

Duke of Orleans, one ton.
Buy Sadow flour of your grocer.
O. H. Rich was in Klickitat last week.
J. D. McDermid was in The Dalles last week.
J. A. Ellis has a nice line of wall paper from 10c per roll up.
Father Hickey made a flying visit to Wasco the first of the week.
J. A. Ellis has some nice patterns in linoleum six and 12 feet wide.
Mr. and Mrs. John Medler went to The Dalles the first of the week.
Della Siesel is in The Dalles visiting her sister, Mrs. G. L. Coleman.
M. A. Van Gilder and his wife and daughter went to The Dalles Monday.
A man and wife wants to work on a place. Enquire at this office.
C. J. Bright and son were in The Dalles this week on a business trip.
J. A. Ellis has just received a nice set of matting at 17, 25 and 30c per yd.
Wm. Peabody accompanied F. H. Leader and family to Collins, Monday.
When you want a good carpet see J. A. Ellis. Can save you 10c to 20c per yard.
B. F. Medler and wife are at Collins or Springs for a couple of weeks out-
R. S. Wilcox is the agent for the best seed on earth. Tried and found successful.
For sale or rent, the Boyer house, near the Sadow mill. Enquire of C. J. Bright.
Fancy brick ice cream—Hazelwood—every Saturday and Sunday at the Kan-Kitchen.
Mrs. Marsh and daughter Minnie are Hood River on a visit and taking in Ellis' blow out.
Born to Prof. H. H. White and wife, Dufur, Or., June 11, 1904, a 10-pound boy. Both doing well.
Have you seen that really successful order for S. Wilcox is using on him? He will sell you one.
Mr. and Mrs. Morris, of Rufus, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Hailey to the ring grounds this week.
Mrs. L. Grimes and Miss Essie McMillan, of Wasco, are visiting friends in this week.—Centerville Journal.
Paul Conni of The Dalles and wife sailed through Wasco Monday on their way to Mr. Conni's ranch near Condon.
C. Hailey is again at home, having recovered from his fractured leg. Mr. Hailey went to the hospital at The Dalles over a month ago.
Wanted:—Gentle horse or mare born nine and 14 years old, weight 1150 to 1500, for family use. Address: HORSE, News office, Wasco, Ore.
The Wasco Lumber Co. have one Superior Drill and one Studebaker Buggy prices below cost. The goods must sell or we are closing out these lines.
George T. Parr, of the Eastern Oregon Lumber Company, came down from Shermans yesterday on a business returning this afternoon.—Chronicle.
A man by the name of Watts was in The Dalles one day last week and the effects of too much tangle foot got in the way of the switch engine failed to get out.
Fishing and camping is the order of the day now, and quite a few people and nearby farmers have away this week, for a breathing before harvest begins.
The state G. A. R. encampment began along River, Wednesday, and will continue until tonight. Quite a number of old soldiers living in Wasco and Grant county are in attendance.
The blacksmiths are all busy now repairing for the farmers, preparing to start the season's harvest. It is said that wheat throughout Shermans county will average at least 30 bushels to the acre.
S. Wilcox is now using two of his fine weeders on weedy summer on the Barzee place southwest of here. He will try it for you any time you care to see it. Only four horses to a 8-foot machine! Weeders made in Oregon.
Wednesday was the first anniversary of the Heppner flood, and flowers were sent to that place from several towns to help in decorating the memory of the many who lost their lives in raging waters.
Hailey and wife and Jim Vandewater and wife are in the fishing land. Adams, and we hope they will bring back wads of fish, provided they remember the "News" is still in the line of eating fish.
The office is pleased to acknowledge of an invitation to be present at a ball to be given in Goldendale, at the Armory Hall, on the night of the 4th, by Klickitat Camp, No. 127, W. McCully's Full Orchestra and under the music. We hope, if possible, to be present, and hereby thank for the invitation.
D. A. McKee, of Woodburn, Ore., and Ed McKee, is visiting Ed this week. McKee says the days of the over in the Willamette Valley, apples, hay and dairy products are forging to the front. He is an agent of Oregon and used to be in the warehouse and grain business during the palmy days of Val-

