services at the Methodist church as we will unite in worship with the Presbyterians for both the morning and evening services.

Presbyterian Church Notices.
At the morning service on Sunday, June 19, the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered.
In the Presbyterian church we are "no respecters of persons," but all who bear the name of Christ are welcomed to His table, it matters not to what church they may belong.
So this will be in a sense a community Communion Service. A brief sermon will be preached, the choir will render special music and the Sacrament will be administered.

At the popular union gospel service in the evening the male choir will sing. This is a taking feature of the evening service's musical program. The theme of the short gospel sermon will be "Others". The evening congregations have kept up well during this month and a hearty invitation is given to this community preaching service to everybody.

At the close of the morning service a congregational meeting will be held to consider the question of calling a permanent minister to fill the pulpit. To this meeting are invited all those who are in any way interested in the church, whether members of it or not.

R. E. Clark, Pastor Pro-tem.

Grass Valley Methodist Church The usual order of services will be held. R. A. Feenstra, pastor.

Christian Science Announcements Christian Science services are held every Sunday morning at 11:00 o'- clock, and on Wednesday evening at 8:00 o'clock. The Wednesday evening services include testimonials of healing.
Sunday school is held in the Sunday school room every Sunday morning at 10:00 o'clock. Pupils up to the age of twenty years are received into these classes.
This society maintains, at the rear entrance to the church building, a free Christian Science reading room, which is open daily, where the Bible and the Christian Science text book Science and Health, with key to the scriptures, by Mary Baker Eddy, together with all other authorized Christian Science literature may be read, borrowed, or purchased.

Francis M. VanMetre and Miss Gertrude Eakin, both of Grass Valley, were married at the Moro Methodist parsonage Thursday evening, June 16; Rev. R. A. Feenstra reading the ceremony. Mrs. VanMetre is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Del Eakin, living east of Grass Valley.

Sunday at Hotel Moro

Manager Larimore of Hotel Moro expressed himself as mightily pleased with the response to the little article in last week's issue of "The Observer" as manifested in the number of parties who partook of the special inner last Sunday. Such a hearty response is certainly encouraging, and," he states, "will spur us on to greater effort to please any and all in every respect."

The following menu was served and greatly enjoyed by every one:

Vegetable soup
Roast chicken with dressing cream asparagus mashed potatoes apple, gooseberry, coconut cream pie old fashioned strawberry shortcake coffee tea milk

The following parties were there: Mr. and Mrs. Truman Strong, and daughter Helen; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Dean; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fortner, their daughter Eleanor Ann, and son Scott; Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Barnum, and son Ted; Mr. and Mrs.
