The Secret of a Beautiful Face lies in keeping the skin protected as well as cleansed. Just washing is not enough—that only leaves the delicate surface more exposed to the irritation of dust and germs; to acridless attacks of sun, and weather. After washing, apply Robertine and experience its delightful refreshment.
You will admire the line-less softness it imparts to face, neck and arms. It not only stimulates a radiant glow, but protects the skin from becoming coarse. Prevents burning, tan and freckles.

Born, Thursday, December 5th, to Mr. and Mrs. E. D. McKee, a ten pound girl.

According to a mutual agreement the Wasco stores will hereafter be closed on Sunday.

Miss Stella Tiller has successfully encountered an attack of the measles and is now convalescent.

The Gray family have recovered from measles and the quarantine was raised yesterday. Mrs. Gray is still far from strong.

A rumor among traveling men who have visited Wasco promises this place two passenger trains each way daily.
The talk is that a regular freight will be put on and a passenger coach attached.

The grand ball and social event of the season is expected to take place at the Akers Opera House next Friday night, December 13th. See ad in this issue and come prepared to have a good time.

Every year the Michigan Pres-Association takes an outing and this coming year they will spend a portion of their vacation in the mountains of Canada. They have expressed a strong desire to continue their trip to include Oregon with its magnificent scenery, and particularly the Columbia river, and are being urged to make this arrangement.

BRINGS EASTERN MONEY TO THE PACIFIC COAST

The Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company Has $3,421,185 Loaned on Mortgages in Oregon and Washington.

In the year 1906 it sent to these two states nearly one million dollars ($941, 500.00) which was so invested. Here is the 1906 record, Oregon and Washington business only:

New loans made $ 941,500 Cash paid policy holders or representatives $ 162,104

Money Sent to Pacific Northwest $ 1,204,192
Premiums collected 519,800

Excess of money sent over premiums collected $ 684,392 In the single year 1906 the Northwest Mutual sent to Oregon and Washington $584,392 more than it collected there.

E. C. GOODWIN,
District Manager,

More Life Insurance in Oregon than any other company—The official reports show it.

Fifty Years a Blacksmith.

Samuel R. Worley of Hicksburg, Va., has been shoeing horses for more than fifty years. He says "Chamberlain's Pain Balm has given me great relief from lame back and rheumatism. It is the best liniment ever used." For sale by MARSH & MEDLER.

The Geo. N. Crossfield store is headquarters for all kinds of Christmas decorations, toys and supplies of all kinds. If you are looking for anything good in the way of a present for your wife, children, mother, father, brothers, sisters, cousins, or mother-in-law see Crossfield. He has presents for all.

School Notes.

Blackman is the game now in stead of baseball.

Miss Laura Allsup of the eighth grade has gone to her home at the Tom Miller ranch where she will go to school. We are very sorry to lose her.

The eighth is having a hard time with their grammar.

Pardee Rich broke some bones in his foot by jumping over a box. He is out of school as a result of the accident.

The baseball boys are not playing ball this week. They say it is too cold on the fingers.

Hazel Hack, George Potter and Pardee Rich are absent from school.

The first program of the Lauren Literary Society will be given Dec. 6th, 1907.
Everybody welcome.

The high school and grammar grades are practicing on an opening song for next Friday.

The skating rink closed last Saturday.
There will probably be some lessons learned now.

The basket ball girls seem to have taken a vacation.

One of the liveliest debates of the year will take place between pupils of the school on Friday the 6th.

The days are getting pretty short now, so school is dismissed at 3:30.

The Wasco school has excellent timber for a good athletic team this year.

The medals were given this week to the ones who made the greatest improvement over last week's work. Carlton Ross is the proud possessor of the third grade bell and Lara Walker and William Hack of the fourth grade.

Willie Fordyce, who has been in our school for the past month, left last week for his new home in Portland. Willie is greatly missed in our school room and our best wishes follow him to his new home.

A number are absent this week. We hope next week's work will have a better attendance.

Among our best workers last week in the third grade were found Beatrice Harper, Gladys Keen, Olive McLeod and Carlton Ross.

Lloyd Grimes is doing excellent work in spelling this month.

On Wednesday afternoon of Thanksgiving week the primary rooms gave a union program. The parts played were well done, and altho the program was simple it was nonetheless enjoyed by about 25 or 30 visitors. The neat little fence, Jack Spratt and his wife, Jape, assisted by Old King Cole, pleased both children and parents. The Pop Corn song is a joy to the little ones. The school work of these two rooms is going on nicely and we invite you to come and see some of our regular work.

Miss Coffey will give a little Christmas exercise by her room. She has a nice group of boys and girls and we expect them to show themselves off very well in the little program to be given on December 20.
