

WASCO LOCAL ITEMS

To Rent; The Fairview Farm.
Buy Sandow flour of your grocer.
For fine dress shoes go to Wasco Com. Co.

If you have a house to paint call on J. A. Large.

George Crossfield went to Walla Walla this week.

Ladies' shirt waists at Wasco Commercial Co.

W. A. Johnson, of Dufur, was in the city this week.

Latest in ladies' washings at Wasco Commercial Co.

Born, to Mrs. J. W. Allen, a son, Thursday, May 11th.

A fresh and complete line of perfumes See Wasco Pharmacy.

Born, to the wife of Bert Eaton, a 12 pound girl, May 11th.

We notice our old friend, Wm. King, on the street this week.

Mrs. W. L. Campbell is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Jess Eatou.

Dr. Edgington is in Prineville this week on a professional visit.

The dust is getting fierce. Let us have a street sprinkler at once.

A fine line of spring suits in latest styles and patterns at Webbers.

J. A. Large can finish your house and do it in a way that will please you.

H. E. Morrow's baby has been very sick this week but is now improving.

Mrs. Jas. Wilson arrived safely at her old home in Pennsylvania last Saturday.

J. A. Large, the up-to-date painter. Call on him when you have work to do.

The Wasco Market has added a fine set of counter scales to their establishment.

For sale or rent, the Bover house, near the Sandow mill. Enquire of C. J. Bright.

Assessor Campbell was among the candidates who shook hands in Wasco this week.

Miss Addie Miller returned to Wasco this week, intending to remain during the summer.

The primary nominations law may not be perfect, still it is a step in the right direction.

J. E. Forbis has left Portland for a visit to the Fair in St. Louis, after which he will return to Wasco.

Today and tomorrow are the only days you will have to register for the June and November elections.

All the registration books in the state close tomorrow evening not to open again till two years hence.

The prohibitionists are very active in Sherman county; the anti's seem to have thrown up the sponge.

Mrs. Robt. Newton has been confined to her bed for some time, but is improving under the care of Dr. Beers.

C. A. Akers and his mother-in-law, Mrs. Waters, were in Gilliam county last Friday, looking after their farms.

The Columbia Southern has again promised to begin the construction of the Bend extension "in about 10 days."

Wanted: A girl to learn type-setting at this office. Steady position with good wages after learning. Inquire at this office.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Kellogg arrived in Wasco last Thursday, and left for G. E. Kellogg's place on the John Day Friday morning.

Buggies! Do you want one? We can give you the best values and finest goods that ever came to Wasco. Try us. E. A. E. Webber.

We are pleased to again present to our readers quite a batch of DeMoss Springs items, owing to the return of our former correspondent.

We have just received an excellent and complete line of shoes, gents furnishing goods, etc. Call and see them. Wasco Commercial Co.

Sick headache results from a disordered stomach and is quickly cured by Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by Marsh & Medler.

The Wasco Lumber Co. have one Superior Drill and one Studebaker Buggy at prices bel w cost. The goods must be sold for we are closing out these lines.

I have for sale three quarter-sections of fine farm land, a short distance east of Klondike, Ore. If you want land call on, or address,
C. J. BRIGHT, Wasco, Ore.

John Simpson will soon have an automobile here. This will be the first of these machines owned in Sherman county and we predict a surprise to the natives.

We have just received a full and complete line of paints, oils, varnishes, paint brushes and everything pertaining to the painter's trade. Our prices are right. E. A. E. Webber.

The Observer seems to think the "Wasco News" is new in name only. Well we haven't seen anything very wonderful in the Old and Reliable since Blinkie went the way of all cats.

The Kandy Kitchen is now located in the new stand in the building recently vacated by the Wasco Pharmacy. It is now one of the neatest confectionery and ice cream parlors in the county, and will do a large business this summer.

Duke of Orleans, one ton.
Duke of Orleans, one ton.
See the new ads in this issue.
Ask your grocer for Sandow flour.
W. B. McCoy was in the city Monday.
For Fountain Pens go the Wasco Pharmacy.
Nobby things in shirt waists at Webber's
Look at Campbell & Morrow's ad this week.
Big new line of drygoods at Wasco Commercial Co.
August Buchler, of The Dalles, was in the city Saturday.
Ladies' new lace work hosiery. Wasco Commercial Co.
Do you want your house papered? If so call on J. A. Large.
If you want anything, we can supply your wants. Webber.
New stock of men's and boys clothing at Wasco Commercial Co.
L. M. Morrow made a business trip to Portland the first of the week.
Ladies' summer Lisle thread underwear at Wasco Commercial Co.
The telephone exchange was moved this week to McKee's new brick.
The Japs don't say much and Kuro Rat can but room is getting scarce.
The Observer is very sorry for Mr. Taft. We are sorry for the people.
Mr. Wm. Walker, candidate for commissioner, is the man for the place.

