Moro School Notes

Attendance
Miss Belshie's fifth and sixth grades were winners of the attendance banner for the eleventh school week and for the second consecutive time.

The first and second grades have won the award four times since the beginning of school, the third and fourth grades once. The fifth and sixth grades four times, and the seventh and eighth grades four times.

Christmas Program December 20
At two o'clock Friday, December 20, the pupils of the Moro schools will present a Christmas program in the auditorium. To which all the friends and patrons of the school are invited. The high school glee clubs will sing, and grade school pupils will contribute the greater part of the entertainment. The program will last for an hour and a half.

Moro Losses Thanksgiving Game
Two evenly-matched football teams held the attention of the spectators Thanksgiving afternoon, when Moro and Wasco met in their annual conflict. Three passes decided the contest. Wasco made a touchdown in the first few minutes of play, and their second touchdown at the very last. Moro failed to get the ball over their opponent's goal line. The score was 13-0.

Volley Ball Friday Night
The Grass Valley team will play the Moro girls Friday night in the home gymnasium. After the return game with Kent in a few weeks the volleyball season will end.

"The Green Dragon Emerald" Dec. 20
"The Green Dragon Emerald," is a three act mystery play replete with suspense and wonder from beginning to end. The setting is unusual and awesome. This play is to be given December 20 by the Commercial club with the assistance of several students outside of the club. The prices are fifty cents for reserved seats or general admission for adults, and thirty-five cents for high school students. Miss McCord is directing the play.

Grade School Honor Roll
The names of the grade school students who had an average of 90 percent in scholarship during the first six weeks of school are:
Maxine Henrichs, Dorothy Fraser, Lois Kenny, Evelyn McLachlan, Dean Pinkerton, Howard Conlee, Gertrude Gillmor, Lavonne Fuller, Clara Messenger, Audrey Baker, and Vera Henrichs.

These names were unintentionally omitted from the news when they first became known. Next week a new list of high and grammar school students will be printed.

Orville Barnum was a visitor in Moro this week from Portland where he has been busy the past few weeks perfecting his new airplane motor. When met in The Dalles Wednesday, he said that he now has plans in shape to realize handsomely from his invention.

Funeral services were held at Grass Valley Friday afternoon in memory of W. B. Wilcox who died at The Dalles hospital Wednesday following an operation. Funeral services were participated in by Shearer Grange and the Odd Fellow lodge, Mr. Wilcox being a member of both organizations.

Dr. Clarke, Eye Sight Specialist, in Moro, Monday, December, 16th.

Town Talk

George Witter was visiting in Moro on Wednesday from Kent.

Attorney W. C. Bryant is confined to his home with an attack of flu.

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Belknap visited in Portland last weekend with their son, George Belknap.

Mrs. L. V. Moore is a patient at Mid-Columbia hospital, convalescing from a recent operation.

The Sherman county Pomona grange will meet at Grass Valley on Saturday, December 14.

Miss Ruth Hanson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hanson, and Ernest Chatin of Sisters were recently married at Bend, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Carol Akers are visiting from Albany at the home of his parents, County Clerk Akers and wife.

Wm. Morrison returned to Moro Thursday of this week from a visit spent at Klamath Falls with his daughter, Mrs. L. N. Halls.

C. H. Larson and family are now at home in their new home in Moro, having completed the move from the fox farm on Monday.

Hollis Bull of Lexington and Miss Esther Blomquist of Spokane spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Bull.

The Ladies Aid Society social for month of December will be held at the home of Mrs. F. L. Burnet, Thursday afternoon, December 12.

Mr. and Mrs. Orval Thompson left this week for Beaverton, where they will spend the winter months with Mrs. Thompson's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hansen left Camp Sherman last week for Long Beach, California, where they will spend the winter.

H. G. Meredith, justice of the peace at The Dalles, and wife, spent Thanksgiving at Moro with their son, J. E. Collins, and family.

E. T. Strong and family motored to Redmond last Wednesday where they spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. Strong's brother and family.

Revella Calbreath has sold his auto wreck towing business at Arlington and has leased an 800 acre farm five miles west of Condon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Jackson, after six weeks of wandering by auto, have arrived at Phoenix, Arizona, where they will remain during the winter months.

Roy Belshie has so far recovered from his accident of last September to be able to be about the streets of The Dalles and last week to make a brief visit to his home at Wasco.

