Harland View grange is now ready to play baseball, two teams having been organized and Homer Belshie elected as manager of the teams. One is a junior team, the ages of the players being from 12 to 18 years. The other team is made up of older and more experienced players.

Because of the change of marketing methods in the sale of wheat through farmer cooperative federal farm board agency, the Kerr, Gifford Co. office in Moro has been discontinued. The equipment was shipped to their offices at The Dalles late this week. E. C. Cluster, agent here, moves to Walla Walla.

Dr. J. R. Morgan reported this week the discovery of the tragic ending of the life of a robin red breast in a tree in the yard of the W. F. Jackson home. When discovered the bird was hanging from a limb of a tree, under a partly built nest, its wings tightly tangled with a long piece of string which it had evidently tried to use in its nest building. Close by, in another tree, were a nest full of young robins.

A representative gathering of the membership of the Moro Commercial Club was held about the banquet tables last Monday evening. Matters of much interest to all the members was discussed. A change in the time of meeting was voted, to the 2nd and 4th Tuesday evenings of each month. The community singing led by Tom Fraser, soloist, and L. H. Nahouse, piano, was very effective and appreciated by all.

Nothing is more pleasing to a man who is a temporary bachelor than to be called from the table just as a warm meal is being spread before him. This happened last Sunday to Sheriff Chrisman at the noon hour at Hotel Moro when he was asked to go to DeMoss park to take in charge a man who was said to be demented. Chrisman found the man darning his sock, he claimed to be a sheep herder out of a job and not crazy. Chrisman left him darning his sock.

CHURCHES

Presbyterian Church
Our Household

Going to church is a habit—a good habit; staying away is a habit—a bad habit. What kind is yours?

This church desires to be a friendly household of faith, a school for christian character, a center of helpful service, a force of civic righteousness, a power for God in the world, and an uplifting source of strength and inspiration to all who enter its doors.

Sunday School 10 a. m.
Morning worship 11 a. m.
Sermon theme, "The Biggest Business in the World."
Evening Service 8 p. m.
A pianolog, "The Mansion" by Henry Van Dyke.

The church is not a convention. Do not send a delegate, but come yourself.

All very cordially invited.
Charles D. Parrott, pastor.

The Full Gospel Assembly

"The joy of the Lord is your strength." "These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full." "Rejoice evermore."

The normal christian life is meant to be a life of joy and happiness. To miss this, or to not realize the constant joy of salvation welling up within, is to live beneath one's privilege.

Usual services on Sunday.
Sunday School at 10 a. m.
Preaching at 11 a. m.
Bible Study at the home of R. J. Ginn on Wednesday evening at 7:45 to which the public is invited.
J. D. and Mrs. Miller, pastors.

Christian Science

Service Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. Sunday School at 10:00 o'clock each Sunday morning, pupils up to the age of 20 years are received into these classes.

The lesson-sermon topic for the service next Sunday morning will be "Mortals and Immortals."

Reading room open daily where all authorized Christian Science literature may be read, borrowed or purchased. The public is cordially invited to attend the church services and visit the reading room.

Methodist Church Notes

Church School every Sunday morning at 10:30.

Preaching next Sunday at 11:00 a. m. and at 8:00 p. m.
The theme for Sunday morning is

"A Drama of Life."

The subject for Sunday evening is "Love, the Fruit of the Spirit." Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7:30.

Ladies Aid Society meets every Thursday afternoon at 2:00.

The Mother's Day program last Sunday evening was fairly well attended, and of interest to all. The addresses by R. J. Ginn, J. B. Adams and A. M. Wright were very helpful. Brother Ginn spoke on Mothers of the Bible, Brother Adams on an Old Fashioned Mother, and Brother Wright spoke of a Mother's Faith, and Influence. The special singing was excellent.

The church with a cordial welcome.
F. A. Ginn, pastor.

Moro School Notes

Three Live Ghosts, the play selected by the seniors to be given at the Legion Hall on Friday, May 23, at 8:15 sharp, deals with the complications that arise from the return to England from a German prison camp of three soldiers, two British and one American, who are legally dead. Two of them, Jimmie Gubbins and William Jones, the American, have cause for remaining dead. Jimmie cannot come back to life, for his stepmother has collected his insurance. Jones the American, is wanted by the police for the conversion of his father's bonds to pay gambling debts. The other, Spooey, who has every inducement to be alive, must remain dead, for shell shock has robbed him of his reason and memory and turned him into a kleptomaniac. You will enjoy seeing the return of the soldiers, the welcome they receive from Mrs. Gubbins, and the solution of the mysteries with a surprise at the very end.

Cast of characters are: Mrs. Gubbins, known as Old Sweetheart, Ethelyn Kessinger; Peggy Woofers, Jimmie's sweetheart, Viola Hansen; Bolton, of the American Detective Agency, Charles Burnet; Jimmie Gubbins, Roscoe Hansley; William Foster, alias William Jones, Dave Boardman; Spooey, Dean Silver; Rose Gordon, Althea Powell; Briggs, of Scotland Yard, Lamer Sayers; Benson, a detective, Harry McDonald; Lady Leicester, Marie Belshie.

Baccalaureate services will be held at the Presbyterian church May 25, with Rev. Parrott giving the address. DeMoss Park will be the scene of the Sherman county May Pageant, at 10:00 o'clock Saturday morning, May 17.

P. S.—and we sure will be glad when school is out then we can do as we please. By—