Gents furnishing goods—the cheapest and best in the market—at Webber's.
T. R. McGinnis, our popular and efficient sheriff, was in the city Saturday.
The Kandy Kitchen now has the celebrated Lowney's chocolates—the best ever.
It is a safe guess, that the dives of St. Louis are doing a big "trade" on Sundays.
The finest chocolates ever seen in Wasco at the Kandy Kitchen—they are "Lowney's."
Furnished or unfurnished rooms to rent in the News building. Enquire at this office.
Don't fail to see those up-to-date ready made skirts that have just been received at Webber's.

Mrs. Anna Carson, of Ione, is visiting her sister, Mrs. John Medler, having arrived Monday.
Wasco was almost deserted last Sunday on account of so many visiting the ball game at Moro.
C. C. Kuney, our next representative, returned home Monday after a short trip through his district.

If you want to make your table attractive, buy some of that new silver-ware Hutchinson has just received.

Do you want a house in town? If so, I have a good offer to make you. Call and see. 42-41 C. J. BRIGHT.

Mrs. V. H. Chastain, of Milton, Ore., grand chef of the Rathbone Sisters, visited the Wasco lodge officially last week.

A test is being made this week of crude petroleum on the streets, a spot about thirty feet square having been sprinkled with it.

H. D. Parkins, of Parkins & Hughs, the stationary and music men of The Dalles, was in the city Monday, on his way to Grass Valley.

Lloyd T. King, representing the Endowment Rank, K. of P., was in this city last week writing up some of our local Knights for insurance.

Kuropatkin should revise his promise of driving the japs into the sea. A more appropriate promise would be, "I am bound for the north pole, due there at earliest possible date."

Nice line of matting and carpets will soon be on hand at our store. If you are intending to furnish your home, it will pay you to wait and inspect these goods. E. A. E. Webber.

This office is in receipt of season tickets to the St. Louis Fair. If the railroads would only be as liberal with their passes, we would certainly honor St. Louis with our presence.

Wasco county is jubilant at finding it has enough money in the treasury to pay all debts and have a handsome balance besides. This is the condition that Sherman county has been in for years.

Hon. W. H. Moore has bought a residence sight in Hood River and will soon erect a residence. He has also purchased a large tract of fruit land and will make Hood River his future home.

Mr. Eugene Looney has declined to accept the nomination, at the hands of the democrats, for Joint Representative from Sherman, Gilliam and Wheeler counties. Well, it makes no difference to us; Kuney would beat him, anyhow.

Overalls of all descriptions, for big, little and old, spring and summer hats, candy, oranges—in fact, anything that anybody can possibly want, can be had at the Wasco Commercial Co.'s big store, and our prices are the lowest in the city.

An old bachelor recently bought a pair of socks and found attached to one a paper with these words: "I am a young lady of 20 and would like to correspond with a bachelor with a view to matrimony." Name and address were given. The bachelor wrote and in a few days got this letter: "Mamma was married 20 years ago. The merchant you got those socks of evidently did not advertise or he would have sold them long ago. My mother handed me your letter and said, possibly I might suit you. I am just 18."

Duke of Orleans, one ton.
Duke of Orleans, one ton.
Duke of Orleans, one ton.

The mess of dust the city authorities have dumped at the intersection of Clark and First streets is an excellent job—of its kind. But gentlemen, please don't be partial with such jobs as this; give everybody a little of the good work.

I have just moved to my new location in E. D. McKee's new brick and have not only the best and most complete stock of jewelry that has ever been shown in Wasco, but am better prepared than ever before to do your repairing.
E. W. HUTCHINSON, Jeweler.

Dr. Dowie is searching high and low for a printer that has no vices to work in his printing plant at Zion City. Dowie is getting worse every day—who ever heard of a printer without vice? Being associated with the "devil" and having a "hell" (box) always handy, vice seems to be a necessary adjunct to the trade.

Quite a crowd of friends were at the depot last Wednesday morning to bid goodbye to the Misses Florence and Marie Barnett, who left for an extended visit to the World's Fair and other Eastern points. They intend to go via Los Angeles, Calif., and will return home via Chicago and a northern route.

