

WASCO LOCAL ITEMS

Bob Newton was in the city last Sunday.

You can always depend upon Gifford's Photos.

Fred Meader and wife made a trip to Biggs, Sunday.

H. D. Parkins was up from The Dalles, last Saturday.

W. B. McCoy was in Wasco on official business, Tuesday.

Miss Pearl Grimes returned to her home in The Dalles, Monday.

Bill Booth has been in Gilliam county this week, looking out for investments.

We notice that Herbert Root is an officer in the artillery detachment at O. A. C.

C. J. Bright returned, Saturday, from Seaside where he had been attending the K. of P. convention.

Geo. McKinsey was in the city, this week. He has just completed experting the city accounts of Moro.

A. L. Umphlette, who has been assisting in The News office for a couple of weeks, left for Portland, Monday.

Mr. J. Levitt made a business trip to Hood River, Tuesday. Miss Mrrish is acting manager in absence of Mr. Levitt.

The O. T. Co. are raffling some beautiful buggies now. Lucky is the fellow that wins. The vehicles are beauties.

The Portland manager might have dug Dale but it appears that he can't dig the Portland base ball team out of the hole.

A little difficulty between a couple of our fellow townsmen, last Monday, resulted in the fattening of the city treasury to the tune of a fiver.

Marie and Florence Barnett left, Monday, for Portland where they will resume their musical studies, intending to remain for about six months.

Wm. Nixon has opened his new restaurant and confectionery, in the Ellis building, and now has one of the neatest and most inviting places in Wasco.

It is rumored that Mr. Kelley, our general agent of the C. S., will soon go to Shaniko, Mr. Wilson will go to Moro, and Mr. Shandy, who is now at Moro, will come to Wasco.

Minnie Marsh returned home from the hospital, Saturday. She is still feeling the effect of her sickness, but is able to be out and is well pleased to be at home again.

It is thought that Sherman county will go "dry" on election day. If so, Wasco loses $1500 a year license fees, that will have to be made up on the next tax assessment.

B. W. Anson and family left, this week, for a visit to the World's Fair, and the East. Mr. Anson has over 200 acres of wheat planted and reports several fields of grain growing in fine shape near his place.

Ed Glasgow had a narrow escape a few days ago from having his eyes injured by rabbit blowing out of a boxing he was repairing, as it was his face was badly burned, but no serious injured resulted.

The acrobatic feats of the Democratic party are something wonderful, they'll probably stay in the air until the 8th of next month. We wonder if there will be any Democratic wind left after they miss the best bar.

Mr. O. J. Bales, an old Sherman county resident and property owner here, now a resident of Portland, was in Wasco this week, and paid this office a pleasant visit. Mr. Bales is looking after his business interests here.

The council recently granted the Wasco Commercial Co. a permit to erect a sheet iron warehouse at the rear of their store. This firm is doing a big business and to meet the increase they intend soon to erect a large warehouse.

Mrs. Juliet Van Guilder, mother of our fellow citizen, M. A. Van Guilder, left Monday for her home at Nunda, New York. Mr. and Mrs. Van Guilder accompanied her, and will visit their old home in New York for a month or so. Mrs. Juliet Van Guilder has been visiting here for the past year, this being her first visit to the Pacific coast.

The much talked of Sherman county edition of the Pacific Homestead has been secured by Wasco people. If the mixups they have injected into the Wasco write up, is a sample of the remainder of the work it will take an expert to find the spiel for which he paid. Typographically the edition is good, but aside from this, little can be said in favor of the venture.

At the last regular meeting of the city council, on Monday the 17th inst, the resignation of Marshal Nixon was received and accepted and Guy Andrews elected to fill the unexpired term. A communication from President Lvtle, of the C. S. R., in regard to moving the water tank was read also one from Supt. Woodberry. The company was informed that unless the conditions of the franchise were complied with at an early date the franchise would be forfeited.

Ed Kaseberg who has been a resident of Sherman county for the past twenty-one seasons has sold his entire interests, in Sherman county, to Mr. J. D. Gibson. Mr. Kaseberg will do some traveling before investing again. We hope however that he finally decides to remain in this county, but wish him success in whatever part of the county he chooses to locate.

Eggs 30c per dozen at the O. T. Co. Look at O. P. Hulse's ad, this week.

Look out for a "blind pig" after Nov. 8th.

Thompson, the insurance man, is in the city this week.

Mrs. Dr. Huchin was a country visitor Wednesday.

Ben Halley made a business trip to Moro Wednesday.

Miss Nellie MacPherson returned from Portland Sunday.

Jas. Venable and Carl Smith went to Rufus Wednesday.

S. W. Stark was on business in Portland and the first of the week.

L. K. Moore and wife were in Wasco, Tuesday, for an hour or so.

Edgar Hutchinson has a far away [Portland] look these days.

Horace Cuthill and wife are visiting at grandpa Sink's this week.

O. P. Hulse and Miles Biggerstaff made this office a pleasant call Tuesday.

George Hildbrand made a business trip to The Dalles the middle of the week.

R. P. Orr is putting up a building for Frank Lamborne, he has just finished two buildings at Dufur.

Don't fail to call on O. P. Hulse when making a purchase of buggies or any kind of farm machinery.

This weather these days makes the wood and coal man smile, but the other fellow —, and looks blue.

Mr. Ab Wolley arrived home Tuesday from an extended visit to different points in the Willamette valley.

In talking with a man who has recently been in all parts of Gilliam and Sherman counties, he expressed the opinion that local option would surely carry in these two counties.

A force of men are at work, this week, making preparations to change the water tank belonging to the C. S., to the company's lot below Dr. Edgington's house.

Jas. Pepper came home this week from the John Day country where he has been running an engine for the Allen-Campbell threshing outfit. Jim looks a little the worse for wear, as they have had a little over three months run. He scratched one of his hands on a piece of tin, and now has a bad case of blood poisoning.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Kent, of Williams-ton, Mich., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Akers this week. Mr. Kent is looking about our town with a view of making his permanent home here should business prospects justify him. He is very much pleased with Oregon.

Services at the Christian church Sunday, as follows: 10 a. m.; Bible School lesson, "The Story of the Healing of Naaman, a great warrior." 11 a. m.; Sermon, "Work of Faith and Labor of Love." 7:30 p. m.; Sermon, "Can a Man Trust his own Heart?" Members and friends of the work are, especially, invited to attend the Lord's Day services. J. B. Lister, Minister.

At the meeting of the Oregon Press Association in Hood River, last Friday and Saturday, Portland was selected as the next place of meeting, during the fall next year. Hood River entertained the editors in her characteristic, and liberal way, and among other things, took them all for a drive through the valley. A number of able addresses were made by the visitors. Saturday afternoon the following officers were elected for the following year: R. J. Hendricks of the Salem Statesmen, president; J. C. Hayter, Dallas Observer, first vice president; A. D. Moe, Hood River Glacier, second vice president; Albert Tonier, of Portland, secretary; Miss Gatchell, treasurer; G. H. Himes, historian.
