Wedding Bells.

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Belshee, occurred the pleasant wedding of their daughter, Edith, to Frank Burnet. At 12:15 p.m. on New Year's day the bride and groom marched under a beautiful white arch, which had been tastefully decorated with festooning and dainty wedding bells, where the words that made them man and wife were pronounced by their former pastor, W. A. Sexton, of The Dalles. The bride was given in white silk and the groom in conventional black. Both young people are well and favorably known in their community and have a host of friends who wish them many years of happiness and prosperity on their journey down the pathway of life together, hand in hand. A very sumptuous wedding dinner was spread for the occasion, of which about fifty guests partook. The ride and groom were the recipients of many lovely and useful presents. The following is a list of presents received by the couple:
