

WASCO LOCAL ITEMS

Duke of Orleans, one ton.
Fishing tackle at Webbers.
Buy Sadow flour of your grocer.

Walter Moore was in the city Saturday.

Nobby things in shirt waists at Webber's.

Ben McCoy was in the city on election day.

A large crowd of wool buyers went to Shaniko Wednesday.

If you want anything, we can supply your wants. Webber.

MacBull was among the Moro people in Wasco last Monday.

J. A. Ellis has a nice line of wall paper from 10c per roll up.

J. A. Ellis has some nice patterns in linoleum six and 12 feet wide.

A man and wife wants to work on a place. Enquire at this office.

Hon. M. A. Moody was on the train Wednesday on his way to Shaniko.

Base ball! W. W. M. Co. vs. Sherman county, in Wasco next Sunday.

J. A. Ellis has just received a nice lot of matting at 17, 25 and 30c per yd.

Mr. and Mrs. Webber are recuperating at the hot springs on the Columbia.

When you want a good carpet see J. A. Ellis. Can save you 10c to 20c per yard.

R. S. Wilcox is the agent for the best weeder on earth. Tried and found successful.

For sale or rent, the Boyer house, near the Sadow mill. Enquire of C. J. Bright.

Mrs. Dr. Edgington returned Saturday from a trip to the south end of the county.

Fancy brick ice cream—Hazelwood—every Saturday and Sunday at the Kandy Kitchen.

W. H. Ragdale was in the city Monday looking out for the interests of the republican ticket.

The second tank of oil arrived Tuesday and work was at once commenced in finishing the streets.

Look at our clubbing offers. You can add the Tribune Farmer to any of them for 25 cents additional.

Have you seen that really successful weeder K. S. Wilcox is using on his farm? He will sell you one.

Messrs. Crossfield and Carew went to Portland Monday on business connected with the big opening soon to occur.

Rev. G. R. Archer returned from Isee Tuesday. Mr. Archer held church services there last Sunday.—Grant County News.

Miss Maggie Eaton, who has been in Wasco looking after her livery business for some time, left for her home in The Dalles Saturday.

Wanted:—Gentle horse or mare between nine and 14 years old, weight from 1150 to 1500, for family use. Address HORSE, News office, Wasco, Ore.

The Wasco Lumber Co. have one Superior Drill and one Studebaker Buggy at prices below cost. The goods must be sold for we are closing out these lines.

Mrs. Jerome Morrow came home Tuesday from the hospital in Portland where she has been for a couple of weeks, considerably improved in health.

The new fire bell promised by the O. T. Co. has been installed. The company now has excellent fire protection and one of the finest light plants in this part of the state.

Nice line of matting and carpets will soon be on hand at our store. If you are intending to furnish your home, it will pay you to wait and inspect these goods. E. A. E. Webber.

Jerry Madden, who has been in a sanatorium in Portland most of the winter, has returned home very much improved in health. He is stopping with his brother-in-law, Dave Young.

Mr. and Mrs. Orr were in Hood River last week. Mr. Orr returning to Grass Valley finished the plastering of the new brick school house at that place and returned to Wasco Sunday.

Herman McKee and wife came over from Goldendale last Saturday on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. E. D. McKee. Mr. West Golden, Mrs. W. M. Barnett's brother, came over at the same time.

R. S. Wilcox is now using two of those fine weeders on weedy summer fallow on the Barzoe place southwest of Wasco. He will try it for you any time you care to see it. Only four horses to pull an 8-foot machine! Weeders made all sizes.

Mrs. John Dingle and little daughter, formerly of Wasco, arrived in the city Saturday and are visiting friends. They have been on an extended trip through California and are now returning to their home in Colfax, Wash.

Remember, there will be another base ball game in Wasco next Sunday, between Wasco and W. W. M. Co., of The Dalles. Everybody come and see the home team wallop The Dalles team, just as the Goldendale boys were beaten last Sunday.

