Statement of the Ownership, Management, Etc., required by the Act of Congress of August 24, 1912, of The Sherman County Observer, published weekly at Moro, Oregon, for October 1928.

State of Oregon
County of Sherman Before me, a notary public in and for the state and county aforesaid, personally appeared C. L. Ireland, who, having been duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that he is the Publisher and Editor Owner of the Sherman County Observer and that the following is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, a true statement of the ownership, management, etc., of the aforesaid publication for the date shown in the above caption, required by the Act of August 24, 1912, embodied in section 448, Postal Laws and Regulations, printed on the reverse of this form, to-wit:

That the names and addresses of the publisher, editor, managing editor, and business manager are: C. L.
Ireland, Moro, Oregon.
That the owners are: (Give names and addresses of individual owners, or, if a corporation, give its name and the names and ad-resses of stockholders owning or holding 1 per cent or more of the total amount of stock.) C. L. Ireland, only.

That the known bondholders, morgagees, and other security holders owning or holding 1 per cent or more of total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities are: Mergenthaler Linotype Co., balance due on linotype machine.

That the two paragraphs next above, giving the names of owners, stockholders, and security holders, if any, contain not only the list of stockholders and security holders as they appear, but also, in cases where the stockholder or security holder appear in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing affiant's full knowledge and belief that no other person, association, or corporation has any interest direct or indirect in the said stock, bonds, or other securities than as stated by him.

(Signed) C. L. Ireland
Publisher and Owner Sworn to and subscribed before me this 18th day of October 1928.

W. C. Bryant, Notary Public

Makes Official Visit

Fred J. Meindl of Salem, state grand master of the I. O. O. F. lodge of Oregon visited all the lodges of the order in Sherman county on Monday evening in a joint open meeting held in the Odd Fellow lodge hall at Moro. More than 100 members attended the meeting, including several from Goldendale.

Preceding the open meeting scheduled for 8:30 was a short business session. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by the Rebekah members.

Mr. Meindl was accompanied to Moro by Mrs. Meindl and their daughter. It was also a home coming event for the visitors, they having resided here several years ago at which time Mr. Meindl was promoted to past noble grand by Moro lodge. When a resident here and for a number of years after his removal to Portland, Mr. Meindl was engaged in the practice of law. He is now connected with the state corporation department of Oregon at Salem.

The party had a narrow escape from serious injury on their drive up the highway on Monday when their car was forced off the pavement by a passing truck, with no injury to the occupants but a dent in the top of the Meindl sedan, hit by a rock when it went over onto its side at the edge of the highway.

If you want farms for rent or lease see J. J. Wiley at Moro. Also city property for sale.

Man familiar with farm work wants a steady job at fair wages. Phone or write the Sherman County Observer,

A chapter of the Order of De Molay with 25 charter members was instituted in St. Helens recently by Friendship chapter of Portland.

The Larson-Kennedy company is at work excavating a boom for the Coos Bay Lumber company near Coquille, calculated to hold 5,000,000 feet of logs.

September, with 255 deaths, was the healthiest month that Portland has had this year, breaking the record set by August when there were 250 deaths.

Fire, which started from the exhaust of a gasoline engine, completely destroyed the La Pine hotel and two adjoining houses with an estimated loss of $12,500.

Ruby Wilson, 6, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson of Boardman, died in the hospital at Heppner from cholera morbus, the result of eating over-ripe melons.

A valuable brood sow belonging to Pere Peterson and 10 tame geese owned by S. Anderson were shot Friday by careless hunters near Rocky Point in Coos county.

Commemorating the 75th anniversary of the founding of the United Presbyterian church at Albany, 250 persons gathered at a banquet served at the church recently.

Salmon fishing on the lower Coquille river is at present employing about 125 men who are catching from three to 10 tons per night, for which they are paid 8 cents a pound.

The Western Oregon Packing corporation has finished the run of Bartlett pears, 14,000 cans being packed, and has now started work on 700 tons of carrots and 60 tons of beets.

For the first time in 50 years a waterspout was sighted Friday on the Oregon coast a short distance off As-toria by Captain Charles Alberts of the steamer Florence Luckenbach.

Linn county electors will vote on a 2-mill levy to raise $60,000 with which to match state and federal funds for the construction of the Santiam highway to the summit of the Cascades.

Construction has begun on an $85-000 new grade school building in Klamath Falls. It will be the third major school plant constructed in Klamath Falls in the last three years.

A $30,000 building permit has been issued at Corvallis for the erection of a new Alpha Gamma Delta chapter home. The structure will be of English architecture and will house 30 girls.

