ON EVERY TONGUE

Thousands of People Asking About Oregon Lands.

While Oregon's Development League is Doing Good Work for the State Each Community Can Do Much in this Direction.

Portland, Or., January 8—[Special Correspondence]—Never at any time since Oregon became a state has there been such widespread interest in her development, as is evidenced by the letters received from all parts of the United States by the Oregon Development league.

President T. B. Wilcox of the state league has just authorized an increase in the advertising in thoroughly reliable agricultural publications of large circulation. These advertisements are devoted exclusively to the agricultural lands of the state, for it is an increased farm population that Oregon needs more than all else combined. Put energetic farmers on the vacant lands, cut up the large ranches and the cities, towns and villages of Oregon will grow and prosper. With that end in view Oregon is being advertised as never before, and the inquiry is three times as great as it was during the Lewis & Clark exposition.

Many communities of the state are sending out literature to inquirers lists of whom are being furnished to each and every one of the 63 organizations composing the Oregon development league. Letters of inquiry are coming in many languages —English, German, Swedish and Polish lead; letters are coming from every state in the union, but Minnesota, Iowa, Kansas, Wisconsin, the Dakotas and Nebraska, are about equal in number, and it is from just these portions of the United States that we want our immigration. An accurate conception of the enormous correspondence can best be had from the fact that it cost $527 to pay the outgoing postage for the past 25 days from the Portland office alone.

The M. E. minister, Rev. Holliday, did not fill his appointment here on account of the snowstorm Sunday.

School began Monday after a week's vacation.

Little Herman Happold is having a slight attack of pneumonia.

Will Oehlman returned from The Dalles Saturday.

Ed Everett killed seven fine porkers a few days ago.

Wesley Fuller has been on the sick list the past week.

Miss Blanch Spencer returned to The Dalles after a pleasant visit with the Everett family.

Edna Everett returned to school Monday after spending the holidays with their parents.

A surprise party was given A. Hap-old and family last Wednesday eve.
A fine time and a delicious supper was enjoyed by one and all.

Quite an interesting prog. was rendered at literary Sat. eve. The following new officers were elected: Pres. C.
A. Kuypers; vice pres., S. O. Clodfelter; sec., Herbert Hill; treas., Miss L.
McKinney; editors, Clara Everett and Carl Happold. Prog. Com., Mrs. Dora Clodfelter, Mrs. C. A. Kuypers and Miss L. McKinney.

Henry Stone took a trip to The Dalles last week. He drove to Biggs and left his team there while he went to town.
When he returned he found that his team had broken away and left him to walk four miles into the country, where he found them.

The sermon at the Christian church last Sunday evening by Rev. Easter was upon the subject, "How do I know I am a Christian." His argument for a simple, clean, Christian life was strong and convincing.

When in want of any plumbing, cistern work, flue building or tin work, call on Jas. Pepper. He is a first class workman and his prices are reasonable.
