Jack Freeman is Dead From Shot in Back

AIM WAS NOT AT VICTIM.

Roy S. Ward is Held in Connection With Killing at McDonald's Ferry of Man Well Known to People of This County

One man shot dead while under the influence of liquor is the result of an affray which occurred at McDonald's Tuesday night.

Our peaceful little county is disturbed with death in its most horrible form.
 Report came to Wasco shortly before midnight Tuesday evening that John Freeman had been shot dead at McDonald's Ferry on the John Day river. The instrument of death is said to have been in the hands of "Billy" McDonald, the ferryman, who, it is said, had previously received a wound inflicted by a man named Ward, who had pushed McDonald off his own porch. The shooting, it seemed, occurred about 8-o'clock, but Freeman's body was not found until shortly before midnight.

Ward and Freeman left Wasco Tuesday afternoon, and together, drove to McDonald's Ferry, reaching there about 8-o'clock. When the men reached that place they both appeared to be drunk, and Ward, climbing from his wagon, it is claimed, attacked Freeman. "Billy" McDonald, hearing the fuss, went out to stop it, and succeeded in separating the two men. Then McDonald returned to the porch and, it is claimed, Ward followed him and pushed him off the porch, causing a wound to be inflicted on McDonald's face, near the right eye.

After this McDonald got on his feet and persuaded Ward to go home, which he had agreed to do. To assist him, Mc-Donald went to Jack Freeman, and started to aid the intoxicated man to get into the wagon. At this time, it is claimed that Ward approached McDonald from behind and struck a blow which fell him to the ground. This was done with a shovel, but at this point, those who were on the ground say that Ward picked up an ax and that McDonald, fearing for his life, ran to the house and procured a gun. Becoming frightened Ward ran toward the river, and, McDonald, seeing no one, fired two or three shots in the direction he thought Ward had gone.

After the shooting members of the family phoned to Klondike, and Larry Catterlin, George Potter and Mr. Bridges rode down to the scene of trouble. Word was also sent to Wasco and Constable Hoag, accompanied by Dr. Morse, also went to the Ferry. The two parties arrived before midnight. Considerable search followed before anything was discovered of the two men who were supposed to have run to the river. Finally, Freeman was found lying on his face, apparently in a drunken stupor. Constable Hoag remarked that he seemed very drunk, and they would leave him awhile before awakening him. The party then went to the house, and later, returned, when some one touched the man and found him dead. Examination then followed and a bullet hole was located in his back just above the kidney.

In the absence of Coroner Logan, Justice Westfield, of Grass Valley, summoned a jury and an inquest was held Wednesday afternoon, the jury rendering a verdict to the effect that John Freeman came to his death from an accidental gun shot wound.

The remains of the deceased, Freeman, who had neither family or relatives in his locality, were brought to Wasco by Lew Agie, Wednesday night, and taken yesterday, to Emigrant Springs for burial.

Upon examination by Dr. Morse Mc-Donald was found to be seriously injured and is lying at his home in a somewhat critical condition. Ward was placed under arrest and is now in custody of Sheriff McCoy.