The entertainment provided by Moro Woman's Club at Legion Hall on Wednesday evening was a movie picture descriptive travelogue of New Zealand; its lakes, rivers, and mountains; its geysers, waterfalls, volcanoes; hot mud geysers, and many other interesting features including native dances and customs. The entertainment was instructive, highly educational, and well presented by those in charge.

Town Talk

F. R. Fortner was a business visitor in The Dalles on Wednesday.

W. H. Ragsdale was a business visitor in Portland on Tuesday.

Leonard Marty was a visitor in Moro on Sunday last from Pendleton.

Mrs. W. C. Bryant returned Tuesday from a brief visit to Portland.

Mrs. Frances Anderson is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs.
George Hennagin.

Wilber Woods spent the last weekend as a visitor from Lewiston, Idaho, with his parents at Moro.

Mrs. C. H. Cochran is a visitor this week from Portland at the home of her mother, Mrs. E. J. Powell.

Mrs. O. L. Belsh entertained the members of Moro Bridge Club at her farm home on Tuesday afternoon.

Fred Pickett left Moro early Wednesday morning, expecting to return the next day from a hurried business trip to Portland.

Iver Hansen is in Moro this week from Goldendale, engaged in beautifying and improving the family plot in the Odd Fellows cemetery at Moro.

Mrs. J. C. Freeman entertained Wednesday afternoon, about 35 attending. The motif was a baby shower honoring Mrs. J. C. McKean.

Many people learned to buy on price from the man who sold quality and over-charged them. There is a difference between appreciating good stuff and being a dupe.

L. L. Peetz drove into The Dalles on Wednesday with his v-type 8-cylinder Cadillac and returned later the same day driving a new straight 8-in-line cylinder Studebaker.

Mr. and Mrs. B. V. Anderson and daughters Helen and Grace were visitors from Bend last weekend at the C. H. Larson home. Mr. Anderson is a machinist in the Brooks-Scanlon mill.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church will meet Wednesday afternoon, October 24th, at the home of Mrs. James Woods.
All ladies of the church are cordially invited.

Word received by friends in Moro from Rev. and Mrs. Arthur Hicks stated that they had made the auto trip south to Fresno, California, in easy driving time and without car or tire trouble to mar the trip.

J. Edw. Larson, brother of C. H.
Larson of this city, visited here last Friday when en route from his home at Bend to Goldendale with an auto party of football players eager to tackle the Goldendale team.

The annual Dorcas Society bazaar will be held this year on Saturday, November 10th. The bazaar feature will begin at 3 p. m. followed by a chicken dinner to be served at 5:30.
Home made candy will be sold afternoon and evening.

The Fred Pickett Motor Co. this month has made delivery of new Ford products to five customers, and the month not half gone. Numbered among the new Ford owners are A. E.
Salinger, Moro; Frank Haynes, Kent; Joe Peters, Moro; Chas. Forrester, Grass Valley, and the Experiment Station at Moro.

O. C. Luttrell and A. Rose left Moro late last Saturday afternoon in Dr. Rose's auto headed for Heppner and a chance at China pheasant shooting. They made the trip in ample time for dinner, visited with friends last evening, made a sortie into the unting fields the next morning, secured their limit early, and were in Moro again less than 24 hours from me of leaving.

City Marshal G. A. Williams has done a worth-while improvement in a work of cleaning up and burning s weeds on Scott street from near E. H. Moore home to the school house. It was done with an idea of sanitizing the main part of the city before fall rains and winter weather set in and is the more praiseworthy because it was all done by the city marshal in what may be better termed "the day's work" with no other financial return than his regular monthly salary.

Mrs. E. J. Powell's daughters are keeping open house in honor of their mother at the home of Mrs.
Powell in Moro from 2 to 4 p. m. on Thursday, October 25th. All friends are invited.

Barges On River Favored

Comprehensive plans for restoration and development of water-borne commerce on the Columbia and Snake rivers are contained in a report compiled by a special committee of the Portland Chamber of Commerce and adopted by the maritime commerce committee on October 5th.

Conditions which checked previous attempts to develop river navigation either no longer exist or have been greatly modified, the report points out. Government improvement of the two rivers would logically follow establishment of steamship and barge lines, the committee concludes.

Will Build New Theater

Plans for a $125,000 theater building for The Dalles were announced this week by G. E. Mathews, owner of the Empress Theater. The new show house will be of Moorish type in architectural treatment, and two stories high, according to announcement.

Work of razing existing buildings at the northeast corner of Second and Washington streets, to make room for the new show house, will start about November 1, it is said.

Seating capacity of the house will be 800 persons, according to present plans. It is hoped to complete the structure in the late spring. The building will contain three store rooms. Construction will be of reinforced concrete, with brick, stucco and tile for trim.