The A. O. U. W. of this city paid off a wager lost to the W. O. W. recently in a game of base ball, with a fine ice cream supper at their hall last evening.

A short, but highly appreciated program was rendered, and everyone had all the ice cream and cake they could eat.

Duke of Orleans, one ton.
Duke of Orleans, one ton.
Ask your grocer for Sadow flour.

Local option lost in Portland by 2,000 votes.

Now is the time to order berries to can. C. A. Akers.

The H. H. Maxwell house to rent. Inquire of C. J. Bright. 45tf

Bring in your orders now for berries for canning purposes. C. A. Akers.

Harry Eaton has gone to Mitchell to spend the Summer with his relatives.

Chicken dinner every Sunday at the Wasco Restaurant. T. Young, Prop. 47-tf

Gents furnishing goods—the cheapest and best in the market—at Webber's.

The Kandy Kitchen now has the celebrated Lowney's chocolates—the best ever.

The finest chocolates ever seen in Wasco at the Kandy Kitchen—they are "Lowney's."

Don't fail to see those up-to-date ready made skirts that have just been received at Webber's.

Have you seen those fine green peas Deyo is selling? They would melt in your mouth, they're so good.

Bring in your chickens to the Wasco Restaurant. Highest cash price paid. 47 tf T. Young, Prop.

R. C. Wallis, of Rufus, was in the city Tuesday. Mr. Wallis is true to the democratic cause, though it suffers defeat.

Do you want a house in town? If so, I have a good offer to make you. Call and see. 42-tf C. J. Bright.

For sick headache take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and a quick cure is certain. For sale by Marsh and Medler.

Mrs. Grimes and Miss Essie McClelland went to Centerville last Friday for a couple of weeks' visit friends and relatives.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Vic Smith on June 8th a fine 9-pound girl. Dr. Beers was in attendance and reports mother and baby doing nicely.

Miss Mabel Gilbert, daughter of Mrs. John Rasmussen of Monkland, arrived home last week from Hillsboro, where she has been attending school.

If you want a good magazine apply at this office and we will quote you the price on anything published. We are agents for all leading magazines and newspapers.

It is rumored on the streets that one of our leading merchants is contemplating building a new opera house 50x100 feet. It is hoped this will be done, as Wasco is sadly in need of one.

We have just received a full and complete line of paints, oils, varnishes, paint brushes and everything pertaining to the painter's trade. Our prices are right. E. A. E. Webber.

Mr. W. B. Ansen was in the city last week from his farm near Monkland. Mr. Ansen is one of our most substantial farmers, with absolute faith in our future. He reports excellent crop prospects.

Our friend John Simpson is building a fine cottage on his place near Wasco. Mr. Simpson is one of the prodigal sons of Sherman county, and now that he has concluded, as all do, that Sherman county is the best place on earth, he is preparing to stay.

The ladies of the Christian church wish to express their thanks to the general public for their liberal patronage at the lunch served on election day. They are highly pleased with the result as something over $74 was taken in, which is to be used for the Christian church, after expenses are deducted.

Samuel L. Brock and Lena Belle Spooner of Monkland were married at the residence of J. G. Medler last Sunday. This was one of the prettiest weddings of the season. Justice Marsh officiated in his usual correct style. The contracting parties are well and favorably known in this section and "The News" extends its best wishes for the future.

John Dav, an old pioneer, after whom the John Day river was named, died in Montana recently, a very old man, and penniless. He was well known among the pioneers of the early gold days of Canyon City and camp Watson, acting at times as a United States scout in the numerous Indian wars of the time. He has won and lost more fortunes perhaps than many of us ever dreamed of.

A brand new flag now floats from the O. T. building, announcing the early advent of the most complete line of general merchandise ever brought to Sherman county. Their new building is a credit to any town, and their business amounting to several hundred thousand dollars per annum speaks well for the energy and progressiveness of the firm as well as the prosperity of Sherman county.

