Family and Friends Honor Their 50th Wedding Day

Golden Wedding of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Young Held at F. E. Fagan Home in McMinnville, Ore.

Four generations gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Fagan at McMinnville, Oregon, on Sunday, July 6th, where arrangements had been made by the many relatives of Mr. A. M. Young and Mrs. Florence V. Young to fittingly observe the 50th wedding anniversary of this well-known Moro couple, who were married on July 1st, 1880.

The formal period of the program part of the day was presided over by Rev. Henry G. Hansen, formerly of Moro and now pastor of the Presbyterian church at Independence, Ore. Rev. Hansen read a most appropriate special wedding ceremony that made the wedding ties, if it were possible so to do, a joyful burden for the future to Mr. and Mrs. Young.

Numbered among those present at the first observance of a similar event in this family were: Mr. and Mrs. Young of Moro; Clair C. Young and wife of Portland; Mrs. Z. A. Watkins and daughters Zella and Bonita of Tygh Valley; Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Fagan and daughters Delma, DeEtta and Florence of McMinnville; Mr. and Mrs. D. A. The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Fagan was decorated with many beautiful flowers which were brought from various places. At 3 p. m. candles were lighted which surrounded a large cake. Mrs. Young then proceeded to cut the cake. Mrs. Hansen took charge of the coffee and Mrs. Fagan presided at the punch bowl. After which many presents were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Young, among them a radio set which will soon be installed in their Moro home. Pictures of the entire crowd and various group pictures were taken, which will be received at a later date.

This is the only wedding of this kind that has ever taken place within the Young or Stayton families and will no doubt be long remembered.

Presbyterian Church. Think Them Over — Doubt Destroys Devotion.
