Grand Clearance Sale.

On Monday, Dec. 11, 1899, we commenced a GREAT REDUCTION SALE in our Dry Goods Department. This is the sale that has asually taken place in January; but we have deemed it advisable to inaugurate this sale when it will be of most value to the public. This we think will meet with the approval of all who have holiday shopping to do. The prices that we will quote from time to time will be so phenomenally low that it will induce everone to take advantage of this sale.

Shoe Department.

In this line we do not ADVANCE PRICES. We CUT PRICES.

And in keeping with our usual custom we lead all competitors, and in so doing the price of special lines will be cut in two.

Announcement Extraordinary.

Commencing Monday, Dec. 11th,

We will inaugurate a general clean-up sale in our Clothing and Furnishing Goods Departments. We intend making this the sale of the century, and the greatest money-saving sale in the history of The Dalles. All goods marked down to bed rock prices.

An editor prints his paper to give his patrons the news of the day and for the money there is in it. He is presumed to know of what he writes, and he generally does. When he writes as he does in the Leader-Courier, Osceola Mills, Pa., without fear or hope of reward, that "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy acts magically, and we have found none better in our household. If you have a cough, try it," it may be accepted as an honest expression, worthy of credence. For sale by Marsh & Medler.

The Farm Journal is unlike any other paper. for one thing it prints no quack medical advertisements; for another it takes five-year subscriptions and gets the paper to its subscribers the full time if they are anywhere on this planet, even if they move two or three times; if they die their heirs get it. Now we are going to combine with the Farm Journal and send The Wasco News one year and the Farm Journal 5 years, [all of 1900, 1901, 1902, 1903 and 1904] to every advance-paying subscriber, new and old to the Wasco News. This great offer had better be accepted before it is withdrawn.

"Is marriage a failure?" This was the question fully argued at the literary Saturday night. And we can say with the judges, after listening to the case as presented by a maraied man and a married woman, that married life is a failure, and that nothing in this world would tempt us to enter such a life, except a brown eyed girl. The question was neatly discussed, and many were the laughs on the affirmative speakers; but they won their case. The debate was intensely interesting throughout, and was intently listened to. The question for debate Saturday evening is, Resolved, that the United States should own and operate the railroads. Affirmative, John McPherson, W. L. Gosser; negative, Miss Mary Waters and Bob Lucas.

The McDaniel Verdict.

So imperfect and out of joint at many points is our judicial system, due to the limitations and imperfections of human knowledge and human nature, that most absurd and sometimes fairly disgusting verdicts are often rendered by trial juries, says the Telegram. The youth Frank McDaniel was either guilty of murder in the first degree, and deserved, as much as any man ever hanged, the extreme penalty of the law, or else he is guiltless of murder and should have been acquitted on that charge, although he richly deserves all the punishment he will receive for his treatment of the girl who was so infatuated with him.

But let us not censure the jurors severely. It was a somewhat dubious case. It was and is almost a certainty that McDaniel killed the girl; every circumstance and incident points directly at him saying silently but with awful force, "Thou art the man;" yet the crime was not absolutely and positively proved to be his, beyond the law's "reasonable doubt." If McDaniel is guilty, as probably nine out of ten believe him to be, it is a lamentable miscarriage of justice that he can be imprisoned only a few years; yet what was an honest juror who entertained a "reasonable doubt" to do? Not quite sure enough of his guilt to find a verdict of murder in the first degree, he was willing to compromise on manslaughter, reasoning that if the youth is not guilty of murder, he deserves severe punishment anyway, and that the sentence will not be amiss.

Such verdicts are almost enough to cause men to view legal processes with scorn and derision, yet the fault is not altogether in the law, nor yet with the jurors, who may be both intelligent and honest; it is because the best of us only can "see through a glass darkly."

Big Battle in Portland.

Not to have seen the great battle scene at the end of the third act of "Shenandoah," which will be the attraction at the Marquam Grand in Portland for Christmas week, is to have missed one of the best things that has been put upon the stage in recent years, if the daily newspapers of New York City are to be believed, for when Mr. Litt presented this play at his Broadway theatre last May, the bottle scene was the talk of the town. It is a scene in which the awful carnage of war is shown with a degree of realism that is astounding. There are squadrons of artillery, companies of infantry and squadrons of cavalry. The scene represents the battle of Cedar Creek. At first the Union army is seen on the retreat, but Sheridan arrives and the retreat is stopped. Defeat is turned into victory. There are over two hundred men and fifty horses used in this scene, and it is wonderfully realistic.

The Sherman County Bank Fails.

The Sherman County Bank closed its doors last Friday morning, owing, so the notice posted on the door says, to its inability to realize on its outstanding notes.

The closing up of our one bank was a terrible blow to this community, coming as it does just in front of a prospective hard winter, and many are left almost destitute in consequence.

It is nearly a week now since the bank closed its doors, and as yet few steps have been taken towards getting someone in charge. It is high time that the depositors get together and agree on some form of action in the matter that will be acceptable, and at the same time permit an early settlement and an early reopening of the bank for business.

A SURE CURE FOR CROUP.

Twenty-five Years' Constant Use Without a Failure.

