Mrs. Merchie, Miss Ruth Merchie, Mrs. Atwood and Miss Eoff, returned Wednesday from the Coast where they had been for past two weeks.

The new grainpiler has been installed at the warehouse of the Independent Warehouse and Milling Company. The machine is said to do excellent work.

J. E. Forbes was called to Portland last Friday on business connected with the sale of his half-section of timber land in the vicinity of Eugene. He returned home Sunday.

Miss Davis and Miss Nell McPherson leave Portland Monday for San Francisco. Later, Miss Davis will go to New York to spend the winter with her sister, and Miss Nell will return home.

Billy Andrews threshed two thousand sacks of bluestem wheat off of his home quarter. It is not likely that there is more than 140 acres in the field, making a remarkable yield for bluestem.

Harry Long has "swore off" on the game of "thrown and catchem," since his last game Wednesday. A broken fourth finger is a small matter but small matters are sometimes troublesome.

While threshing at the ranch of Joseph Robinson, near Klondike, Monday, the machine caught fire, consuming about 150 sacks of barley besides burning the derrick table and doing considerable damage to the machine.

Again the efforts of the ladies of the Methodist church to serve chicken dinner were most successful. On last Saturday evening they accommodated more than 130 people, realizing $61.00. The dinner was most excellent.

Parties having business with Oregon Fire Relief Association please call on or phone J. R. Howell of Wasco, Oregon, who is their local agent and will write your insurance for one, three or five years, and will guarantee satisfaction.

Rev. John McAllister, pastor of the Baptist Church at Head's Grove, Rock Creek, informs us that Prof. Carilins, of McMinville College, will preach and conduct baptismal services at the Rock Creek church at 12:30, p. m., September first. After services a basket dinner will be served. Special music will be rendered on the occasion and a general invitation is extended.

Mr. Ellige, of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company, came up from The Dalles Tuesday and has been looking after the interest of the company's affairs in this place since then. It is the intention of the company to keep the central office open from six in the morning until 9:30 in the evening hereafter. Lester Eaton will assist in the office until the first of the month, when he will prepare to take up his school work.

One of the greatest successes on the American stage of late is Miss Josephine Deffrey, that beautiful and talented star, that comes here next Thursday, the 5th, at the Akers Opera House, for a three nights engagement. The opening play, "Shall we Forgive Her," is a powerful four-act drama. Miss Deffrey is said to be at her best in this bill. It may be added that the company that supports this talented actress is one of the most powerful in the United States and has always been greeted as such. We predict crowded houses at every performance. Reserved seats are now on sale at the Akers store.

Dr. R. A. Heritage, deacon of the college of music at the Willamette University at Salem, will give a song concert at the M. E. Church, September 10. Dr. Heritage had charge of the concert work at Chataqua this year.

The largest yield of grain, reported on Saturday, August 17th, was that belonging to Hugh Shull living in the Kent neighborhood, twenty-five acres of forty-fold wheat, averaging nineteen sacks to the acre good and strong. Many farmers have said that forty bushels to the acre wheat in Sherman county this season would not be very numerous, but all reports say that wheat is turning out better than expected and will not be surprised to hear this week of a larger yield—Grass Valley Journal.

A very pretty home wedding took place in Rufus last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Chrisman, when their daughter, Anna Belle, and Mr. A. E. Blackburn were united in marriage. Rev. Holliday, of Wasco, officiating. Only immediate relatives were present. After the ceremony a fine wedding dinner was served by Mrs. Chrisman. The bride and groom left on No. 1 for Seaside where they went to spend their honeymoon.

The Josephine Deffrey Company which is booked to appear at the Akers Opera House on the dates of September 5th, 6th and 7th, is said to be one of the best melodrama combinations on the road. They will find the people of Wasco in good spirits and their entertainments will doubtless be greeted by large and appreciative audiences. Mr. Akers is not in the habit of recommending troupes that have signed to appear before the intelligent people of Wasco but he does not hesitate to do so on this occasion.

Thomas McConnell, a sheep-header, met death at Shaniko Monday morning from a bullet fired from a pistol in the hands of a drunken gambler named Thomas Hale. It is said the men were strangers and both in a state of intoxication. They entered the barroom of the Columbia Southern Hotel at 3 o'clock in the morning when Hale flourished his gun in such a threatening manner that the barkeeper went outside to call the marshal. On his return with the officer Hale came out of the room with a smoking revolver in his hand and walking to the edge of the porch set down unconcernedly. The body of McConnell lay on the floor in the hotel, having been shot three times. There were no witnesses to the tragedy except the two men concerned. Hale claimed he did not know the man he shot and had never seen him before. A coroner's inquest was held early in the forenoon, charging Hale with the murder of McConnell and he was placed under arrest and taken to the county seat of Wasco county where he was confined in jail to await trial.
