SENATE RESOLUTION PASSES

Votes to Recognize Cuba and Intervene in Her Behalf
A MAJORITY OF FORTY-SIX
No Intention to Annex the Island—Stirring Speeches Close the Debate—Twenty-Five Senators Heard.
Washington, April 19.—The United States senate has spoken. Its vote for war—war until the saffron flag of Spain shall have been furled in the Western hemisphere, and furled forever.
Its vote, too, is for the independence of the infant republic of the Gem of the Antilles. "Free Cuba and the independence of the island republic" was the battle-cry of the senate throughout the four days of debate which ended tonight.
While the verdict returned was decisive, it is just to say that it was not final. Notes of discord almost forbidding in their tones were sounded. This foreboding was not due in any sense to anxiety about the result of the impending conflict. It was prompted by a fear, if the action taken by the senate should ultimately be accepted as final, this government might become involved in complications that in future years would prove serious.
At 9:10 o'clock the Davis resolutions—those reported from C's committee on foreign relations, amended so as to include the recognition of the republic of Cuba—were passed by a vote of 67 to 21, as a substitute for the resolution adopted by the house of representatives.

THE TWO PROPOSALS

The following passed the senate 67 to 21:
Whereas, The abhorrent conditions which have existed for more than three years in the island of Cuba so near our own borders, have shocked the moral sense of the people of the United States; have been a disgrace to Christian civilization, culminating as they have in the destruction of the United States battleship, with 266 of its officers and crew, while on a friendly visit in the harbor of Havana, and cannot longer be endured, as has been set forth by the president of the United States in his message to congress of April 11, 1898, upon which the action of congress was invited; therefore be it Resolved, By the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America, in congress assembled:
First—That the people of the island of Cuba are, and of right ought to be, free and independent, and that the government of the United States hereby recognizes the republic of Cuba as the true and lawful government of that island, and withdraws its land and naval forces from Cuba and Cuban waters.
Second—That it is the true duty of the United States to demand, and the government of the United States does hereby demand, that the government of Spain at once relinquish its authority and its title to the island of Cuba, and withdraw its land and naval forces from Cuba and Cuban waters.
Third—That the president of the United States be, and he is hereby directed and empowered to use the entire land and naval forces of the United States, and to call into the actual service of the United States the militia of the several states to such extent as may be necessary to carry these resolutions into effect.
Fourth—That the United States hereby disclaims any disposition or intention to exercise sovereignty, jurisdiction or control over said island, except for the pacification thereof; and to accomplish to leave the government and control of the island to its people.
House, 322 to 19.

THE ARMY BEING MOBILIZED

Infantry, Cavalry and Batteries Being Sent South.
WILL BE CLOSE TO CUBA
The Troops Will Be Stationed at Chickamauga, New Orleans, Tampa and Mobile.
Washington, April 18.—Decidedly the most warlike step taken by the war department in preparing for the possibility of an encounter with Spain was inaugurated today, when orders were issued for the concentration at four points in the South of six regiments of cavalry, 22 regiments of infantry, and the light batteries of five regiments of artillery.
At Chickamauga there will be six regiments of cavalry and the light batteries of five regiments of artillery; at New Orleans eight regiments of infantry; at Tampa seven regiments of infantry, and at Mobile seven regiments of infantry.
Since the civil war, no such proportion of the army has been mobilized, and the movement itself is the best evidence of the gravity of the situation, as looked upon by the president and his advisers.
The determination to rendezvous the troops in the South where they can be most readily transported to the tropical climate, has been under consideration by the president and his cabinet for some time. It was not until today, however, that the president, in view of the enormous expense which will be entailed, felt justified in taking this step.
When Secretary Agler returned from the cabinet meeting, he at once called into conference General Miles and Adjutant-General Corbin and acquainted them with the result of the cabinet's deliberations.
There were hurried consultations, in which the quartermaster-general, who has charge of the transportation of the army, and the commissary-general, who looks after their subsistence, and representatives in Washington of various railroads running to the South, participated.
The two new regiments of artillery recently authorized by congress have not been recruited to their full strength, and in addition are not well equipped with horses and other necessary requisites for service, and therefore are not included in today's orders.
The department has so distributed the 22 regiments of infantry at convenient places on the Gulf that they will be accessible for transportation to Cuba.
Proposals have been invited from steamship companies for chartering the country and for the maintenance of the 22 regiments of infantry at convenient places on the Gulf that they will be accessible for transportation to Cuba.
Instructions to the commanding officers of the regiments ordered to move were sent out late today, with directions that they be put into effect as soon as possible, and that the best expectation of the officials that the movement in some places will begin tomorrow. The railroad facilities are more than ample to meet the demands of the occasion, and no trouble will be occasioned in mobilizing this large body of men at the places designated within a reasonably short time.