There will be prohibition speaking at the following dates and places: Web-foot school house, May 13 (tonight); Biglow school house, Tuesday May 17; Brock school house, Wednesday, 18, and at Neese school house, Friday, May 20. Rev. Bailey, A. S. Porter, C. J. Bright and others will address the meetings. Everyone invited.

Our old friend, John Simpson, who has been sampling the qualities of California as a home and money making stand, is again in Sherman county—baggage and all—having returned last Sunday, with the firm intention of remaining. He says California is good to read about, but Sherman county is good to live in.

Sunday, May 29th, there will be G. A. R. memorial services at the M. E. church in this city. Rev. Perry Chandler will deliver the memorial oration at 11 o'clock, a. m. It is very likely that proper observance of Decoration day will be held in this city May 30th, with an appropriate program. All G. A. R. and their families are cordially invited.
43-5

Messrs Morrow and McCollough inform us that the rural telephone line which they are building is now completed with the exception of installing the instruments. These have been ordered and are expected to arrive in a few days. Patrons of the line will then have direct connection from their homes with Wasco and long distance.

..Wasco Lumber Co..

Dealers In

Lumber & Wood & Coal & Shingles &
Lath & Adamant Wall Plaster &
Lime and Cement.

Builders Hardware of all Descriptions

Doors & Windows & Paints & Oils, etc.

Agent for Genuine Cumberland Blacksmithing Coal.

All kinds of Builders Material always in stock.

ESTIMATES FREE

To be Given Away FREE!

One $50 rig consisting of saddle, chaps, silver mounted spurs, and a fine bridle, will be given away by

VICTOR MARDEN

The Dalles, - - Oregon.

For every $20 cash purchase, you will be given a ticket on this valuable outfit, and on Jan. 1, 1905, the holder of the lucky ticket draws the prize.

The Place to Save Money

Wasco Com. Co.

The Place to Get What You Want

Dress Goods

New Spring Dress goods just received. The largest and most complete line in town. Come and see what we have to show you in our new goods.

SHOES

Our line of Shoes consists of all the new and up-to-date teings for men, women and children. All the new lasts and styles are here.

HARDWARE

A complete line of Hardware just received. Barb Wire Poultry Netting in all widths. A complete line of agricultural implements, hoes and rakes, forks, heavy and shelf hardware at prices that will surely interest you.

CLOTHING

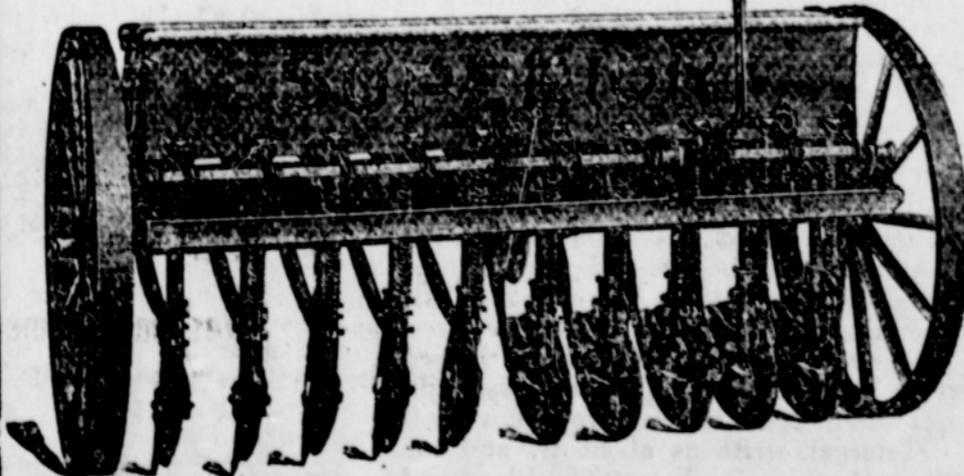

Our line of Clothing for men and Boys is replete in every detail and our prices are right.
Men's Suits.....$7 to $15
Boys Suits.....$2 to $6
When you want Clothing look over our line.

GROCERIES

In our line of Groceries every thing is first-class, always fresh, and our prices are the lowest.

CROCKERY

Our line of Crockery is the most complete line in town. Let us quote you prices on crockery.

Best made, lightest draugh---and it is a Superior. Sold only by the Wasco Commercial Company.