THURSDAY : JUNE 15, 1899

General Olla telegraphed Monday from Manila that the Oregon volunteers would sail for San Francisco. They were to sail that day. The war department at once telegraphed General Olla that they were to be sent to Portland. Now the question is whether General Olla received this last order before the volunteers got away. It would appear that Olla had not been sufficiently informed as to the purpose to have the Oregon volunteers sent directly home. It may be hoped there will be no blunder, Oregonian.

And now Fitzsimmons is one of the best. Jeffries is the champion. The Australian, however, did well to ever become champion. Taking into consideration the relative size of the two men, Fitz need not feel dishonored.

The plan of the Capital Journal of publishing the exact vote of every member of the legislature on every question is highly commendable. It should have the effect of causing our lawmakers to do some thinking next time.

While the fact that Aguinaldo has dissolved the Filipino congress and has for the second time proclaimed himself dictator is more favorable to Uncle Sam, it is a safe guess that it will be some time before the trouble is over.

And now it begins to look as though the British lion was about to get into trouble with the Transvaal. Perhaps President Kruger might get some help.

There is little doubt about Sherman county's crop this year. The weather has been most favorable, and never did the fields look more promising.

At last the Oregon boys are home-bound, having started Monday.

How is Your Wife?
Has she lost her beauty? If so, constipation, indigestion, sick headache are the principal causes. Karl's Clover Root Tea has cured these ills for half a century. Price 25 and 50c, at A. J. Barnett's. Money refunded if results are not satisfactory.

The O. T. Co.'s warehouse is practically completed. Judge Walker has painted the front and put out a hand some sign. It is the best building of its kind in the county, and is already filled with farm machinery, wagons, buggies, etc. E. O. McCoy will move his office into it next week, and he will have a cozy place to entertain his callers.

To Make An Omelet.
There are many omelets, but here is the best I have tasted in a long time: One cup sweet milk; one cup cracker crumbs; soak the crumbs in the milk; beat three eggs to a froth, stir eggs and cracker together, adding a little salt. Turn all into a hot frying pan that contains a little melted butter. When the omelet is brown, on one side, turn and brown the other side. This is sufficient for four or five persons.—Ex.