PLLOT TO INJURE THE MARIETTA.

Spaniards Intend to Blow the Gunboat New York in the Valparaiso Harbor.
New York, April 18.—It is stated that there was a plot here to injure the United States gunboat Marietta while she was in this port, says the Valparaiso correspondent of the Herald.
Just prior to the arrival of the Marietta, the United States consulate in Valparaiso was informed by trustworthy persons that an attempt against the gunboat was contemplated by Spanish subjects in Chile. Immediately upon receipt of this information the United States minister, Henry L. Wilson, Consul John F. Caples and Vice Consul August Muller, Jr., called upon the governor of the province and laid the matter before him. This explains the unexpected trip of the United States minister from Santiago to Valparaiso.
One acquainted with the fears of the American representatives and the facts in the case, the governor immediately gave assurance that the city and maritime authorities would take precautions to protect the Marietta, and extended, through the minister, a cordial welcome to the officers and crew.
During the stay of the Marietta no greater vigilance could have been exercised by the Chilean authorities had the safety of one of their own warships depended upon it. Before the Spanish minister, the American minister, consul and vice-consul, accompanied by Captain Symonds, of the Marietta, called upon the governor and on behalf of the United States government, thanked the Chilean authorities for what had been done to protect the warship.

RIOTS IN MALAGA.

American Consulate Stopped—Escuetebo Torn Down and Burned.
Malaga, April 18.—The rioting which broke out yesterday was continued last evening. The gendarmes charged the mob frequently, and the rioters returned their attacks with volleys of stones. Many persons were injured, and numerous arrests were made. The city is quieter this morning.
The insult to the United States.
London, April 19.—The Malaga correspondent of the Daily Mail says: About 10 o'clock last evening a large group of young people, who had already broken up the shops of the town for the purpose of organizing a demonstration, arrived in front of the American consulate, and began to cheer for Spain. They did not at this time utter any cry against the United States. The chief of police endeavored to disperse them, but only succeeded in driving the crowd from the front of the consulate. The demonstration then paraded along the Calle de Laires, the most frequented street in Malaga, and was accompanied by a very large crowd, reassembled in the Plaza de la Constitucion.
The civil governor and mayor hastened to the spot to calm the people, and with great interest at the American consulate, where the windows were smashed, and a part of the furniture of the consulate seriously damaged.
When the crowd was as the height of its frenzy, a ladder was brought and a man, getting hold of the American flag, threw it to the ground, and commenced cheering. The crowd then paraded as a trophy through the streets, and was ultimately carried to the crowded Plaza de Constitucion, where its appearance created great enthusiasm.
Another group, headed by a well-known Carlist, went through the principal street and passed the consulate shouting "vivas" to Spain, to the army and crying "deaths" to "Deaths to the United States!" and "Deaths to the pig Yankees!"
Foto Still in Washington.
Washington, April 19.—The announcement of the action of the senate was received with great interest at the Spanish legation, but there was no disposition to comment upon it. While the Spanish minister is preserving a discreet silence it is known that he will remain here until at least the resolution in whatever form they may ultimately be, are signed by the president.
