The carpenters are putting in a glass front in the C. A. Akers store. This is an improvement which will add greatly to the appearance of the store.

Herbert Root was a passenger on the train Tuesday, bound for Walla Walla. The News doesn't print rumors, but if Herbert should return with a partner, we will be ready with hearty congratulations.

The rifle shooting match held in Wasco on Wednesday furnished amusement for a large number of persons. The boys were able to dispose of all their turkeys but were not so fortunate with the geese.

The Ladies Aid of the Christian church served dinner Thanksgiving as advertised, and those who ate with them had great cause to be thankful. The dinner was excellent and a large number of guests partook of it.

Mr. C. C. Ogle was over Wednesday from the Ajax country and bought a four horse load of merchandise George N. Crofield. These goods will be hauled about forty miles.

J. C. Freeman and Dr. Hartley went out yesterday after the "rest" of the geese "what was left already, still." But up to the time of going to press we have not learned whether they succeeded in capturing them all or not.

Lost—In yellow tobacco sack, between Ezra Sink's place and Rufus, about two weeks ago, one open faced gold watch, property of T. A. Fowler. Finder please leave at this office or with owner at Rufus and receive suitable reward.

A few calamity howlers who are too stingy to advertise are claiming that business is dull. Others have different tales to tell. Jim Ellis, the furniture man, told the writer that he had done more business during the present month than during any other like period of time since he has been engaged in the furniture business.

The League Reading Circle this evening with Rev. and Mrs. F. E. Smith. These meetings, which are held every Friday evening, are proving to be a success both socially and intellectually. Despite the inclement weather, about twenty young people enjoyed a pleasant evening at the home of Mrs. MacPherson, at which place the Circle met last Friday evening.

DIAMONDS are ideal Christmas gifts. We will save you 25 per cent on the dollar as we sell them on a very close margin and we buy direct from the cutters in New York. Have sold three in the past few days ranging from $100 to $400 each. L. W. ROSS, jeweler.

Yesterday morning Divine services of Thanksgiving were held by Rev. Father Hickey at the Catholic Church, Wasco, with the usual attendance. The Rev. Father has just finished a visitation of the Willow Creek, Prineville, Bend portion of his extensive parish and is well pleased with the hopeful condition of things. Returning from Shearer's bridge to Kingsley last Saturday evening, the Father was caught in the terrible wind and rain storm which raged so fiercely in the Tigh Ridge mountains. It was grand, says Father Hickey, but awfully appalling. Divine services will be held again in the Catholic Church, Wasco, on Dec. 15th, at 10:30 o'clock.

L. W. ROSS, Jeweler
