THURSDAY JAN 23, 1900

Deleaga Bay has been the port through which the Transvaal has received most of its shipments of guns and munitions of war during the past six or eight years...

This office is in receipt of a copy of the Oregon Election Laws, for which we extend thanks to the secretary of state. It is a very useful book...

Congress will soon be called upon to admit a forty-sixth state, and it will be the state of Oklahoma. Gov. Barnes announces that Oklahoma now has a population of 365,000 which represents an enormous increase in the past two years.

Secretary Root is trying the experiment of making sailors out of farmers. The new recruits ought to be able to plow the seas all right.

An honest man is still the noblest work of God, all Wall Street reports to the contrary.

The great art critic, John Ruskin, is no more. He passed away in London Saturday last, aged 81 years.

Press reports show very clearly that Aguinaldo will never be killed or captured on the firing line.

Headaches, salivations, falling sensations, liver troubles. Hulian cures. All druggists, 10 cents.

was loaded." They still deny it is smallpox, claiming it is Filipino itch. A brief review of the many articles in the Moro papers, shows that the people afflicted, the younger cases at least, walked about their yards and talked to others on their doorsteps...

Female complaints, pale, sallow complexion, headaches, nervous dyspepsia. Hulian cures. All druggists.

All city warrants registered on or before Jan. 8th, 1900, will be paid by me on presentation. Interest ceases from this date.

Neither Wanted Smallpox.

Spokane city and county officials clashed Saturday over a case of smallpox, and the county, Sheriff Cole as commander, won out. John Muller was convicted of larceny in the police court and sentenced to the county jail. He had a well-developed case of smallpox when he left the courtroom, and the sheriff refused to entertain him. Health Officer Potter refused to care for the man, the pesthouse being crowded to overflowing. Finally Cole found legal backing and dumped his man at the pesthouse.

Workmen

You have seen hundreds of your companions waste away in mill and foundry with a persistent cough. You have seen hundreds of them die with that terrible disease, consumption. You have seen the morose of the world, because the father coughed his life away, and the mother weeps every day in full of sharp, metallic, rattle which is inhaled into the lungs and irritates their delicate lining. In the case of glass blowers, the force heat of the molten glass forces its way up the tube into the lungs where it gradually breaks down their delicate structure, making every cough a danger to life. You can't afford to quit work and be daily exposed to this fatal dust and intense heat. What you and your friends need is Acker's English Remedy. This will make your throat and lungs strong again. It will hold the irritation, leave up your strength, and you need never lose a day's work. Be assured that in some mills there are no cases of consumption. The reason is that Acker's English Remedy is used by the men working there.

Sold at 25c, 50c, and $1 a bottle, throughout the United States and Canada, and in England at 1s, 2s, 3s, 6s, 9s, 12s. If you are not satisfied after trying, return the bottle to your druggist, and get your money back.

We authorize the above guarantee. W. H. HOOKER & Co., Proprietors, New York. For sale by Marsh & Medler.