G. E. Mathews, manager of the Empress theater, The Dalles, and J. T. Moran, for 14 years engaged in the film distributing business, are to be the lessors and will operate the amusement place in partnership, presented high class pictures with latest movietone and vitaphone embellishment.

We can fit all kinds of people. Any size or weight. Crippled or deformed feet. Wernmark's Shoe Store, The Dalles.

Boyd Summers, postmaster at Swin, has received orders from Washington, D. C., that Swin postoffice will hereafter function the entire year, instead of only through the summer season, as formerly.

The newly completed school house at Camas Valley, near Roseburg, was dedicated recently with a program sponsored by Umpqua post of the American Legion. The concrete building was erected at a cost of $50,000 to meet the needs of a large farming community.

The port commission of Port Orford has set probable expenses for the port at $9811, and will ask for that amount through the Curry county tax assessment. The annual report shows the port in 1928 has done more business than in any past year.

James Lear, 102 years old, of Klamath Falls died as he slept quietly at the home of his son, Ben Lear. Mr.
Lear was a second cousin of John Quincy Adams, sixth president of the United States, and fought throughout the war under General Lee.

The record for nailing apple boxes was set recently by Robert Beal, upper Hood River valley boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Beal. The youth lidded 2029 boxes in ten hours. He received 60 cents a 100 boxes.

The 1929 Oregon grand lodge conventions of the Knights of Pythias and Pythian Sisters will be held in Portland, according to announcement made at the closing session of the 1928 meetings held in Salem.

The co-operative berry growers of the Gresham section handled 3073 tons of berries and cherries this year, against 2059 tons in 1927, an increase of 50 per cent and they paid for harvesting the crop $137,515.

One hundred years old, George Washington Wendover, Civil war veteran, celebrated his birthday at his home in Oregon City recently. Wendover is able to read the daily papers without the aid of glasses.

The Wapinitia Cattleman's association started its annual fall ride for upper range stock pastured in the Mount Hood national forest recently.
The fall drive takes on the nature of a rodeo, with social campfire circles at night.

Because of the marked increase in registrations for the November election, it has been necessary for the secretary of state to order a second edition of voters' pamphlets. These pamphlets are now being sent out by the state department.

Wm. Oehman Funeral

Funeral services in charge of Call-away Undertaking Co. of The Dalles were held at Wasco last Saturday in memory of Wm. Oehman who died recently at his home at Newport, Oregon.

Mr. Oehman came to Sherman county about 35 years ago from Kansas. He purchased a tract of land about 7 miles northeast of Wasco and became known as one of the most successful farmers in that area. He owned in excess of 1200 acres of fine wheat land.

About 1916, he rented his Sherman county land and bought a tract at Summit, near Corvallis, where he farmed for a few years, later moving to Newport. He was married to Mrs.
Lottie Reid about 20 years ago. No children were born to the couple.
Mrs. C. M. Kuypers of Rufus, a sister, survives, in addition to the widow.

Annie Greene, 36, packing house worker, died at Medford from injuries received when she slipped on the hem of her bathrobe and fell and struck her head on a sharp object in her bathroom.

Colonel W. C. North of Portland was named by Governor Patterson as a member of the World war veterans' state aid commission to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of W.
C. Culbertson.

E. R. Fooley, Pine Grove orchardist who has completed packing his d'Anjou pear tonnage from a five-acre full-bearing tract, reports 1420 packed boxes per acre. The pears were sold for $2.50 per box, bringing the total value of the year's crop from each acre to $3500, or $17,750 for the block.

Combined efforts of the North Bend and Marshfield fire departments saved more than $500,000 in the Western Lumber Manufacturing company, Ost-land Furniture, Inc., and the Coos Veneer & Box company plants, when a fire started in the Oregon Products plant. The loss was estimated at $50-000.

There were 137 fires in the state outside of Portland during September, 1928, as against 57 fires during the corresponding period in 1927, according to reports received at the offices of Clare A. Lee, state fire marshal.

Fire losses during September, 1928, aggregated $392,000 as compared with $250,000 in September, 1927.

Farmers in the vicinity of Redmond in Deschutes county are changing rapidly to the raising of clover for seed.
W. M. Wilson, president of the Redmond Land & Loan bank said. In the past season, approximately 550 acres were planted to red and Alaska clover. A survey of the district indicates the planting this fall and next spring will amount to about 2500 acres.

The road over Mapleton hill, which is one of the present routes between Mapleton and Florence, is now closed and will remain so until spring, according to announcement at the office of the Siuslaw national forest. The forest service has had a crew of men at work improving the road over the mountain and to use it this fall and winter would damage it badly, it is stated.
