Desiring to do something towards rewarding our customers for the many favors which we have received from them in the past, we have concluded to give them a chance to obtain an article which will not only have a cash value, but would be an ornament to a queen's palace, as well as a token of our esteem for our customers. We have therefore purchased a fine

$400.00 Whitney Piano

which we will give away in the following manner:

To every purchaser for CASH of $1.00 worth of goods from our store at Wasco, Oregon, we will give a ticket, which will entitle the holder thereof to one chance on the Piano. On the stubs of all Tickets will be put into a sack, and a person selected by three or more of the parties holding tickets will be blindfolded and allowed to draw out one Ticket. To the party holding the corres-

JANUARY 31st, 1900,

The Misses Verne, Lora and Helen Lytle are to leave today for their new home at Warbler, Idaho.

After a residence here of nearly three years, it is hard indeed for Wasco to be compelled to lose them, and their absence will cause a social blank hard to fill. The young ladies have made a lot of friends here whose best wishes will follow them wherever they go.
The burning of The Dalles steam laundry has thrown 16 people out of employment; but they will soon be at work again, as Mr. Macaulay expects to put the laundry in operation again just as soon as possible. His machinery was only slightly damaged by the fire, and his entire loss will not exceed $500.—T. M.
T. M.—R. C. Peave, B. F. Loughlin, J. S. Fish, J. C. Hostetter and Frank Fulton are to leave this week from a trip to their mine in the Greenhorn district. They are not overly conversant regarding the outlook of the mine but ascertain that the Golden Eagle, under the supervision of John Crutcher, is all right, and will be a wealth producer in the future.

There seems to be some of the best talent yet in the part of England to attack the Boers in their own country. Her navy is almost powerless, for the Transvaal has no navy; and it takes time to transport men to South Africa. Kruger is looking for trouble, however, and he should be satisfied. It will cost England enormous losses in lives and pounds, but once started the fight will be to the death.

The Best Remedy for Flu.

Mr. John Mathias, a well known stock dealer of Pulaski, Ky., says: "After suffering for over a week with flu, and my physician having failed to relieve me, I was advised to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended and I decided to try it. I soon noticed a change for the better; by its continued use a complete cure was brought and it is now perfectly healthy.—C. L. Boggs, Summerville, Gilmer Co., W. Va. For sale by Marsh & Medler."

Played Out.

Dull headache, pains in various parts of the body, sinking at the pit of the stomach, loss of appetite, feverishness, pimples or rashes are all positive evidences of impure blood. No matter how it became so it must be purified in order to obtain good health. Acner's Blood Elixir has never failed to cure scrofulous or syphilitic poisons or any other blood diseases. It is certainly a wonderful remedy, and we sell every bottle on a positive guarantee. Marsh & Medler, druggists.

CATARRH OF THE STOMACH

Is essentially a chronic disease. There is an inflammation of the inner coating of the stomach. A thick,ropy mucus forms and this causes the more pronounced symptoms. It remains in the stomach and decomposes. Then of course, indigestion cannot be properly performed. The liver also becomes involved and in a well marked case the most severe. The great remedy HADYAN never fails to effect a cure. HADYAN can be had of all druggists for 50c. When you have used HADYAN tell your friends about its effects. They also wish to be cured. Study your symptoms carefully from this chart. Each number represents a symptom, or a group of symptoms. You have the symptoms. Use HADYAN and they will disappear. Don't wait any longer. Cancer of the stomach often but not always a severe case of catarrh of the stomach.