Duke of Orleans, one ton.
Duke of Orleans, one ton.
Ask your grocer for Sandow flour.
Sheriff McGinnis was in the city Wednesday.
Rain is needed to help the growing crops.
Now is the time to order berries to can. C. A. Akers.
Notice the big ad of Eilers Music House, in this issue.
Are you going camping? Then buy a hammock from Webber.
The material for the new opera house was ordered last Tuesday.
Our line of ladies' muslin goods is complete. E. A. E. Webber.
Harry Disher returned Monday from a business trip to Portland.
The best line of gente furnishing goods in the city is at Webbers.
Chas. Gollither and family returned Wednesday from Collins Springs.
Bring in your orders now for berries for canning purposes. C. A. Akers.
Mrs. J. E. Edgington was in Dufur last week on professional business.
Chicken dinner every Sunday at the Wasco Restaurant. T. Young, Prop. 47-tf
See our line of shirt waists before you buy. Big reductions. E. A. E. Webber.
Bring us your orders and let us make on prices; we will save you money. O. F. Co.
The finest chocolates ever seen in Wasco at the Kandy Kitchen—they are Lowney's.
Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Milton P. Morgan, June 16, 1904, a daughter. Dr. Fm. Huckin was in attendance.
Bring in your chickens to the Wasco restaurant. Highest cash price paid. 47 tf T. Young, Prop.
Do you want a house in town? If so, have a good offer to make you. Call and see. 42-tf C. J. BRIGHT.
half gallon Mason Jars 80c doz start " " 60c
lots " " 50c " " " "
Oregon Trading Company.
Our former townsman, James Hoag, formerly proprietor of the Wasco livery barn, has been in town for the past ten days, attending to some business. Mr. Hoag is now ranching in Gilliam county.
The following people living in the vicinity of Wasco have installed phones and are members of the local exchange: Van Gilder, Bart, W. C. and D. W. Moorhouse, E. A. Hines, M. A. Richardson, W. M. Hoag, E. R. McMillian and J. G. Walker.
A. Ellis returned the first of this week to Collins Hot Springs, Wash., where he expects to stay a month or so, hoping of completely curing his rheumatism. He was there for a few days a week and was greatly benefited, and he thinks if he stays right with it will be cured.
Henry Krause made us a call last Saturday. He tells us that he will soon move up on his place; he has set out a lot of trees, dug a well and has in a fine crop of wheat, besides he has been doing considerable business in the harness saddling business in Gilliam county. The crops in that county he thinks are advanced than in Sherman county. Rain is needed.
Mr. Moro correspondent, Mr. Fitzgibbon, was elected recorder of the county of Moro last Monday night. If Mr. Fitzgibbon is as good a recorder as the correspondent, Moro is to be congratulated on having so efficient an official and if he catches as many violators of the law as he claims to have caught and as big, the world will come in part of the good luck.
Mr. J. H. Meyers has resigned his position as clerk with the Wasco Commercial company, and has accepted a position with the "Wasco News" as collector and auditor. There is quite a sum of subscription money due this paper, and we hope our subscribers will kindly have the money ready when Mr. Meyers calls on you. By paying a year in advance, you will give you entitles on any other publication you wish in conjunction with the Wasco News.
Editor Morgan, met an old-time friend, one Willard Graebler, at the depot yesterday, whom he had not seen for many years. Mr. Graebler has for many years been manager of a warehouse at Portland, Or., for the Interior Warehouse Co., and was on his way to Grass Valley where he has been transferred to a similar position. Needless to say, we are glad of the chance for a few minutes to talk over old time.
A party consisting of R. L. Turner, J. H. Moss and Miss Anderson, of Portland, passed through this city Wednesday morning in a Ford automobile, en route to Baker City, and other interior points. They went to Arlington from where Mr. Ford's wife joined them. The automobile was an elegant motor car, propelled by gasoline, and was in report good progress so far, the only thing hindering being rough roads.
Children's day was very fittingly celebrated at the M. E. church in this city today. The exercises consisted of songs, recitations, etc., by the children of both the Christian and Methodist churches, and the little ones were under the supervision of their mothers and to their tutors, not a hitch in the program during the evening. Supt. A. J. Carter, of the M. E. church, gave an interesting talk, also. He said that there should be more cooperation between the two churches, and that the Sunday school be attended more regularly by the elders in order to lend encouragement to the younger members. The whole program was well received by the large crowd present.

