ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

Marcus Hanna was elected senator after a bitter struggle yesterday.

Mrs. A. H. Gaylord of Grant visited the city Thursday of last week.

Mr Corbett is not seated. But Oregon is going to have another election.

Messrs. W. A. Wallis and R. E. Jackson of Rufus were in the city on Friday.

A big gold strike is reported in Baker county. Ore runs over $13,000 to the ton.

Messrs V C Brock, Geo. Crosfield and Dr. Edgington spent Sunday in The Dalles.

It is not surprising that Durrant declared his innocence. He had the nerve—that's all.

Perhaps Mr. Corbett begins to realize that one John H. Mitchell is liable to cause him some trouble yet.

Emmett Swann is doing some artistic sign work on the doors of the different business offices in the Booth building.

A young Eugene girl did a queer thing Friday. She shot herself through the arm apparently for no reason at all.

Mr. J. F. Potter has opened a jewelry shop in Marsh & Medler's store. Joe is a splendid workman, and solicits your trade.

R. H. Darnielt of Moro was in the city Thursday evening. Mr. Darnielt was making arrangements to put a bowling alley in Moro.

Masters Roy and Clay Brock left Sunday for Portland to join their mother. Roy will attend the Holmes business college during the coming six months.

NOTICE—No person not a member of the Wasco Dancing Club will be allowed at its meetings unless invited by some member of the Club.

E. L. WELD, Mgr.

The Columbia Southern has built a platform at the depot for the accommodation of passengers. This is only temporary, as the company expect to erect a handsome depot in the near future.

It is well that such a man as Durrant is soon forgotten. His request that all things converted into momentoes be destroyed, is timely. Let it be so. Sensible people are glad and morbid ones are better off to forget him.

STRAY—I have taken up at my place, one bay three-year old gelding, has three white feet; branded with a U on left shoulder. Weight about 1000 lbs. Owner may have him by proving property and paying for this notice. JOE ORNDUFF.

The state board of equalization has concluded its labors, and from the tabulated statement given out, it may be seen that Sherman county's roll was not molested. This tells of proficient work on the part of Sherman county's assessor.

Prof. P. G. Daut, of The Dalles, spent two days of last week in the city. The professor is an optician of eminence, and his work is always satisfactory. He is a pleasing gentleman to meet. He will always find friends when he comes to Wasco.

Lillian Temple R S, last Wednesday night installed officers as follows: Mrs Lou Pulliam, past chief; Mrs Etta Hoag, most excellent chief; Mrs Mae Murchie, excellent senior; Mrs Mary E Jory, excellent junior; Mrs Mildred Bright, manager; Mrs Lilly Madden, mistress of records and correspondence; Mrs T J Robinett, mistress of finance; Mrs J T Lucas, protector; Mrs. Hattie Andrews, guard Mrs V C Brock was the installing officer.

Henry Root returned home Thursday from a two weeks' visit to his brother in Southern Oregon. Mr Root is very enthusiastic over his trip and thinks Southern Oregon — its mines especially—equal to anything in the world.

When a mob lynched Marshall Chadwick Saturday morning at Colfax they did a sensible thing. Crime is treated altogether too lightly, and it is time criminals were given to understand they cannot defy the law forever. A few more such forcible lessons would not have a bad effect.

At its first meeting for the year the Harrison Republican Club elected officers as follows: C C Kuney, pres; Clark Dunlap, vice pres; John Peugh, sec. Delegates to the state republican league meeting, to be held in Portland February 1, were chosen as follows: C C Kuney, E L Weld and Clark Dunlap.

SPOILED THE SPEECHES.

Disastrous Effect of Foolish Questions Upon Congressional Oratory.

There are times when the question or remark of a persistent interrupter will destroy the effect of a speech and discourage the orator almost to the point of breaking down, says the Troy Times. When Bryan, of Nebraska, in the Fifty-third congress, was in the midst of a rhetorical climax and with arms uplifted was gushing a very familiar line, the house was convulsed by the question of Walker, of Massachusetts: "Who wrote that?" The whole thing was so ridiculous that it was five minutes before Bryan could go on. Here is another: Thomas Bartlett, of Vermont, was renowned for his flights of elaborate rhetorical oratory, and a seat in congress was the special goal of his ambition. When he was elected a story of how he had been silenced by an audience of college boys got around, and on the occasion of the new member's first appearance the house was prepared to receive him in anything but a serious spirit. Rising to indorse a proposition which had just been vigorously attacked he began to declaim impressively: "Sir, were it not for the rules of the house I would pour upon the opponents of this measure the vials of my wrath—" He got no farther. Mr. Polk, of Tennessee, was upon his feet in a moment, moving, with every appearance of eager interest, "that the rules be suspended and the gentleman allowed to pour!" Such a disconcerting burst of laughter followed that the unfortunate orator could only subside wrathfully into silence and his seat.

