Big line of ladies' underwear, coats, petticoats and suits just received at Geo. N. Crossfield's.

Holman Harrington arrived the first of the week and now has charge of the dry goods department at Crossfield's.

Geo. Lamborn returned Wednesday from Portland, where he has been visiting his wife, who is in the city receiving treatment for her eyes. The oculists say that Mrs. Lamborn will not be able to return home before next June.

A quiet wedding occurred at 9:30 yesterday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Barbee when their daughter Harlie was united in marriage with Calvin A. Ingle, formerly of Corvallis, but who is well known in Wasco, having for some time filled a position in the Ed. McKee drug store. The happy young couple departed on the passenger yesterday morning and will be away for some time on a honeymoon trip, after which they will make their home in Wasco. The News joins their host of friends in wishing the young people a happy journey through life.

The people of Wasco were entertained last week by one of the best comedy companies that has ever come to town. The play staged last Friday evening was "The Brand of Kane," and being a good play and well acted, was appreciated by all. Saturday evening the company put on the wellknown drama, "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde." There could be no criticism against the performance of the players. The acting was exceptionally good, but the play is not the kind that wins popularity, and any company will make a mistake when they put it on the stage.
