For Chronic Diarrhoea.

"While in the army in 1863 I was taken with Chronic diarrhoea," says George M. Felton South Gibson, of Pa. "I have since tried many remedies, but without permanent relief until Mr. A. M. Miles of this place persuaded me try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, one bottle of which stopped it at once." For sale by MARSH & MEDLER.

ANDREW SCHENCK.

President of the German Fire Insurance Co., Recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family for over a year, and can say that it never failed to cure the most stubborn cough or cold. I can recommend it to any family as a sure and safe children's remedy.—Andrew Schenck, Ayton, Ont. This remedy is sold by MARSH & MEDLER.

Additional Local.

C. J. Bright returned from Portland yesterday where he had been in attendance at the annual meeting of the Oregon Bar Association. Mr. Bright was elected a member of the executive committee.

Those going to Goldendale for wood will find it greatly to their interest to go directly to U. B. Trumbo, of the Goldendale Wood Yard. Mr. Trumbo will give you a "square deal" and by seeing him first you will save both time and money. Read his ad in the News.

William Walker, Freeman Austin, J. P., Eugene, Leland and Steve McMullin, hied for Gilliam county last Tuesday to slaughter the feathered tribe. Report comes to Wasco that one of the party fell in the John Day and came out with his pockets full of fish.

J. C. Foley, a retired mining man from Portland, accompanied by his wife, came up last week expecting to spend the winter in this locality in the interest of his health and returned to the city yesterday with the intention of going to California. Mr. Foley is suffering from asthma.

Christmas Jewelry.

All interest is focused on Christmas. Don't let our display escape you. Months ago we decided to be in a position to say to Christmas shoppers: "Here is a Christmas jewelry display that for size, for merit, for variety, for generosity, demands your attention." Now we say it, and every word is the truth. L. W. Ross, The Jeweler.

New Mercantile Firm.

The general merchandise firm of W. R. Hamilton & Co. has sold its store and business to a firm of which George N. Crosfield is the principal owner and manager.

The deal was closed in the early part of the week, but owing to other business engagements Mr. Crosfield was not able to take charge until today. What the firm name will be has not yet been announced, but the firm will be unincorporated and have most substantial backing. Mr. Crosfield was one of the first business men to enter this field and his ability is well known to a large part of the people of Eastern Oregon. He has the distinction of having sold the first gang plow ever used in this county.

It is believed by all that the new firm will do a progressive up to date business. Mr. Crosfield, being out of town, it is impossible to interview him at this time, but it is understood that he has already ordered a large stock of general merchandise to reinforce that already on hand. Welcome, Crosfield.

Sins of Omission.

Our "sins of omission," dear God; Are the things we ought to have done, While much that we said, And much that we did, Might have remained undone. We forget that a kindly word, Oft saves a soul from despair; And a look askance, With scorn in the glance, Grieves the Master—over there. We say we love the Master, And that we are following Him, But do we stop To try to help up The one who has fallen in sin? Do we remember the aged, The sick, the weak and the poor? Or do we sit back And say there's a lack Of opportunity; shut the door. We can't hide behind human nature; Opportunity is always in sight. Kindness is kind And we are not blind, To the fact that right is right. GRACE LOUIS.