School Officers To Meet At Moro Next Thursday

A meeting of all the school board officers, clerks and directors, of Sherman county is scheduled to take place at Moro on Thursday, December 12. The first date for the meeting was set by County Superintendent L. W. Rakes for Saturday, but after a number of phone calls were received by Mr. Rakes saying that the school men wanted to attend the county budget meeting and that they did not want to make two trips, the date was made for December 12. The two will not conflict as to hours, the budget meeting being held in the forenoon and the school officers convention in the afternoon.

The program as announced by Superintendent Rakes is as follows: "Organization of town directors," D. E. Stephens; "County high school," V. B. Eakin; "Value of close supervision," T. M. Rolfe; "County unit," W. H. Ragsdale; "School finance," C. A. Tom; "Visiting day," R. C. Byers; "Holidays," J. E. Norton.

NEIL PATTERSON SCOTCH CONCERT COMPANY
THE NEIL PATTERSON SCOTCH CONCERT COMPANY is all "pure Scotch"—and there are four members in the organization. The program is different from anything you have enjoyed in years—ninety minutes of music, Scottish folk dances and side-splitting fun. Neil Patterson heads this talented group of entertainers, assisted by Helen Cuthbert Place, Scottish soprano; Gladys F. Graham, Scottish dancer, and Doris S. Kimball, accompanist. The program features old Scottish dances, such as "The Fling," "The Pappie," and other beloved folk dances.

A letter received this week from I. Owen Thompson states that he will leave Camp Sherman on December 10 for Pasadena where he will spend the winter. He stated that he had completed his building contracts at Camp Sherman for this season and that he had two to put under construction next spring. The letter also said that Mr. Zellhoeber, president of the Jentzen Knitting Co. of Portland was building a 2 1/2 story summer home at Camp Sherman that would include three fireplaces and an outside electric light plant, the total investment to be around $25,000.

FULLER BRUSH MAN will be in Moro Saturday, December 7.

Property valuations of approximately $2,000,000 will be added to Salem's tax roll during 1929 and 1930 as the result of improvements and extensions now under way. The largest item involves improvements by the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company. These improvements include a new office building, extension of telephone lines, and installation of new and costly equipment.

Harold Howell and wife came over from Dufur for the Thanksgiving dinner. He has been working in the woods over there.

Guy Haynes and family and Mrs. Wirt Laughlin, Mrs. Haynes mother, came up from Yamhill Wednesday and visited and ate turkey, returning Sunday.

Barnet and Mitchell will finish the road out northeast of town this week. This is a part of the road work done with the special road tax voted in this district.

Johnnie Decker came up from Portland Thursday and was looking after affairs on the ranch. He returned Sunday. He reports that his father A. J. Decker is not getting along as well as was hoped for.

The town of Grand City, two miles from La Grande, by a house was threatened by fire when a warehouse containing 10,000 gallons of oil belonging to the Fletcher Oil company burned. The La Grande fire department answered the call and saved several nearby gasoline tanks.

Turkeys valued at $40,000 have been shipped out of Grants Pass during the past few days, executives of the turkey pool announced. Josephine county will supply the Thanksgiving market with approximately $120,000 worth of the birds. The market price has ranged around 32 cents.

Seven persons were injured and three freight cars derailed when two mixed trains on the Oregon Trunk railroad met head-on at Oakbrook, a station 35 miles south of the Columbia river in the Deschutes river canyon. A mix-up in train orders was responsible for the wreck.

Wrights bridge, in the Molalla country, which was built in 1882, was blasted and burned, so that in case of high water it would not wash out and lodge against the present new bridge. The bridge was dedicated 47 years ago with a large dance. The proceeds were used to build the approach.

Strawberries picked from his Cottage Grove city garden were delivered by A. F. Glass. Last year his plants produced in sufficient quantities for sale up to November 29, and he believes they will this year beat that record. Mr. Glass finds it necessary to blanket the berries on cold nights.

A Swedish turnip, or rutabaga, with leaves instead of roots growing underground, was found in a Bend garden and placed on display in Bend by A. N. Hicks. Intermingled with the many underground leaves are innumerable fibrous roots. An examination of the vegetable freak revealed that the underground leaves sprouted from the root system.

Funeral services were held from the Moro Methodist church Friday afternoon in memory of Mrs. Amanda Jane Hoyt, mother of Otis Baker and Dennis Baker. Mrs. Hoyt had been sick for the past several weeks. Her sister arrived here from Portland last Saturday and was at the family home when death came.
