School Notes.

PRIMARY ROOM.

Those that are wearing the medals this week in the second grade are Flossie Hammond and Ivan Dell Harper. Those in the first grade are Lynn Peugh and Claude Eaton.

We were all pleased to see Willma Barzee in school again this week.

Clarence Ison, Olive Gollither and Reece Capbell are absent from school this week.

Rachel Ward, a new pupil, entered the second grade Monday morning.

Charlie Wilson, Arthur Medler, George Hines and Lynde Smith are improving wonderfully in their writing since the first of the term.

Those who were neither absent or tardy during the past month are Lula Zobel, Claude Eaton, Ruth Smith, Will McDonald, Lynn Peugh, Gladys Morrow, Leeson Coffey, Charlie Wilson, Lois Barnett, Flossie Hammond, Melvin Akers, Olive Gollither and Newton Crossfield.

FIFTH AND SIXTH GRADES.

The same pupils, Jeanette Crossfield and Vernie Peugh wear the Medals this week in the fifth grade.

We were glad to welcome Evelyn Medler in the sixth this week.

Willie and Bell Andrews are new pupils in the fifth grade this week.

SEVENTH GRADE.

Foster Gow has been promoted to the eighth. This means some hard work for him.

Goldie Barnett is convalescing and we hope soon to have him back in school.

The Hearing-Sink wedding is responsible for considerable inattentance on the part of certain students to their work. We shall get started again, very soon, and we hope no one of the young ladies will be so inconsiderate as to get married for some time.

EIGHTH GRADE.

Misses Lura Allison and Edna Sink are very much interested in their work.

HIGH SCHOOL.

The girls of the advanced grades have elected Miss Blanch Spencer a captain of the basket ball team. Arrangements are being made to play The Dalles Girls' Basket ball team. We have good material to choose from and some good work will be expected.

A second team will be organized to go against the first team. If any of the second team do better work than some one in the first team they may be promoted to a position with it.
