The DeMoss Family are very anxious to put the oratorio "Joseph the Hebrew" on the boards at Wasco. It is a splendid thing, and our music-loving people ought to take hold of the scheme.

If you want jewelry see Marsh & Medler's new line just received. Solid gold chains, collar buttons, cuff buttons, brooches, etc. Everything in that line that would be thought of. Prices are within reach of all.

Geo. Pulliam is the most enterprising man in town. He has built a sidewalk along the west side of his property. A little more along in different places would make a continuous track from the bank to the depot. Let it be done.

STRAY—I have taken up at my place, one bay three-year-old gelding has three white feet; branded with a UU on left shoulder. Weight about 1000 lbs. Owner may have him by proving property and paying for this notice. JOE ORNDUFF.

The Stone Jewelry Co. are not back numbers. They have secured the services of Prof. Daut, a graduate of one of the most prominent optical colleges. He is also one of the finest jewelers on the Pacific coast. He will arrive in Wasco about Tuesday, the third of January.

The Dalles is a poor place for outlaws. Recently one Frank Hessey escaped from the jail at Oregon City and made his way to The Dalles. He was recognized, and Messrs. Wiley and Butts attempted to arrest him. He pulled a gun, and the officers shot him dead. They did right. If a few more hard cases were treated likewise it would have a good effect.

W. T. Sherman Post No. 4, G. A. R. of this place installed its officers for the coming year as follows: A B Wooley, commander; J M Parry, senior vice-commander; John T Johnson, junior vice-commander; Frank Smith, quartermaster; T F Cochran, chaplain; B F Pike, adjutant; Simon Elcock, officer of the guard; C C Kuney, officer of the day. Te installation ceremonies were performed by Lieut.-Col. J. M. Patterson. After the business of the Post was concluded the members repaired to the Delmonico restaurant and indulged in an elegant turkey dinner.

Republicans, Attention.

The Harrison Republican Club, of Wasco, will please meet in Dingle's hall in Wasco, on Saturday, January 8, '98, at 1 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of electing delegates to the State League Convention, to be held in Portland February 10, and to transact any business which may come before the Club. C. C. KUNEY, Pres.

MARY E. JOBY, P. M.

Mr. J. B. Crosfield was in town Tuesday. He was on his way to Prineville.

W. A. Campbell, the genial representative of the Penn Mutual, came to the city Tuesday.

Mr. John Christensen was in town Thursday and took one of the O. T. Co.'s famous Oliver Chilled gang plows home with him.

Mrs. V. C. Brock left this morning for Portland She will engage rooms and then the family will follow. They will be gone about six months.

Hon. E. B. Dufur came up from The Dalles Tuesday evening, and took a team for Moro Wednesday morning. He went to appear before the county court.

Messrs. E. E. Lytle and D. C. O'Reilley, president and manager of the Columbia Southern, came home from New York the last of the week. They were successful in their mission, and ere long we may look for wonderful improvements in the road.

It is no longer a question about the popularity of the bowling alley. Tuesday evening was Ladies' night; and a NEWS reporter dropped in by mistake about that time. There were so many of them there that he lost his equilibrium and has'n't regained it since.

Profs. Geo. and Henry DeMoss were in the city Tuesday afternoon and held the first practice for the cantata "Joseph the Hebrew." The next practice will take place at Mrs. McPherson's residence Friday evening at 7 o'clock. This will be a rare musical treat, and the drill will be highly beneficial to those who participate.

Some time ago the NEWS contained an article concerning a county road from the Fossil country through Sherman county. We are glad to note that the Grass Valley Journal has taken up the proposition. Now that Sherman county has a railroad it becomes more necessary than ever that such a road should be built. The NEWS will be glad to say more about it next week.

In another column will be found an invitation for proposals on the new mill. The bids are to be received at the office of the NEWS until noon January 15th. The plans and specifications are to be found at this office for inspection. This work is to be done by March 1st This is a neat contract for someone, and Mr. Isaacs never does things by halves. It means that Wasco will have the neatest and most modern mill that Sherman county ever had or ever will have.

What Dr. A. E. Salter Says.

BUFFALO, N. Y.—Gents: From my personal knowledge, gained in observing the effects of your Shiloh's Cure in cases of advanced consumption, I am prepared to say it is the most remarkable remedy that has ever been brought to my attention. It has certainly saved many from consumption Sold by Marsh & Medler.

Lost.

A dark brown mare, branded EV on left shoulder, white stripe down face, white hind feet, six years old, weighs about 1000 pounds. Finder will be paid for trouble of caring for her by writing W. A. Campbell, Box 95, Portland, Or.

Farmers, this is your own institution and you should not be deceived by what others, who are only working for their own interest may say or advertise.

Always In the Lead!

This Company is always ready to stand by the wheat-raiser. They never fail to give as much or more for wheat than any one else, but now they are of their own free will

Allowing the farmer 15c. per ton more on his wheat than he expected.

This act alone will give the farmers of Sherman county several thousand dollars more money even on the wheat this Company handles; as they handle much over one half the wheat in the County.
