THURSDAY : : JUNE 1, 1899

The president has followed the recommendation of Gen. Otis, and the consequence is that Oregon's man Summers is a brevet brigadier general. Captain Case gets a majorship. This is proper. Bravery such as these men exhibited, should always be recognized promptly. This should be followed by a fitting reception when the boys return home.

Nothing could be more fair than the fact that the Oregon boys are to be allowed to vote on the proposition to come home. Of course they are the ones to decide. And should they vote to come there is no doubt but that they will be allowed to come—unless something serious turns up

According to all reports coming from Manila, there is little doubt but that matters are still serious there. While we may be able to whip them, it begins to look as though it would be necessary to keep soldiers enough there to do it at any time.

Perhaps Dewey thinks if he does not get home by Oct. 1st, enthusiasm will have died down some. He is mistaken. His welcome will be a vigorous one no matter when he gets home.

The churches all over the country are demanding polygamist's Roberts' expulsion from Congress. Let it be hoped their demand will be acceded to.

The Telegram's suggestion that Summers be presented with a sword on his return home is a good one. Let it not stop at the mere suggestion.

While the Oregon boys are resting preparatory to coming home they have no cause to look back with any regret. They established a good name.

Matters begin to look as though Dreyfus would be turned loose, and that Esterhazy might take his place.

The cruiser Olympia is ready to start home. It has shed its coat of war paint.

It is gratifying to know the Oregon boys have voted to come direct to Portland.

Many old soldiers now feel the effects of the hard service they endured during the war. Mr. Geo. S. Anderson, of Rossville, York county, Penn., who saw the hardest kind of service at the front, is now frequently troubled with rheumatism. "I had a severe attack lately," he says, "and procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It did so much good that I would like to know what you would charge me for one dozen bottles." Mr. Anderson wanted it both for his own use and to supply to his friends and neighbors, as every family should have a bottle of it in their home, not only for rheumatism, but lame back, sprains, swellings, cuts, bruises and burns, for which it is unexcelled. For sale by Marsh & Medler, druggists.

Brave Men Fall.

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache, and tired listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and good appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents, at Marsh & Medler's drug store. Every bottle guaranteed.

It is equally efficient for itching piles and a favorite remedy for sore nipples, chapped hands, chilblains, frost bites and chronic sore eyes. 25 cents per box. At Marsh & Medler's.