Duke of Orleans, one ton.
Duke of Orleans, one ton.
It will pay you to come and see us for prices. O. T. Co.
Good potatoes, 50 cents per sack.
J. W. Booth.
Nice fried spring chicken any style 50 cents at the Wasco Restaurant. 46-5*
The Kandy Kitchen now has the celebrated Lowney's chocolates—the best ever.
We will save you money on mowers, reapers, binders and headers, and give you the best. O. T. Co.
Mr. E. A. E. Webber left today for Collins to see his wife and daughter and take a short outing.
Prove it for yourself: a dollar buys more at Webbers than at any other store in Sherman county.
Miller Bros. are now selling a new brand of sausage that is fine. Just try it—it is the best we have ever tasted.
When you want good paint, lead or oil go to J. A. Ellis. He has the best on the market, and cheap as the poorest.
Bert Page is in Gilliam county, and Robert Newton is in Morrow county selling harvesters for the O. T. Co.
Now that the election is a thing of the past, the country papers are beginning to "sling up" a few more local ems.
Marshal Nixon and A. K. Lumsden left Tuesday night for Collins Hot springs for a week's outing. Mr. Wm. Meyers is acting as marshal in Mr. Nixon's place.
Mr. T. E. Hughes, of Ellers Music house of The Dalles, came up Tuesday and left for Grass Valley the next day, it returned to Wasco after a couple of days absence.
Mr. J. R. Howell has on exhibition at J. M. Barnett's bank a sample of some rawberries grown on his lots in this city. They are larger than any Hood river berries we have seen on the market.
The Adventists began a series of meetings in a large tent on a lot just back of Mr. McClelland's residence, this week. There are three men and a lady in the city, and the intention is to remain a few weeks or more.

ANNOUNCEMENT.
We are still here, with a "down-to-earth" stock of General Merchandise, and are selling Everything. We have a large stock of Mason Fruit Jars, and we quote you as follows:
If Gallon, 85c doz
arts, 65c doz
..... 55c doz
kindly solicit your patronage. Very yours, JONES & MACPHERSON.

Dealers In
Lumber ❁ Wood ❁ Coal ❁ Shingles ❁
Lath ❁ Adamant Wall Plaster ❁
Lime and Cement.
Builders Hardware of all Descriptions
Doors ❁ Windows ❁ Paints ❁ Oils, etc.
Agent for Genuine Cumberland Blacksmithing Coal.
All kinds of Builders Material always in stock.
ESTIMATES FREE

We handle all kinds of marketable stock in large or small quantities. Also large hogs suitable for feeding.

Meats of all Kinds and of the best quality always in stock. Fish and Game in season.

FRUITS AND VEGETABLES

COURTEOUS TREATMENT PATRONAGE SOLICITED

Miller Bros., Propr's

Comparison

Is our especial delight. The more you look through our stock the surer we are of making a sale. ❀ ❀ ❀

Shoes---

We have just opened several cases of new shoes, in Ladies', Gents', and Children's latest styles, and lowest prices. ❀ ❀ ❀ ❀ ❀ ❀

Straw Hats
25cts Each

Shirt Waists at 1-2 Price

The Place to Save Money

Wasco Com. Co.

The Place to Get What You Want