The first indication of croup is hoarseness, and in a child subject to that disease it may be taken as a sure sign of the approach of an attack. Following this hoarseness is a peculiar rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It is used in many thousands of homes in this broad land, and never disappoints the anxioes mothers. We have yet to learn of a single instance in which it has not proved effectual. No other preparation can show such a record—twenty-five years' constant use without a failure. For sale by Marsh & Medler.

Farewell Party.

A pleasant little party was given Miss Myra Stanton Friday evening of last week, as a sort of farewell, she leaving Wasco early this week for British Columbia. The evening was pleasantly spent in games and other amusements, which were kept up till a late hour. The following were present:

Mr and Mrs Ellis, Mr and Mrs H T Murchie, Misses Addie Lucas, Bessie Hill, Myra Stanton, May Record; Messrs. Bob Lucas, E D Mckee and Claude Jones.

Biggle Books.

In another column will be found the advertisement of Wilmer Atkinson Co., publishers of The Biggle Books. In conciseness of statement, in the thoroughness with which the ground has been covered, The Biggle Books have won praises on every hand. The boiled-down, common sense, cream not skim-milk method, which characterizes the pages of the Farm Journal has been carried out in their preparation. For mechanical effect no expense or pains have been spared and the highly finished paper, the beautiful illustrations, the excellent type and press work, and the handsome cloth binding, make these books models of the printer's art. The color work in the Berry, Poultry and Cow Books has never been attempted before in any book selling for a reasonable price. No farm or rural home is complete without Judge Biggle's Books, and no one interested in these subjects can afford to let another day go by without sharing in the helpful things with which their pages are filled, Pay $40 for a farm library other than this and you will not have more value. The price is 50 cents, free by mail; address the publishers, Wilmer Atkinson Co., Philadelphia.

For Young People.

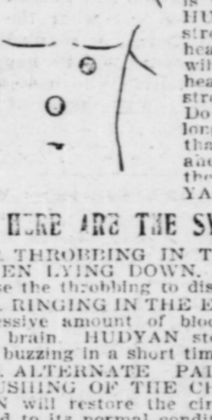
You can get the Youth's Companion and the News one year for $2. This offer holds good only till Jan. 1, 1900, and includes the Companion until that date, too. Now is the accepted time. The Youth's Companion is too well known to require endorsement in these columns. It is the only journal of its kind in the world. The offer is made to secure new subscribers for the Companion, and does not include renewals.

Played Out.

Dull headache, pains in various parts of the body, sinking at the pit of the stomach, loss of appetite, feverishness, pimples or sores, are all positive evidence of impure blood. No matter how it became so, it must be purified in order to obtain good health. Acker's Blood Elixer has never failed to cure scrofulous or syphilitic poisons or any other blood diseases. It is certainly a wonderful remedy and we sell every bottle on a positive guarantee. Marsh & Medler, druggists.

HEART WEAKNESS.

Is your heart weak? Do you have the symptoms of heart weakness? If you have, you should be careful. The heart is the most vital organ of the body. It is the engine that propels the muscles and sends sustenance to the nerves and brain and to all the organs of the body. A flaw in its mechanism is certain to give rise to serious results. Weakness denotes the presence of a flaw. It is a forerunner of something more serious that is to occur. See that it is strengthened and do not allow the weakness to continue. You are the engineer. Look to your engine. See that no accident occurs. HUDYAN is what you need. HUDYAN will strengthen the heart. HUDYAN will make the heart muscles strong and hard. Do not delay too long. Remember that danger is ahead and begin the use of HUDYAN now.



HERE ARE THE SYMPTOMS:

1-2. THROBBING IN THE TEMPLES WHEN LYING DOWN. HUDYAN will cause the throbbing to disappear.

3-6. RINGING IN THE EARS—due to an excessive amount of blood in the head and brain. HUDYAN stops the ringing and buzzing in a short time.

4-5. ALTERNATE PALENESS AND FLUSHING OF THE CHEEKS. HUDYAN will restore the circulation of the blood to its normal condition and keep a constant, healthy color in the cheeks.

7. PALPITATION OF THE HEART AND IRREGULAR BEATING. Owing to the weakness, there is often a fluttering and the miss of a beat occasionally. HUDYAN, by strengthening the heart muscles and the nerves that supply it, will stop the palpitation and fluttering and cause the heart to beat regularly.

8. THROBBING IN THE STOMACH REGION. This is due to the aorta, the large vessel which carries the blood from the heart, becoming distended. This throbbing and pulsating disappear shortly after the use of HUDYAN.

The remedy is at hand. It is the wonderful HUDYAN. Thousands have been cured of Heart Weakness by its use. You should be cured, too. You can be cured. HUDYAN will cure you. Procure HUDYAN from your druggist. It is sold in all drugstores for 50c per package, or 6 packages for $2.50. If your druggist does not keep it, send direct to the HUDYAN REMEDY COMPANY, San Francisco or Los Angeles, Cal. Consult the HUDYAN DOCTORS FREE. You may call and see them and have a free consultation. If you cannot call on the doctors, write to them for advice. It will be given free for the asking. Address
