Medler-Myres

On Wednesday morning, June 20 at 9 A. M. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Medler, of this city, sister of the bride, was the scene of a beautiful wedding service. When Mr. Walter Medler and Miss Elsie C. youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Myers, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. The ceremony was beautiful and impressive. The wedding party stood beneath a lovely white wedding bell.

The parlors and dining room were decorated in white and green. The floral display was beautiful, consisting of bridal roses and white carnations interspersed with palms and ferns.

The groom looked happy and handsome in his suit of regulation black. The bride's elegant gown, was of white lace and with her veil and orange blossoms, she was indeed a beautiful flower of June. Immediately after the ceremony the guests were served with a dainty wedding breakfast, which was enjoyed by all present. Mr. and Mrs. Medler received a number of useful as well as valuable presents from their many friends and relatives.

Mr. Medler is one of Sherman county's most prominent young men. Mrs. Medler is the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Myers. And her many friends appreciate her charming personality.

The happy couple took the morning train for Portland for a brief honeymoon.

Following is a list of the presents.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Medler, bedroom set; Mr. and Mrs. Myers, dinner set, table and bed linen; Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Medler and Fred and Albert Medler, range stove; Commercial Boys, rock-ter lamp; Andrey, chopping tray; Mr. Mrs. Alvin Barnum, tea set; Mr. and Mrs. John Medler, linen table cloth, napkins and cake plate; Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Medler, oil painting; James Myers, large plate glass mirror; Mr. and Mrs. James Irving, silver pie litter; Miss Pearl Venable, glass water set; Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Morse, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Alison and Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Koell, San Francisco, silver berry spoon, butter knife and sugar shell; Miss May Medler, silver knives and forks; George Irving, San Francisco, beautiful picture; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Booth, celery tray; Miss Norma Medler cut glass pickle dish; Miss Jessie and Bessie Booth, chocolate set; Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Irving, San Francisco, drawn work center piece; Evelyn Medler, cut glass fruit dish; Mr. and Mr. Frank Medler, salad set; Chas. Golliber, china cup and saucer; Mr. and Mrs. E. H. If you meet Charley, don't imagine, tell, or insinuate, that he's been fighting. He hasn't. This how it was: He was riding along in a very dignified position on a trough in the wagon when the wagon-wheel struck a large rock, and Charley, wishing ascertain what was retarding his progress and taking as he thought the most advantageous position, lit out on his head on the wagon tongue; he didn't take time to think of his nose. He taking the time now.