HARD ON CATS.

A French Government Commissioner Censures the Conduct of Official Cats.

The French government has just had occasion to appoint a commission to inquire into the grievances of the cats in its employ. Their report is an amusing exhibition of official stupidity, and will rouse a righteous indignation in the bosom of all friends of the useful mouser.

It appears that cats are kept in some of the French military magazines to keep down the surplus population of rats and mice. Their food is regulated by ministerial decree according to circumstances, and at present there is a regulation in force authorizing an expenditure of 2½ centimes per cat per diem. But this does not seem enough, as the unfortunate governmental cats have grown extremely thin, so at last the ministry appointed specialists to inquire into the matter. These have gravely reported that "the cats of the army are very slow to accustom themselves to the diet prescribed by the government circular. Thus they seldom eat bread, and never lap up greasy water unless actually driven thereto by pangs of hunger, so that they are dying off or else abandoning the military magazines."

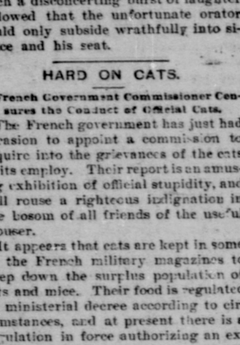
Dreadfully Nervous.

Gents:—I was dreadfully nervous, and for relief took your Karl's Clover Root Tea. It quieted my nerves and strengthened my whole nervous system. I was troubled with constipation, kidney and bowel trouble. Your Tea soon cleansed my system so thoroughly that I rapidly regained health and strength. Mrs. S. A. Sweet, Hartford, Conn. Sold by Marsh & Medler.

A. S. Murray and Wife

SPRINGFIELD, MO.

Restored to Health by Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine.



MR. MURRAY, engineer for Keet & Rountree Mercantile Co., Springfield, Mo., writes: "I suffered from dyspepsia, was unable to eat anything without severe distress. Treated by several physicians without benefit, I became almost a physical wreck and unable to attend to my work. I took Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and in six weeks I was well. My wife had a severe attack of La Grippe which brought on troubles peculiar to her sex. The Restorative Nervine is the only thing that has helped her. We both hope you will use this in a way to help others as we have been."

Dr. Miles' Nervine Restores Health

Dr. Miles' Remedies are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle benefits or money refunded. Book on Heart and Nerves sent free to all applicants. DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

—The oldest national flag in the world is that of Denmark, which has been in use since the year 1219.

—Among the earliest specimens of alphabetical writing are the inscriptions given on the monument of King Eshmunezer, which rival in importance the Moabitic inscription of King Mesha.

—The oldest Jewish alphabet is supposed by some scholars to have been an adaptation of the Egyptian ideographs. Its earliest use in a monument is supposed to be the Siloam inscription at Jerusalem.

—Astronomers calculate that the surface of the earth contains 31,625,625 square miles, of which 23,814,121 are water and 7,811,504 are land, the water thus covering about seven-tenths of the earth's surface.

—Size for size, a thread of spider silk is decidedly tougher than a bar of steel. An ordinary thread will bear a weight of three grains. This is just about 50 per cent. stronger than a steel thread of the same thickness.

—Italy has 48 per cent. illiterate people; France and Belgium about 15 per cent. In Hungary the illiterates number 57 per cent.; in Austria, 39 per cent., and in Ireland 21 per cent. In India only 11,000,000 people out of 230,000,000 can read and write.

—The 72 races inhabiting the world communicate with each other in 3,004 different tongues, and confess to about 1,000 religions. The number of men and women is very nearly equal, the average longevity of both sexes being only 38 years, about one-third of the population dying before the age of 17.

—Jeroslaf I. of Russia had no teeth, having lost these valuable adjuncts to happiness by a blow from a Turkish mace. An English traveler in this country says it was commonly reported that the king's chewing was done by the queen, who masticated all the royal food and transferred it from her mouth to his majesty's with a spoon.

Lost.

A dark brown mare, branded EV on left shoulder with stripe down face, white hind feet, six years old, weighs about 1000 pounds. Finder will be paid for trouble of caring for her by writing W. A. Campbell, Box 95, Portland, Or.