Bernard's Comedy Company closed a week's entertainment in Wasco last Monday night, and are now at Grass Valley for a week. Their show was well attended every night, and the manager and players all made friends with the people of Wasco, leaving a very good impression behind them. During their stay they started a popular lady and a popular baby contest, the prizes being a fine gold watch for the lady, and a solid gold ring for the baby. In the popular lady contest Miss Elsie Meyers won the watch with a plurality of 814 votes. In the baby contest, Baby Garlock won the ring with 304 votes to spare. One of the best features of the show was the piano and organ playing by Prof. Ernest Dalmore, which was very much enjoyed by all.

Duke of Orleans, one ton.

Duke of Orleans, one ton.

Good potatoes, 50 cents per sack.

J. W. Booth.

The fishing season is on; buy fishing tackle at Webbers.

A fine line of spring suits in latest styles and patterns at Webbers.

Nice fried spring chicken any style 50 cents at the Wasco Restaurant. 46-8*

Buggies! Do you want one? We can give you the best values and finest goods that ever came to Wasco. Try us. E. A. E. Webber.

For Sale:—A fine team of mares broke to work. One of them has a fine colt. Will make a crack-a-jack ranch team. Apply to W. E. Tate, Wasco, Ore.

Sam Stark, an enterprising young attorney of The Dalles, has decided to enter the Wasco legal arena, and has opened his office in the old News building.

Almost the last of objector to oil on our city streets has been silenced in view of the complete success of the experiment, and they would be "madder still" if the job was not completed.

Our friends at Moro are going to have a big celebration on the Glorious Fourth. Good! We'll be there, and we hope that everybody else will. Moro knows how to celebrate, and we expect a fine time.

The Oregon Trading Company is receiving large shipments of their new stock daily, and we expect soon to see the old time conditions of activity obtaining around their big store.

Local option has carried in the state. The first election under the new law, may, if proper petitions are filed, be held at the time of the presidential election in November of this year.

We had hoped to publish the complete vote for each county candidate, showing the gains, etc., but owing to lack of space, are compelled to cut it down, giving only the majority each successful candidate received.

The seventy-third birthday of Mrs. F. M. Venable was the occasion of a most pleasant gathering at her home last Sunday, June 5th. An excellent dinner was served after which the large company of friends and relatives spent the day in comfortable ease on the pretty lawn. In all, about 50 were present, including friends and relatives from California, Washington and Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. Venable came West in 1852, locating in Marion county near where Silverton now stands; in 1862 they moved to Klicitat county, Wash., since which time they have lived in Klicitat and Sherman county. Ten children, six boys and four girls, have blessed their long wedded life, as well as 28 grand children, 14 of whom were present.

...Wasco Lumber Co...

Dealers in

Lumber * Wood * Coal * Shingles *

Lath * Adamant Wall Plaster *

Lime and Cement.

Builders Hardware of all Descriptions

Doors * Windows * Paints * Oils, etc.

Agent for Genuine Cumberland Blacksmithing Coal.

All kinds of Builders Material always in stock.

ESTIMATES FREE

WASCO MARKET

We handle all kinds of marketable stock in large or small quantities. Also large hogs suitable for feeding.

Meats of all Kinds and of the best quality always in stock. Fish and Game in season.

FRUITS AND VEGETABLES

COURTEOUS TREATMENT

PATRONAGE SOLICITED

Miller Bros., Propr's

Look Here==Look Elsewhere

Comparison

Is our especial delight. The more you look through our stock the surer we are of making a sale. * * *

Shoes...

We have just opened several cases of new shoes, in Ladies', Gents', and Children's latest styles, and lowest prices. * * *

Straw Hats
25cts Each

Shirt Waists
at 1-2 Price

The Place
to Save Money

Wasco Com. Co.

The Place
to Get What You Want